Hamburg finalists announce Media Open Days

Club Atlético de Madrid and Fulham FC have confirmed details of their Media Open Days prior to this season's UEFA Europa League Final to be played at the Hamburg Arena on Wednesday 12 May. Representatives of the international media will have the opportunity to interview the coaching and playing staff of both teams.

Club Atlético de Madrid (for administrative purposes the 'home' team in Hamburg) will hold their Media Open Day on Thursday 6 May, at the Estadio Vicente Calderón, starting at 10.30 with a press conference with head coach Quique Sánchez Flores and a player, followed by a fully open training session and a mixed zone allowing media to interview the full squad of players.

Media wishing to attend should e-mail Tomas Calvo in the club press office at tcalvo@clubatleticodemadrid.com.

Fulham FC will hold their Media Open Day on Friday 7 May at the club's training ground at Motspur Park, New Malden, Surrey KT3 6PT. A fully open training session will take place at 10.30, followed by a mixed zone with players at 13.00 and a press conference with manager Roy Hodgson at 13.30.

Media wishing to attend should e-mail Carmelo Mifsud in the club press office at CMifsud@fulhamfc.com.

The two clubs have also announced their pre-match media activity at the Hamburg Arena on Tuesday 11 May.

Club Atlético de Madrid will hold their press conference at 18.45 with head coach Quique Sánchez Flores and two players. This will be followed by a fully open training session from 19.30 to 20.30.

Fulham FC will hold their press conference at 17.15 with manager Roy Hodgson and two players, followed by a fully open training session from 18.00 to 19.00.

All times are local time.
