UEFA and European Newspaper Publishers' Association UEFA EURO 2008™ agreement

ENPA and UEFA agree on media accreditation terms and conditions

UEFA and the European Newspaper Publishers' Association (ENPA) today announced their common understanding on the terms and conditions that will govern press coverage of the UEFA EURO 2008™ final tournament, which takes place in Austria and Switzerland from 7 to 29 June. The agreement was announced at a meeting between the UEFA President, Michel Platini, and ENPA President, Valdo Lehari Jr., at UEFA headquarters in Nyon, Switzerland.

ENPA and UEFA have been in discussion since last year over the accreditation terms and conditions for the media at UEFA EURO 2008™. They can now be found at www.euro2008.com and give media more freedom to publish digital photos than originally proposed. ENPA and UEFA agreed to continue discussions on the terms and conditions for future tournaments and for other events. There will be no restrictions in reporting from non-match venues, such as training grounds or camps.

UEFA President, Michel Platini, said of the outcome after the discussions:

"We have had an excellent cooperation with ENPA over the course of these negotiations, and I am pleased to say that the outcome means that football fans can now expect an even higher level of media coverage of the forthcoming UEFA EURO 2008™, which promises to be an excellent final tournament of top class football."

ENPA President, Valdo Lehari Jr., said after the meeting:

"The outcome of the negotiations is very reasonable from the European newspapers' point of view. The terms are a compromise on the expectations of newspapers, which have a very important role in reporting and commenting on this newsworthy tournament."
