Preamble

The following regulations have been adopted on the basis of Article 49(2a) and Article 50(1) of the UEFA Statutes.

I General provisions

Article 1

Scope of application

1.01 The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the 2009-11 UEFA European Under-21 Championship (hereinafter the competition).

II Entries - Admission - Duties

Article 2

Entries for the competition

- 2.01 UEFA stages a European Under-21 Championship every two years, over two seasons.
- 2.02 All UEFA member associations are invited to enter their national Under-21 team for the competition.

Admission criteria

- 2.03 To be eligible to participate in the competition, an association must fulfil the following criteria:
  - a) it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to respect the statutes, regulations, directives and decisions of UEFA;
  - it must confirm in writing that the association itself, as well as its players and officials, agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Lausanne as defined in the relevant provisions of the UEFA Statutes;
  - c) it must fill in the official entry form, which must reach the UEFA administration within the set deadline together with all other documents which the UEFA administration deems necessary for ascertaining compliance with the admission criteria.

Admission procedure

- 2.04 Associations which fulfil the admission criteria are informed of their admission to the competition by the UEFA administration in writing.
- 2.05 If an association does not fulfil the admission criteria, the UEFA administration will not admit it to the competition. Such decisions are final.

Duties of the associations

- 2.06 On entering the competition, participating associations agree:
  - a) to comply with the Laws of the Game issued by the IFAB;
  - b) to respect the principles of fair play as defined in the UEFA Statutes;
  - c) to field their strongest team throughout the competition;
  - d) to ensure and confirm that their Under-21 head coach holds at least the highest coaching qualification of the national association by which he is employed (based on the implementation status of the UEFA Convention on the Mutual Recognition of Coaching Qualifications);
  - e) to stage all matches in the competition in accordance with the present regulations;
  - to comply with all decisions regarding the competition taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, the UEFA administration or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by UEFA circular letter or by official letter, fax or email);
  - g) to observe the UEFA Safety and Security Regulations (2006 edition) for all matches in the competition:
  - h) to stage all matches in the competition in a stadium meeting the structural criteria of the stadium category required by paragraph 12.01;
  - i) if appropriate, to confirm that the artificial turf meets the applicable FIFA quality standards and to send the UEFA administration a copy of the required FIFA licensing certificate issued by a FIFA accredited laboratory within the 12 months before the entry deadline;
  - j) not to represent UEFA or the UEFA European Under-21 Championship without UEFA's prior written approval;
  - k) to adhere to the principles governing the release of players for association teams as laid out in Annex 1 of the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players.

III Trophy and Medals

Article 3

Trophy

- 3.01 The original trophy, which is used for the official presentation ceremony at the final and at other official events approved by UEFA, remains in UEFA's keeping at all times. A full-size replica trophy, the UEFA European Under-21 Championship winners trophy, is awarded to the winning association.
- 3.02 Any association which wins the trophy three consecutive times or five times in total receives a special mark of recognition. Once a cycle of three successive wins or five in total has been completed, the association concerned starts a new cycle from zero.

Commemorative plaque

3.03 Each association that competes in the final tournament will receive a commemorative plaque.

Medals

3.04 35 gold medals are presented to the winning team and 35 silver medals to the runners-up. 35 bronze medals will be presented to the defeated semifinalists. Additional medals may not be produced.

IV Responsibilities

Article 4

Responsibilities of the participating associations

- 4.01 The associations are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.
- 4.02 The national association of the country where the qualifying-competition match or the final tournament is being staged is considered the host association.
- 4.03 The host association is responsible for order and security before, during and after the match. The host association may be called to account for incidents of any kind, and may be disciplined.
- 4.04 Matches must, in principle, be played in a stadium within the territory of the host association. Exceptionally, matches may be played in the territory of another UEFA member association, if so decided by the UEFA administration and/or the disciplinary bodies, for reasons of safety or following a disciplinary measure.

Additional responsibilities for the final tournament

- 4.05 The UEFA Executive Committee will entrust one of UEFA's member associations with the organisation and staging of the final tournament via a tender process. On the basis of the present regulations and the staging agreement concluded with UEFA, the appointed final tournament host association is responsible for all match-related organisational tasks and shall fully respect any and all rights granted by UEFA to third parties in connection with the final tournament.
- 4.06 The eight associations participating in the final tournament will be thoroughly informed at the final draw on any further guidelines related to the final tournament and receive all relevant documents in due course (e.g. Team Manual).

V Insurance

Article 5

General principles

- 5.01 All persons involved in the competition (qualifying competition and final tournament) are responsible for their own insurance coverage.
- 5.02 The participating associations are responsible for and undertake to conclude all necessary and adequate insurance coverage for their delegations, including players and officials, at their own expense for the whole duration of the competition.
- 5.03 If the host association is not the owner of the stadium used, it is also responsible for ensuring that the stadium owner and/or tenant in question concludes a fully comprehensive insurance policy. If appropriate insurance policies are not provided by the stadium owner and/or tenant in due time, the host association concludes the necessary additional insurance cover at its own cost, failing which it may be concluded by UEFA at the host association's expense.
- 5.04 Claims for damages against UEFA are expressly excluded and anyone involved shall hold UEFA harmless from any and all claims for liability arising in relation to the Competition. In any case, UEFA may request anyone involved to provide, free of charge, written releases of liability and/or hold harmless notes, and/or confirmation and/or copies of the policies concerned in one of UEFA's official languages.

A. Qualifying competition

- 5.05 Host associations must conclude with reputable insurers and at their own cost all necessary insurance in connection with the staging and organising of the matches, including but not limited to, third-party liability coverage. Host associations are responsible for ensuring that UEFA is included as a coinsured party.
- 5.06 The third-party liability policy must include an appropriate guaranteed sum for damage (including, but not limited to, bad weather and force majeure) to persons, objects, property, and pure economic losses, and it must correspond to the specific circumstances of the associations concerned.

B. Final tournament

- 5.07 The host association staging the final tournament must conclude adequate insurance coverage for all of its risks arising under these regulations at its own expense, in accordance with its responsibilities, as set out in article 4 of these regulations and in the staging agreement.
- 5.08 UEFA concludes insurance coverage in accordance with its responsibilities, as set out in the staging agreement.

VI Competition System

Article 6

Competition stages

6.01 The competition consists of a qualifying competition and a final tournament.

Article 7

A. Qualifying competition

- 7.01 The qualifying competition consists of:
  - a) a group stage;
  - b) play-off matches.

a) Group stage Group formation

- 7.02 The team of the final tournament's host association qualifies automatically for the final tournament. The remaining teams will be drawn into groups, the number of which will depend on the total number of teams entered for the competition. The number of teams per group should not, in principle, be less than five or more than six. The groups will include teams seeded by the UEFA administration, whose decisions are final. The reigning European champions will always be seeded. The other associations will be classified on the basis of the results they achieved in the qualifying competition of the 2007-09 UEFA European Under-21 Championship and also the qualifying competition of the 2006/07 UEFA European Under-21 Championship.
- 7.03 To determine the association coefficient rankings, the total number of points obtained in the qualifying competitions in question will be divided by the number of matches played. For the associations that qualified automatically for a final tournament, the coefficient is calculated on the basis of its results in its most recent qualifying competition.
- 7.04 The composition of the groups will be decided by means of a draw after completion of the qualifying competition of the 2007-09 UEFA European Under-21 Championship.
- 7.05 If two or more associations have the same coefficient, the following criteria will apply:
  - a) coefficients from the matches played by the respective teams in their most recent qualifying competition;
  - b) average goal difference in their most recent qualifying competition;
  - c) average number of goals scored in their most recent qualifying competition;
  - d) average number of away goals scored in their most recent qualifying competition;

- e) fair play ranking in their most recent qualifying competition;
- f) drawing of lots.

Match system

- 7.06 The matches in the qualifying competition will be played in groups according to a league system, with each team playing twice all the other teams in its group in a series of home and away matches. Three points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw, and no points for a defeat.
- 7.07 The best 14 teams from the group stage, namely the group winners and the best runners-up, qualify for the play-off matches.

Equality of points after the group matches

- 7.08 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings:
  - a) higher number of points obtained in the group matches played between the teams in question;
  - b) superior goal difference from the group matches played between the teams in question;
  - higher number of goals scored in the group matches played between the teams in question;
  - d) higher number of goals scored away from home in the group matches played between the teams in question;
  - If, after applying criteria a) to d) to all teams on equal points, two or more teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to d) will be reapplied to determine the ranking of these teams. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) and f) will apply;
  - e) results of all group matches:
    - 1. superior goal difference
    - 2. higher number of goals scored
    - 3. higher number of goals scored away from home
    - 4. fair play conduct;
  - f) drawing of lots.
- 7.09 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16), provided that the other teams within the group do not have the same number of points on completion of all group matches. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under paragraph 7.08 a) to f) will apply.

This rule is applicable if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the teams qualified for the play-off matches.

- 7.10 To determine the ranking of the best runner-up teams, only results against the teams in first, third, fourth and fifth place will be taken into account, with the following criteria being taken into consideration in the order given:
  - a) higher number of points obtained in these matches;
  - b) superior goal difference from these matches;
  - c) higher number of goals scored in these matches;
  - d) higher number of away goals scored in these matches;
  - e) fair play ranking in these matches;
  - f) drawing of lots.

b) Play-off matches

7.11 The fixtures of the seven play-off matches are determined by means of a draw. The seeded teams will be the seven group winners with the best coefficients on the basis of the results achieved in the qualifying competition of the 2009-11 UEFA European Under-21 Championship and also the qualifying competition of the 2007-09 UEFA European Under-21 Championship (see also paragraph 7.03). The winners and runners-up from the same group must not be drawn against each other. Play-off matches are played according to the knock-out system, with each team playing each opponent twice, in home and away matches. The team which scores the greater aggregate of goals in the two matches qualifies for the final tournament. Otherwise, the provisions of paragraph 7.12 apply.

Away goals and extra time in the knock-out system

7.12 For matches played under the knock-out system, if the two teams involved in a tie score the same number of goals over the two legs, the team which scores more away goals qualifies for the next stage. If this procedure does not produce a result, i.e. if the two teams score the same number of home and away goals, two 15-minute periods of extra time will be played at the end of the second leg. If, during extra time, both teams score the same number of goals, away goals count double (i.e. the visiting team qualifies). If no goals are scored during extra time, kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16) determine which team qualifies for the next stage.

Article 8

B. Final tournament

Group formation

8.01 Eight teams participate in the final tournament: the seven winners of the playoff matches and the team of the final tournament host association, which qualifies automatically. The UEFA administration will divide the eight teams into two groups (A and B) of four teams each by means of a draw.

8.02 The two groups will be formed as follows:

Group A	Group B
A1	B1
A2	B2
A3	В3
A4	B4

Coefficients

- 8.03 The seeded teams will be the host association, the reigning European champions, if they qualify, and the two or three teams with the best coefficients on the basis of the results achieved in the qualifying competition for the 2009-11 UEFA European Under-21 Championship. The other associations qualified for the final tournament will be assigned to the two groups by means of a draw.
- 8.04 If any of the teams in question have the same coefficient, the following criteria relating to the play-offs (results after normal time) will be decisive, in the order given:
  - a) average number of goals scored per match;
  - b) average number of goals conceded per match;
  - c) number of away goals scored;
  - d) drawing of lots.

Group match schedule

8.05 Each team plays each of the other teams in the same group once, according to the league system (three points for a win, one point for a draw, no points for a defeat). The group matches will be played in accordance with the following schedule. The last two matches in each group must both kick off at the same time. The first-named team will be considered as the home team.

	Match day 1	Match day 2	Match day 3
Group A	A1 vs A2	A1 vs A3	A4 vs A1
	A3 vs A4	A2 vs A4	A2 vs A3
Group B	B1 vs B2	B1 vs B3	B4 vs B1
	B3 vs B4	B2 vs B4	B2 vs B3

Equality of points

- 8.06 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of all the matches in their group, the following criteria will be used, in the order given, to determine the rankings:
  - a) number of points obtained in the matches between the teams in question;
  - b) goal difference in the matches between the teams in question;
  - number of goals scored in the matches between the teams in question (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
  - d) goal difference in all the group matches;
  - e) number of goals scored in all the group matches;
  - f) coefficient from the qualifying competitions (only group stage matches) for the 2007-09 and 2009-11 UEFA European Under-21 Championship (total number of points obtained divided by the number of matches played);
  - g) goal difference from the play-offs;
  - h) average number of goals scored per play-off;
  - i) fair play ranking (final tournament);
  - j) drawing of lots.
- 8.07 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16), provided that no other team within the group has the same number of points on completion of all group matches. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under paragraph 8.06 a) to j) will apply. This rule is applicable if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the teams qualified for the semi-finals.

Semi-finals

8.08 The winners and runners-up in each group play the semi-finals over one match, as follows:

Semi-final 1: Winner of Group A  $\nu$  Runner-up of Group B

Semi-final 2: Winner of Group B v Runner-up of Group A

Final

8.09 The winners of the semi-finals play in the final as follows:

Winner of semi-final 1 v Winner of semi-final 2

Same number of goals in a semi-final or the final

8.10 If the result is a draw at the end of normal playing time, two 15-minute periods of extra time will be played. If the two teams are still equal after extra time, the winners will be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 16).

Qualification for the Olympic Football Tournament

8.11 According to the number of European places in the Olympic Football Tournament in 2012, as decided by FIFA, UEFA will define the qualification process and inform all associations accordingly in due course.

VII Refusal to play, Cancellation of a Match, Match abandoned and Similar Cases

Article 9

Refusal to play and similar cases

- 9.01 If an association refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full, the Control and Disciplinary Body will take a decision in the matter.
- 9.02 The Control and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the association responsible for the match being abandoned.
- 9.03 If an association is disqualified during the qualifying competition matches or at the final tournament, the results of all of its matches will be declared null and void, and the points awarded forfeited.
- 9.04 If an association that has qualified for the final tournament does not compete, the UEFA administration may replace it and, if so, will define the association to play in its place according to the results achieved by the associations eliminated previously.
- 9.05 An association which refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from UEFA.
- 9.06 Upon receipt of a reasoned and well-documented request from the association concerned, the UEFA administration may set an amount of compensation due for financial loss.

Article 10

Unfit fields of play

A. Qualifying competition

10.01 If, for a qualifying-competition match, the host association deems that a field of play will not be fit for play, it must notify the visiting team and the referee prior to their departure. Otherwise, the host association is responsible for

- their travel, board and lodging expenses. The UEFA administration must be notified at the same time.
- 10.02 If any doubt arises as to the condition of the field of play after the visiting team's departure, the referee will decide on the field of play itself whether or not it is fit for play.
- 10.03 If the referee declares the field of play unfit for play, the match will be played the following day, unless, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot take place then. In this case, the associations may play the match two days later than originally scheduled, subject to the approval of the UEFA administration. If the match cannot take place at all, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting team, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the two associations in equal parts. The same provisions apply if a match is abandoned for such reasons.

B. Final tournament

10.04 If the referee declares the field of play unfit for play, the match will be played the following day, unless, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot take place then. In this case, the UEFA administration takes a final decision.

Bad weather, reasons beyond control, match abandoned

A. Qualifying competition

- 10.05 If a match cannot commence or if a match is abandoned before the end of normal playing time, or during any extra time, because of the weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, a 90-minute replay must be played the next day, given the need to complete the corresponding phase and to avoid additional expenses for the visiting team. If, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot be replayed the next day, the two associations are free to agree to play the match two days later than originally scheduled, subject to the approval of the UEFA administration.
- 10.06 If the match cannot take place at all, the travel, board and lodging expenses of the visiting team, as well as the relevant hosting costs, are borne by the two associations in equal parts. This provision also applies if a match cannot commence for any of the reasons set out above.

B. Final tournament

10.07 If a match cannot commence or if a match is abandoned before the end of normal playing time, or during any extra time, because of the weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, a 90-minute replay must be played the next day, given the need to complete the corresponding phase. If, for reasons beyond control, the match cannot be replayed the next day, the UEFA administration will take a decision.

VIII Match Dates, Venues and Kick-off Times

Play-offs

- m) 09/10 October 2010
- n) 12/13 October 2010
- 11.02 If both associations concerned are in agreement, group stage matches may be played on any other date, for example on the Friday before the Saturday that qualifies as an international official match date, or on the international friendly match dates listed below:
  - a) 12 August 2009
  - b) 03 March 2010
  - c) 11 August 2010

Regarding the release of players, Annex 1 of the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players applies.

11.03 Meetings to determine fixtures in the group stage will take place immediately after the group stage draw. Associations must agree on the exact date of each match (e.g. Saturday, 5 September 2009). If the associations in question are unable to reach agreement, the matches will take place according to a standard fixture list drawn up by the UEFA administration. For reasons of sporting fairness, the last group matches must take place on the same day, and the UEFA administration is entitled to order the last decisive group matches to be played at the same time. Any subsequent changes of date are subject to the approval of the UEFA administration. In such a case, the host association for the match in question must also inform the other associations in the group.

Venues and kick-off times

11.04 The venues for the group stage matches have to be fixed by the host associations and announced to their opponents and the UEFA administration at least 60 days in advance. Match venues for the play-offs have to be fixed by the host associations and announced to their opponents and the UEFA administration seven days after the play-off draw. When fixing a venue, the host association must take into account the length of the journey to be undertaken by the visiting association. Unless the visiting association agrees otherwise, the venue for a qualifying match must be no more than a two-hour bus drive from the nearest international airport. The kick-off times must be announced to the UEFA administration at least 30 days before the match (and no more than seven days after the play-off draw in the case of play-off matches).

Arrival of the teams at the match venue

11.05 The associations must arrange for their teams to arrive at the match venue early enough to hold their pre-match press conference before the media deadlines of both countries involved and no later than 24 hours before kickoff.

B. Final tournament

Match dates

- 11.06 The final tournament will take place from 12 to 25 June 2011.
- 11.07 The UEFA administration is responsible for drawing up the fixture list for the final tournament in conjunction with the local organising committee (LOC), whom it will consult in this regard. Each team must have a rest period of at least 48 hours between matches.

Arrival of the teams in the host country

11.08 Each association taking part in the final tournament must arrive at its team hotel in the host country at least two days before its first match.

Arrival of the teams at the match venue

11.09 The teams must arrive at their transfer hotel or be within a 120km radius of the stadium where their match is to be played no later than 24 hours before kick-off.

Training grounds

- 11.10 UEFA will offer each association a pre-selected training ground. Should any association choose a training ground other than those pre-selected, it shall bear any additional costs incurred.
- 11.11 In any case, all training grounds used by associations will become "official" two days before the first match of the final tournament and the provisions of paragraph 29.10 will apply.

IX Stadiums and Match Organisation

Article 12

Stadium categories

- 12.01 Unless stipulated otherwise in these regulations, matches in the competition must be played in a stadium which meets the structural criteria of the following categories as defined in the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations:
  - a) category 2 for the qualifying competition;
  - b) category 3 for the final tournament;

Exceptions to a structural criterion

12.02 The UEFA administration may grant an exception to a specific structural criterion for the stadium category in question in cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request. An exception can be granted for one or more matches in the competition or for the whole duration of the competition. Such decisions are final.

Stadium certificate and safety certificate

- 12.03 Each association on whose territory matches in the competition will be played is responsible for:
  - a) inspecting every stadium concerned and for issuing stadium certificates which have to be forwarded to the UEFA administration confirming that the stadiums meet the structural criteria of the required stadium category;
  - b) sending the UEFA administration a copy of the certificate issued by the competent public authorities confirming that the stadium, including its facilities (emergency lighting system, first aid facilities, type of protection against intrusion by spectators into the playing area, etc.), has been thoroughly inspected and meets all the safety requirements laid down by the applicable national law.

12.04 The UEFA administration accepts or rejects the stadiums on the basis of these certificates. Such decisions are final.

Stadium inspections

12.05 The UEFA administration may carry out stadium inspections at any time before and during the competition to check whether the required structural criteria have been and are still being met. Cases of non-conformity with an applicable structural criterion may be referred to the UEFA Control and Disciplinary Body, which will decide on appropriate measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

Retractable stadium roofs

- 12.06 Before the match, the UEFA match delegate, in consultation with the referee, decides whether a stadium's retractable roof will be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the match-day organisational meeting, although it may subsequently be altered at any time prior to kick-off if the weather conditions change, again in consultation with the referee.
- 12.07 If the match starts with the roof closed, it must remain closed for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match subject to any applicable laws issued by a competent state authority. Such a decision may only be taken if the weather conditions seriously deteriorate. If the referee does order the closure of the roof during the match, it must remain closed until the final whistle.

Clocks

12.08 Clocks in the stadium showing the amount of time played may run during the match, provided they are stopped at the end of normal time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation also applies in the event of extra time being played (i.e. after 15 and 30 minutes).

Giant screens

- 12.09 The results of other matches can be shown on the scoreboard and/or giant screen during the match, while simultaneous transmissions and replays are authorised for press monitors and closed-circuit channels only. Delayed footage of the relevant match may be transmitted on the giant screen inside the stadium provided that the host association obtains all the necessary third-party permission to transmit such footage including (without limitation) permission from the host broadcaster producing the live international feed of the match and any relevant local authorities. Moreover, the host association shall ensure that such footage is transmitted on the giant screen during the match only when the ball is out of play and/or during the half-time interval or break before extra-time (if any) and that it does not include any images that:
  - a) may have an impact on or affect the playing of the match;

- b) may be reasonably considered as controversial insofar as they are likely to encourage or incite any form of crowd disorder;
- may display any public disorder, civil disobedience or any commercial and/or offensive material within the crowd or on the pitch; or
- d) may be deemed to criticise, undermine or damage the reputation, standing or authority of any player, match official and/or any other party at the stadium (including but not limited to any images that are aimed to highlight directly or indirectly any off-side offence, fault committed by a player, potential mistake of a match official and/or any behaviour which is contrary to the principle of fair play).
- 12.10 UEFA and the host association will agree on the terms and conditions related to all scoreboard and giant screen transmissions during the final tournament.

Balls

- 12.11 Balls used must conform to the requirements laid down in the Laws of the Game
- 12.12 For qualifying-competition matches, balls must be provided by the host association. Balls used in the final tournament are supplied by UEFA.

Artificial turf

- 12.13 With the exception of the final tournament, which must be played on natural turf, matches in the competition may be played on artificial turf in accordance with the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations and provided that such artificial turf meets the FIFA Recommended 2-Star Standard, in compliance with the FIFA Quality Concept Handbook of Test Methods and Requirements for Artificial Turf Football Surfaces dated January 2008.
- 12.14 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association are fully responsible for meeting the above requirements, in particular those related to:
  - a) maintenance work and ongoing improvement measures; and
  - b) safety and environmental measures as set out in the FIFA Quality Concept - Handbook of Test Methods and Requirements for Artificial Turf Football Surfaces.
- 12.15 The owner of the artificial turf and the host association must obtain sufficient warranties and/or guarantees related to the material and the installation from the manufacturer and the installer of the artificial turf.
- 12.16 UEFA cannot be held responsible for any damages to third parties resulting from the use of the artificial turf.
- 12.17 A host association organising a qualifying match in a stadium with artificial turf has to announce this to their opponents and the UEFA administration at least 60 days in advance.

Stadiums for the final tournament

- 12.18 All stadiums chosen to host matches in the final tournament must observe the technical recommendations and requirements of the staging agreement signed between the host association and UEFA.
- 12.19 Stadiums for matches in the final tournament must be available free of existing commercial rights contracts of any kind, reserved seats, etc.

Article 13

Match organisation

- 13.01 The UEFA, FIFA and UEFA Respect flags, as well as the flags of the teams taking part in the match, must be flown at the stadium at all matches in the competition. The national anthems of both teams involved must be played.
- 13.02 At all matches in the competition, the players are invited to shake hands with their opponents and the referees after the line-up procedure as well as after the final whistle, as a gesture of fair play.
- 13.03 Only six team officials, one of whom must be a team doctor, and seven (final tournament: 12) substitute players are allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench, i.e. a total of 13 (final tournament: 18) persons. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.
- 13.04 If space so permits, up to five additional technical seats are allowed for association's staff providing technical support to the team during the match (kit manager, assistant physiotherapist, etc.). Such seats shall be outside the technical area and positioned at least five metres away from the benches, but with access to the dressing rooms. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.
- 13.05 Smoking is not allowed in the technical area during matches.
- 13.06 The host association must ensure an appropriate medical service at matches, including a stretcher and a sufficient number of carriers, an ambulance and stand-by medical personnel. Stretchers should be kept by the substitutes' benches.
- 13.07 The following provisions must also be observed during the qualifying competition:
  - a) An appropriate number of complimentary tickets and purchase tickets, to be fixed by mutual agreement, will be set aside for the visiting association.
  - b) The official UEFA representatives and at least four representatives of the visiting association must be provided with top-category seats in the VIP sector.
  - c) Weather permitting, the visiting association will be allowed to train for at least 45 minutes on the field where the match is to take place the day before the match. The visiting association will agree with the host association on the length of the training session, which in principle shall not exceed one hour. In addition, the visiting association may hold private training sessions at a location to be agreed on with the host association, but not at the stadium where the match will be played.

X Laws of the Game

Article 14

14.01 Matches are played in conformity with the Laws of the Game promulgated by the International Football Association Board (IFAB).

Substitution of players

- 14.02 The substitution of three players per team is permitted in the course of the match. The use of substitution boards (preferably electronic) to indicate the substitution of players is compulsory. The substitution boards must be numbered on both sides.
- 14.03 During the game, substitutes are allowed to leave the technical area to warm up. At the pre-match organisational meeting, the referee and/or the match delegate determines exactly where they may warm up (behind the first assistant referee or behind the advertising boards behind the goal) and how many substitutes are allowed to warm up simultaneously. In principle, three substitutes per team shall be allowed to warm up at the same time; exceptionally, if space so permits, the referee can allow up to seven substitutes of each team to warm up simultaneously in the determined area.

Match sheet

- 14.04 Before each competition match, each association receives a match sheet on which the numbers, full names, dates of birth and, if applicable, the shirt names of the 18 players in the squad (23 players in the final tournament) must be entered, together with the full names of the officials seated on the substitutes' bench and on the additional technical seats. The match sheet must be properly completed in block capitals, and signed by the captain and competent association official.
- 14.05 The 11 first-named players must commence the match. The other 7 (12 in the final tournament) are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players' shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet. The goalkeepers and team captain must be identified.
- 14.06 Both teams must hand their match sheets to the referee at least 75 minutes before kick-off.
- 14.07 The referee may ask to see the player's registration licence, personal identity card or passport of the players whose names are listed on the match sheet. Each player participating in a UEFA competition match must be in possession of a player's registration licence issued by his national - association or an official personal identity card/passport, each containing his photograph and date of birth.

- 14.08 If the match sheet is not completed and returned in time, the matter will be submitted to the Control and Disciplinary Body.
- 14.09 Only three of the substitutes listed on the match sheet may take part in the match. A player who has been substituted may take no further part in the match.
- 14.10 If there are fewer than seven players on either of the teams, the match is abandoned. In this case, the Control and Disciplinary Body decides on the consequences.

Replacement of players on the match sheet in the qualifying competition

- 14.11 After the match sheets have been completed and signed by both teams and returned to the referee, and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following provisions apply for qualifying matches.
  - a) If any of the first 11 players listed on the match sheet are not able to start the match due to unexpected physical incapacity, they may be replaced by any of the seven substitutes listed on the initial match sheet. The substitute(s) in question may then be replaced by a registered player (players) not listed on the initial match sheet, so that the quota of substitutes is not reduced. During the match, three players may still be substituted.
  - b) If any of the seven substitutes listed on the match sheet are not able to be fielded due to unexpected physical incapacity, they may be replaced by any registered player not listed on the initial match sheet.
  - c) The associations concerned must, upon request, provide the UEFA administration with the necessary medical certificates.

Replacement of players on the match sheet in the final tournament

- 14.12 After the match sheets have been completed and signed by both teams and returned to the referee, and if the match has not yet kicked off, the following provisions apply for final tournament matches.
  - a) If any of the first 11 players listed on the match sheet are not able to start the match due to unexpected physical incapacity, they may be replaced by any of the 12 substitutes listed on the match sheet. Such replacements will reduce the quota of substitute players accordingly for the final tournament match in question. During the match, three players may still be substituted.
  - b) If any of the 12 substitutes listed on the match sheet are not able to be fielded due to unexpected physical incapacity, they may not be replaced,

- which means that the quota of substitute players will be reduced accordingly for the final tournament match in question.
- c) The associations concerned must, upon request, provide the UEFA administration with the necessary medical certificates.

Article 15

Half-time interval, break before extra time

15.01 The half-time interval lasts 15 minutes. If extra time is required, there will be a five-minute break between the end of normal time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

Article 16

Kicks from the penalty mark

- 16.01 In case the winner of a match played under the knock-out system cannot be determined after extra time (or in case paragraphs 7.09 or 8.07 apply), kicks from the penalty mark will be taken in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Laws of the Game promulgated by the IFAB.
- 16.02 The referee decides which goal will be used for the kicks:
  - a) For reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting or other similar reasons, the referee may choose which goal will be used without tossing a coin. In this case, he is not required to justify his decision, which is final.
  - b) If he considers that either goal can be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, he decides that the head side of the coin corresponds to one goal and the tail side to the other. He then tosses the coin to determine which goal will be used.
- 16.03 To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the referee is assisted by the assistant referees and the fourth official, who also note down the numbers of the players on each team who take kicks from the penalty mark. The assistant referees position themselves according to the diagram in the Laws of the Game.
- 16.04 If the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed because of weather conditions or for other reasons beyond control, the results will be decided by the drawing of lots by the referee in the presence of the UEFA match delegate and the two team captains.
- 16.05 If, through the fault of a team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, paragraphs 9.01 to 9.05 of the present regulations shall apply.

XI Player Eligibility

Article 17

Nationality

17.01 Each national association must select its national representative team from players who hold the nationality of its country and who comply with the provisions of Article 15 et seq. of the Regulations governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

Age

17.02 Players are eligible to play in the 2009-11 UEFA European Under-21 Championship if they were born on or after 1 January 1988. Players who are eligible to take part at the start of the competition will be eligible until the end of the competition. The national associations are responsible for the strict observation of this provision.

Players registered for the qualifying competition

- 17.03 Each competing national association must provide the UEFA administration with a list of all selected players (surname, first name, club, shirt number and date of birth) as well as the name of the coach. This list must be submitted to the UEFA administration at least seven full days before each qualifying-competition match is played.
- 17.04 Only players registered with the UEFA administration are authorised to play in the qualifying competition. Amendments to the list are allowed but must always be communicated in writing to the UEFA administration and, on the day of the match, also to the UEFA match delegate.

Players registered for the final tournament

- 17.05 A list of up to 40 players must be submitted to the UEFA administration 30 full days prior to the opening match in the final tournament. No further changes may be made to this list after this deadline. At least four of these 40 players must be goalkeepers.
- 17.06 Only 23 of the 40 players listed are authorised to take part in the final tournament. A list of these 23 players must be in the possession of the UEFA administration at least 10 full days before the opening match in the final tournament. Three of these 23 players must be goalkeepers.
- 17.07 In the event of serious injury to a registered player before his team's first match in the final tournament, the player in question may be substituted only if a doctor from the UEFA Medical Committee and the team doctor concerned both confirm that the injury is sufficiently serious to prevent the player from taking part in the final tournament. In this case, the national association concerned is entitled to call upon an additional player from the list of 40 players. Subject to final approval by the UEFA administration, the newly registered player will be included in the updated list of 23 players registered

- for participation in the final tournament. All 23 players and the head coach are listed on the match sheets for each final-tournament match.
- 17.08 These official players' lists will be published by the UEFA administration.
- 17.09 The players' official passports/identity cards, each containing a photograph and date of birth, must be submitted to the UEFA representatives, for verification of age and identities of these 23 players, two days prior to the opening match in the final tournament. If a player is not in possession of a valid passport/identity card, he will not be allowed to take part in the final tournament.

A. Qualifying competition Kit approval procedure

18.03 Each association is required to complete the National Team Kit Approval Form issued by the UEFA administration and to return it to the latter by the deadline indicated on the form. This form gives details of the kits used for all national team competitions. Associations can indicate if the kit used for the competition in question has already been approved by the UEFA administration. If not, a complete set of the first-choice and second-choice kit (shirt, shorts and socks) must be submitted to the UEFA administration for approval.

Colours

18.04 The home team should always wear the official first-choice kit announced to the UEFA administration on the entry form, unless the associations concerned agree otherwise in due time, in which case details must be submitted to the UEFA administration in writing. If the associations are unable to agree on the colours to be worn by their teams, the UEFA administration will take a decision. If the referee notices on the spot that the colours of the two teams could lead to confusion, he will decide on the colours in consultation with the UEFA match delegate and/or the UEFA administration. As a rule, the home team must wear other colours for practical reasons.

B. Final tournament

Kit approval procedure

18.05 Kit used by the associations qualified for the final tournament (including playing attire and all other kit items) must be sent to the UEFA administration, who will define the exact approval procedure and confirm it to all associations concerned at the final draw. On the basis of the procedure communicated, the UEFA administration will issue a written decision regarding the approval of kit items.

Numbers

- 18.06 The players must be allocated fixed numbers from 1 to 23. The numbers on the back of the shirts shall correspond with the numbers indicated on the official players' list. The number 1 shall be worn by a goalkeeper.

18.10 UEFA will also provide the associations participating in the final tournament with a UEFA Respect fair play badge. This badge must appear on the free zone of the left shirt sleeve (from the perspective of the wearer) between the shoulder seam and the elbow. Such a badge may not be used for any other purpose, including commercial or promotional activities.

Colours

18.11 The UEFA administration will issue a written decision regarding the playing colours for matches in the final tournament. If on the match day, in the opinion of the referee or the UEFA administration, the colours of the two teams could lead to confusion, they shall be modified. The decision of the UEFA administration and the referee is final

Warm-up bibs

18.14 Substitute players warming up must wear the warm-up bibs provided by UEFA. Only UEFA bibs may be used during official training sessions.

Unfit referee

- 19.06 If a referee or assistant referee becomes unfit before a match through illness, injury, etc. and is unable to officiate, he is, in principle, replaced by the fourth official. - 27.05 The amounts paid by UEFA correspond to gross amounts. As such, they cover any and all taxes, deductions and charges.
- 27.06 Based on the success of the exploitation of media and commercial rights, the UEFA Executive Committee will decide upon the amount and distribution model of the contribution payable to each participating association.

Referees costs

27.07 UEFA covers international travel, board and lodging expenses (accommodation, meals and excursions), plus daily allowances and bonus payments, for referees and assistant referees, in accordance with the amounts decided by the Referees Committee on proposal of the UEFA administration.

Article 28

Tickets for participating associations

- 28.01 Each association taking part in the final tournament will be entitled to purchase tickets for its matches. UEFA will determine the number of tickets. Safety and security factors, including the possible segregation of fans within the ground, may be taken into account when the tickets are allocated.
- 28.02 Terms and conditions for returning a certain quantity of tickets will be determined by UEFA. These terms and conditions will be binding.
- 28.03 A number of complimentary tickets will be provided for each association taking part in the final tournament. The number of tickets will be determined by the UEFA administration and communicated in due course.

Accounting for purchased tickets

28.04 Purchased tickets shall not be paid for by the participating associations prior to the final tournament. In the final accounts for the tournament, the cost of purchased tickets will be deducted from each participating association's account.

XVI Exploitation of the Commercial Rights

Article 29

Definitions

- 29.01 For the purposes of these regulations, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
  - a) "Commercial rights" means any and all commercial and media rights and opportunities on a worldwide basis in and in relation to the final tournament and/or the qualifying competition (as applicable) including, without limitation, the relevant media rights, marketing rights and data rights, each being defined as follows;

- e) "Imagery" means visual materials representing any participating association's players, officials and other representatives, the names, relevant statistics, data and images of such persons and any participating association's name, emblems, logos, crests, team shirts (including references to kit manufacturers) and colours; and
- f) "Sponsors" means the official sponsors of the final tournament, appointed by UEFA.

A. Qualifying competition

- 29.02 The host association of any match of the qualifying competition is authorised to exploit the commercial rights in relation to such a match. In doing so, a host association must observe the stipulations of Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes, as well as the regulations governing the implementation of said article and any other instructions or guidelines issued by UEFA from time to time.
- 29.03 All member associations participating in the qualifying competition shall take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the qualifying competition and to protect the ownership thereof.
- 29.04 The commercial rights to any match of the qualifying competition may not be sold unless the sale is documented in a written agreement that provides for the payment of an appropriate fee to the host association. Any such fee forms part of the match receipts and remains with the host association.
- 29.05 All agreements relating to the exploitation of commercial rights to any match of the qualifying competition must be presented to the UEFA administration upon request. The withholding of any such agreement will be referred to the Control and Disciplinary Body and may result in disciplinary sanctions.
- 29.06 All agreements relating to the exploitation of commercial rights to any match of the qualifying competition must include (as an integral part thereof), and be subject to, Article 48 of the UEFA Statutes and the regulations governing its implementation. Furthermore, any such agreement must stipulate that if - any amendment is made to such regulations, the agreement shall be amended as necessary to conform with the relevant amendment within 30 days of the new regulations coming into force.

- 29.07 For the purpose of directly or indirectly promoting the competition, and in particular within programmes produced by or on behalf of UEFA, the host association of any match in the qualifying competition shall ensure that any third party owning rights on images of such a match grants UEFA the right to use and exploit and authorise others to use and exploit on a perpetual worldwide basis, by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or invented in the future, throughout the world, for the full duration of such rights, up to 15 minutes of audio and/or visual material from each match, free of charge and without payment of any associated clearance costs. For any match of the qualifying competition where TV production is foreseen, the host association undertakes to provide UEFA free of charge and at least 24 hours prior to the kick-off of each match with access to the television frequency information for receiving the broadcast signal at a location of UEFA's choice. These broadcasts can be recorded by UEFA for purposes envisaged in this paragraph 29.07 and a copy of such recordings shall be made available to the relevant host association upon request. If the signal is unavailable for whatever reason, the host association undertakes to provide UEFA free of charge with a recording of the entire match (in the best format available, the minimum being Beta SP) to be sent to a destination determined by UEFA within seven days of the relevant match.
- 29.08 Member associations may not use or authorise any third party to use any of the registered UEFA European Under-21 Championship trademarks or any graphic material or artistic forms developed in connection with the competition in programmes, promotions, publications or advertising or otherwise without the prior written consent of UEFA.

B. Final tournament

- 29.09 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit all of the commercial rights to the final tournament including, without limitation, those arising at, and relating to, the official training ground of each participating association. UEFA may exercise its right to exploit these commercial rights at its sole discretion and on a universal basis.
- 29.10 The commercial rights arising at, and relating to, the official training ground of each participating association commence two days before the first match of the final tournament and terminate upon the conclusion of the final tournament.
- 29.11 All participating associations shall take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the final tournament and to ensure that all commercial rights to the final tournament are owned

- and exercised solely and exclusively by UEFA and that UEFA may exploit them without any restrictions whatsoever.
- 29.12 A participating association may not display any third party commercial identification or branding in any stadium or training ground of the final tournament or at any official UEFA press conference other than:
  - a) on the kit used at non-official training sessions; and
  - b) in the indoor press conference facility at its official training facility (except during any official UEFA press conference held at such facility, see paragraph 30.13).

This provision applies from two days before the first match of the final tournament until the conclusion of the final tournament.

- 29.13 Permission for associations participating in the final tournament to make "coaching" films, which must not be used for any commercial purposes whatsoever and which will be used exclusively for the instruction of players, referees and officials of the relevant associations, must be obtained from the UEFA administration, which will set any relevant financial and other conditions. Any such requests for permission must be submitted to UEFA at least 30 days before the start of the final tournament.
- 29.14 UEFA declines all responsibility and liability in the event of any conflict between any agreement entered into by a member association and any arrangement entered into by UEFA relating to the exploitation of the commercial rights to the final tournament.
- 29.15 Following the appointment of the final tournament host, UEFA may use imagery to produce articles that illustrate a participating association's involvement in the final tournament. Production of such articles will draw on the imagery of all participating associations without giving undue prominence to the imagery of one participating association over any other. UEFA shall ensure that there will be no direct association on such articles between the imagery used and the sponsors of the final tournament.

XVII Media Matters

Article 30

- 30.01 The commitments and responsibility of the national associations towards the international media are to provide information, news and access to players and officials, while protecting the game and the players.
- 30.02 Associations should accept accreditation applications from websites, on condition that they do not cover the game (for the sake of clarity, this includes press conferences and the mixed zone) live in sound and/or pictures. They may cover the game in text only. Therefore, subject to places being available in the press box, they should be accredited as written press, with access to the post-match press conference and mixed zone.

Photographs taken by officially accredited photographers may be published for editorial purposes only, on internet websites as long as they appear as stills and not as moving pictures or quasi-video streaming. Should such photographs be published on websites, they are to be limited to no more than ten photographs per half of normal playing time, and five per period of extra time, if applicable. There must be an interval of at least one minute between the posting of each photograph on the website.

A. Qualifying competition

- 30.03 Each national association must appoint a press officer to coordinate cooperation between the team and the media in accordance with UEFA's regulations and guidelines. Where requested, the press officer will assist UEFA in compiling editorial features and statistics to help promote the competition. The press officer must attend all home matches as well as travel with the team to away fixtures in order to coordinate all media arrangements and cooperate with the press officer of the host association and the UEFA media officer or any other media representative appointed by UEFA. The visiting team's press officer must send a full list of media accreditation requests at least five working days before the match to the press officer of the host association. Both press officers shall ensure that all accreditation requests come from bona fide media representatives covering football and/or subjects related hereto.
- 30.04 For all matches in the qualifying competition, an adequate number of seats covered, if available, and where possible at least half of which equipped with desks, telephone points and modem plugs must be put at the disposal of both local and visiting media representatives.
- 30.05 If the teams arrange to hold a training session the day before the match, it has to be open to media representatives (TV and radio representatives, written press, website journalists and photographers) for at least 15 minutes. The host association, together with the visiting team's press officer or, if appointed, the UEFA media officer, is responsible for ensuring that the stadium is clear of media after 15 minutes, and that all cameras are turned off

Press conferences

30.06 Each team must hold a pre-match press conference the day before the match. Ideally, the press conference will be staged in the stadium but, in any case, they must take place in the city where the match is to be played. The press conferences of both teams must be arranged so that a media representative can attend both, and so that media deadlines in the countries concerned can be respected. Each press conference must be attended by at least the head coach of the team plus one or, preferably, two players. The host association is responsible for providing a qualified interpreter and any technical facilities necessary.

30.07 The post-match press conference at the venue must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. The host association is responsible for providing a qualified interpreter and any technical facilities necessary. Both teams are obliged to make their team manager/coach, as well as a player, available for this press conference. Both press officers (or, if appointed, the UEFA media officer), taking into consideration the interviews for the broadcasters, will decide the order of the coaches attending the press conference.

Mixed zone

30.08 After the match, a mixed zone must be set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area – accessible only to coaches, players and representatives of the media – must be divided into four areas: one for the TV rights-holders, one for written press, one for radio reporters and one for TV non-rights holders. The host association must ensure that the area is safe and not accessible by the general public or any other non-authorised people. Players of both teams are obliged to pass through the mixed zone but they are not obliged to give interviews.

Interviews

- 30.09 All interview requests have to be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA media officer, if appointed. All interview locations must be predetermined by the UEFA media officer, if appointed. All interviews are to be held with prior consent of the interviewees. Interviews are not permitted before, during or after the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, "upon arrival", "half-time" and "flash" interviews can take place under the following circumstances.
  - a) "Upon arrival" interviews are allowed with coaches and players upon their arrival at the stadium, at a pre-determined location where a fixed camera can be positioned before entry to the dressing rooms. For matches where a UEFA media officer is present, such interview requests must be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA media officer. Once the coaches and players have entered the dressing rooms, no further interviews are permitted.
  - b) A "half-time" interview may only be conducted in a designated area outside the technical zone. If appointed, the UEFA media officer, together with the press officer of the host association, may designate an area between the substitutes' benches and dressing-rooms upon request. Teams, if they agree, can only make one of their listed team officials available for this purpose. No players, including those on the substitutes' bench, may be interviewed at half time.
  - c) "Flash" interviews may last a maximum of 90 seconds and take place immediately after the final whistle in an area between the substitutes' benches and the dressing rooms, which is pre-determined by the UEFA

- media officer, if appointed. Both teams must make their team manager/head coach and at least one key player available.
- d) Players who have been sent off may not be interviewed.

Media positioning

- 30.10 The UEFA media officer, if appointed, assisted by both press officers of the teams, must ensure that:
  - a) no media representatives are allowed on the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of the hand-held host broadcaster camera crew covering the team line-ups before the match and the activities after the final whistle, if this has been previously approved by both team press officers or the UEFA media officer, if appointed;
  - b) non-authorised media representatives are not allowed on the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators. Only media representatives who have been granted permission as agreed by the press officer of the host association (and/or the visiting team) are allowed to carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them (Annexe Ia and Ib);
  - c) no media representatives are allowed in the players' tunnel or the dressing room area, with the exception of flash interviews in the predefined positions and a host broadcaster camera in a fixed position covering the teams during the stud control before they enter the pitch;
  - d) the dressing rooms are off limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the match with the exception of a host broadcaster camera filming the team kits in the dressing rooms before the arrival of the teams.

B. Final tournament

- 30.11 Each participating national association must appoint a press officer for the whole tournament to coordinate media matters in cooperation with his team, the press officer of the opposing team and the media, as well as UEFA and UEFA media officers in accordance with UEFA's regulations. The press officer will assist UEFA in compiling editorial features and statistics to help promote the competition, and compile information for UEFA's official media platforms for the tournament. The national association's press officer must attend all media activities as well as travel with the team to all matches and work alongside the UEFA media officer.
- 30.12 The teams must arrange to hold an official training session the day before the match, preferably at the stadium where the match is to be played, but in any case within a 120km radius of the stadium where the match will be played. This training session whether it is at the stadium where the match is to be played or not has to be open to media representatives (TV and radio representatives, written press, website journalists and photographers) for at least 15 minutes. It is the responsibility of the UEFA media officer (in cooperation with the press officers of both teams) to ensure the stadium is clear of media after 15 minutes and that all permanently installed TV cameras are switched off.

Official UEFA press conferences

- 30.13 Each team must hold one official UEFA press conference a day prior to their match and one immediately after the match (post-match UEFA press conference). Official UEFA press conferences must always be held at the stadium where the match is to be played. Exceptions can only be granted to those teams whose team base camp is within a 120 km radius of the stadium where the match will be played and who do not hold their official training session at the stadium and who do not stay at a team transfer hotel. Official UEFA press conferences have to be organised in cooperation with the UEFA media officer in order to help media representatives meet their deadlines in the countries concerned. Each official UEFA press conference must be attended by at least the head coach of the team plus one or, preferably, two players. Access to these official UEFA press conferences must be open to all accredited media representatives. UEFA-provided backdrops shall be used at all official UEFA press conferences.
- 30.14 The official post-match UEFA press conference at the match stadium must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. Both teams are obliged to make their team manager/head coach, as well as at least one, preferably two players, available for this press conference. The UEFA media officer, taking into consideration the interviews for the broadcasters, will decide the order of the coaches attending the press conference. It is the role of the press officers of the national associations to provide translation.

Mixed zone

30.15 After the match, a mixed zone must be set up for the media on the way from the dressing rooms to the team transport area. This area – accessible only to coaches, players and representatives of the media – must be divided into four areas: one for the TV rights-holders and for UEFA's official media platforms, one for written press, one for radio reporters and one for TV non-rights holders. UEFA will ensure that the area is safe and not accessible by the general public or any other non-authorised people. Players of both teams are obliged to pass through the mixed zone but they are not obliged to give interviews. UEFA will issue the appropriate access passes.

Accreditations

30.16 Accreditation of media representatives is the sole responsibility of UEFA. National associations will be consulted by UEFA for careful checking of applications received from media representatives from their countries. All applicants will receive a written response to their accreditation application as soon as possible after the application deadline, which will be announced in

- due time. Accreditation applications will be processed via the UEFA online accreditation system.
- 30.17 The final decision on acceptance or refusal of accreditation applications is the sole responsibility of UEFA at its entire discretion. In addition, UEFA may withdraw an accreditation at any time.
- 30.18 Admission tickets for individual matches will be distributed to the media by UEFA.

Interviews

- 30.19 All interview requests have to be coordinated with and approved by the UEFA media officer. All interview locations must be pre-determined by the UEFA media officer. All interviews are to be held with the prior consent of the interviewees. Interviews are not permitted before, during or after the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, "upon arrival", "half-time" and "flash" interviews can take place under the following circumstances.
  - a) "Upon arrival" interviews are allowed with coaches and players upon their arrival at the stadium, at a pre-determined location where a fixed camera can be positioned before entry to the dressing rooms. Once the players and coaches have entered the dressing rooms, no further interviews are permitted.
  - b) A "half-time" interview may only be conducted in a designated area outside the technical zone. The UEFA media officer may designate an area between the substitutes' benches and dressing rooms upon request. Teams, if they agree, can only make one of their listed team officials available for this purpose. No players, including those on the substitutes' bench, may be interviewed at half time.
  - c) "Flash" interviews last a maximum of 90 seconds and take place immediately after the final whistle in an area between the substitutes' benches and the dressing rooms, which is pre-determined by the UEFA media officer. Both teams must make their team manager/head coach and at least one key player available.
  - d) Players who have been sent off may not be interviewed.

Media positioning

- 30.20 The UEFA media officer, assisted by both press officers of the teams, must ensure that:
  - a) no media representatives are allowed on the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of the hand-held host broadcaster camera crew covering the team line-ups before the match and the activities after the final whistle, if this has been agreed in advance by UEFA;

- b) non-authorised media representatives are not allowed on the playing area or the area between the boundaries of the field and the spectators. Only media representatives who have been granted permission by the UEFA media officer are allowed to carry out their work in the specific locations assigned to them;
- c) no media representatives are allowed in the players' tunnel or the dressing room area, with the exception of flash interviews in the predefined positions and a host broadcaster camera in a fixed position covering the teams during the stud control before they enter the pitch;
- d) the dressing rooms are off limits to representatives of the media before, during and after the match with the exception of a host broadcaster camera filming the team kits in the dressing rooms before the arrival of the teams.

XVIII Intellectual Property Rights

Article 31

- 31.01 UEFA is the exclusive owner of all intellectual property rights of the competition, including any current or future rights of UEFA's names, logos, brands, music, medals and trophies. Any use of the aforementioned rights requires the prior written approval of UEFA and must comply with any conditions imposed by UEFA.
- 31.02 All rights to the fixture list, as well as any data and statistics in relation to the matches in the competition, are the sole and exclusive property of UEFA.

XIX Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)

ANNEX II: Respect: Fair Play Assessment

Introduction

1. The fair play assessment forms part of the respect campaign. Conduct according to the spirit of fair play is essential for the successful promotion and development of and involvement in sport. The objective of activities in favour of fair play is to foster a sporting spirit, as well as the sporting behaviour of players, team officials and spectators, thereby increasing the enjoyment of all those involved in the game.

UEFA fair play rankings

In its efforts to promote fair play, UEFA establishes association fair play rankings for each season, based on all matches played in all UEFA competitions (national representative and club teams) between 1 May and 30 April. In establishing these rankings, only those associations whose teams have played at least the required number of matches (i.e. total number of matches assessed divided by the number of associations) are taken into account. For this purpose, fair play conduct is assessed by the appointed UEFA match delegate.

Criteria for an additional place in the UEFA Cup

3. In reward for the fair play example they set, a maximum of three associations which attain an average of 8.0 points or more in the rankings each receive one additional place in the next season's UEFA Cup. If some associations are equal on points in the rankings, lots will be drawn by the UEFA administration to define the associations that receive an additional place. These additional places are reserved for the winners of the respective domestic top-division fair play competitions, provided that this national assessment is based at least on the following criteria: red and yellow cards, positive play, respect for the opponents as well as for the referee, and the behaviour of the team officials and of the crowd. If the winner of the domestic top-division fair play competition in question has already qualified for a UEFA club competition, the UEFA Cup fair play place goes to the next-ranked team in the domestic top-division fair play rankings which has not already qualified for a UEFA competition.

Methods of assessment

- 4. After the match, the match delegate is expected to complete a fair play assessment form in consultation with the referee and, where applicable, the referee observer. The referee confirms that fair play aspects have been duly discussed by signing the fair play assessment form.
- The assessment form identifies six criteria (items) for the evaluation of the fair play performance of the teams. Assessment should be based on positive rather than negative aspects. As a general rule, maximum assessment marks should not be awarded unless the respective teams have displayed positive attitudes.

The individual items on the assessment form

6. Red and yellow cards

Deduction from a maximum of 10 points:

yellow card 1 pointred card 3 points

If a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence which would normally be punishable with a yellow card, but who must be sent off for this second offence (combined yellow and red card), only the red card counts, i.e. total of 3 points to be deducted.

If, however, a player who has been cautioned with a yellow card commits another offence for which the punishment is dismissal, a total of 4 points (1+3) must be deducted.

Red and yellow cards is the only item which may take a negative value.

7. Positive play

- maximum 10 points
- minimum 1 point

The aim of this item is to reward positive play which is attractive for the spectators. In assessing positive play, the following aspects should be taken into consideration:

Positive aspects:

- attacking rather then defensive tactics
- acceleration of the game
- efforts to gain time, e.g. bringing the ball quickly back into play, even when in a winning position
- continued pursuit of goals, even if the desired result (e.g. qualification or an away draw) has already been achieved

Negative aspects:

- deceleration of the game
- time-wasting
- tactics based on foul play
- play-acting, etc.

In general terms, positive play correlates with the number of goal-scoring chances created and the number of goals scored.

8. Respect for the opponents

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the Laws of the Game, the competition regulations, opponents, etc. They are also expected to ensure that fellow team members and everyone else involved in the team abide by the spirit of fair play as well.

In assessing the players' behaviour vis-à-vis the opposition, double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards, as well as offences overlooked by the referee.

Assessment should be based on positive attitudes (e.g. helping an injured opponent) rather than infringements. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures towards opponents, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

9. Respect for the referees

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Players are expected to respect the referees (including assistant referees and fourth officials) as people, as well as for the decisions they take. Double counting against the item 'red and yellow cards' should be avoided. However, the UEFA match delegate may take into account the seriousness of the offences punished by cards.

A positive attitude towards the referees should be rewarded by high marks, including the acceptance of doubtful decisions without protest. Normal behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures with respect to the referee team, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

10. Behaviour of the team officials

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

Team officials, including coaches, are expected to make every effort to develop the sporting, technical, tactical and moral level of their team through all permitted means. They are also expected to instruct their players to behave in a manner which is in accordance with the fair play principles.

Positive and negative aspects of the behaviour of team officials should be assessed; e.g. whether they calm or provoke angry players or fans, how they accept the referee's decisions, etc. Cooperation with the media should also be considered as a factor in the assessment. Blameless behaviour, but without any particularly positive attitude or gestures, should be assessed with a mark of 4 rather than 5.

11. Behaviour of the crowd

- maximum 5 points
- minimum 1 point

The crowd is considered to be a natural component of a football game. The support of the fans may contribute to the success of their team. The crowd is not expected to watch the game in silence. Encouragement of teams by shouting, singing, etc. may have a positive influence on the atmosphere, in accordance with the spirit of fair play.

The spectators are, however, expected to respect the opposing team and the referee. They should appreciate the performance of the opposition, even if they emerge as the winners. They must in no way intimidate or frighten the opposing team, the referee or opposing supporters.

A maximum number of points (5) should not be awarded unless all these requirements are satisfied, especially with respect to the creation of a positive atmosphere.

This item is applicable only if a substantial number of fans of the team concerned are present. If the number of fans is negligible, 'N/A' (not applicable) should be recorded under this entry.

Overall assessment

- 12. The overall assessment of a team is obtained by adding up the points given for the individual items, dividing this total by the maximum number of points and multiplying the result by 10.
- 13. The maximum number of points per game generally equals 40. If, however, a given team is being supported by a negligible amount of fans, and the item "Behaviour of the crowd" is not being assessed as a result ('N/A' see paragraph 10 above), the maximum number of points obtainable will be 35.

Example:

The various items for team 1 are assessed as 8+7+3+4+5+4, giving a total of 31. The general assessment will therefore be:

$$(31/40) \times 10 = 7.75$$

If team 2 had only a small number of fans, and the assessment for the other items was 7+8+2+5+2, with 24 as the total, the general assessment would be:

$$(24/35) \times 10 = 6.857$$

The general assessment should be calculated to three decimal points and not rounded up.

14. In addition to this assessment, the UEFA match delegate should also give brief written comments on the fair play performance of the teams, to explain the positive and negative aspects which formed the basis for his assessment. This written explanation may also include outstanding individual gestures of fair play by players, officials, referees or any other persons.
