

Amendments to the Regulations of the UEFA European Football Championship 2002/2004

Please note that the existing Regulations are only valid in conjunction with the amended paragraphs illustrated below.

New or amended wording is depicted in underlined bold text

Knock-out system

- 6.10 For matches played under the knock-out system, if the two teams involved in a tie score the same number of goals over the two legs, the team which scores more away goals qualifies for the next stage. If this procedure does not produce a result, i.e. if the two teams score the same number of goals at home and away, extra time of a maximum of two periods of 15 minutes is played at the end of the second leg. If one of the teams scores more goals than the other during the first 15-minute period of extra time, that team shall be declared the winners. If the two teams are still equal after the first period of extra time, a second 15-minute period shall be played. If one of the teams scores more goals than the other during the second period of extra time, that team shall be declared the winners. If the two teams are still equal after the second period of extra time, the winners shall be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 14). The away goal rule does not apply for extra time.

Extra Time

- 6.21 If, at the end of normal playing time, the final, a semi-final or a quarter-final match stands as a draw, extra time of a maximum of two periods of 15 minutes shall be played. If one of the teams scores more goals than the other during the first 15-minute period of extra time, that team shall be declared the winners. If the two teams are still equal after the first period of extra time, a second 15-minute period shall be played. If one of the teams scores more than the other during the second period of extra time, that team shall be declared the winners. If the two teams are still equal after the second period of extra time, the winners shall be determined by kicks from the penalty mark (Article 14).

Match Arrangements

- 11.01 j) The official delegation for the final tournament will consist of 30 persons (22 players and 8 officials).
- 11.01 k) If space so permits, up to five additional technical seats are allowed for association's staff providing technical support to the team during the match (kit manager, assistant physiotherapist, etc.). Such seats shall be outside the technical area and positioned at least five metres behind the benches but with access to the dressing rooms. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.

Colours

- 16.02 The home team should always wear the official home colours announced to the UEFA Administration on the entry form, unless the associations concerned agree otherwise in due time, in which case the details should be submitted to the UEFA Administration in writing. If the referee decides on the spot that the colour of the two teams could lead to confusion, for practical reasons the home team must wear other colours. If such a situation of a potential confusion of team colours arises for a final, both teams must wear different colours. If the associations are unable to agree on the colours worn by their teams, the UEFA Administration will decide, in consultation with the referee.

Other kit items (excluding playing attire)

- 16.07 Sponsor advertising and manufacturer identification may not appear on any equipment (bags, drink containers, etc.) used in the stadium for any matches in the final tournament, including any interviews and press conferences during the time at the venue.*
