Provisional Admission

<sup>4</sup> Details concerning the admission procedure shall be laid down in the 'Regulations governing the Implementation of the Statutes.'

Admission Procedure

Rights of Member Associations

Article 7

Rights

Member Associations shall have the following rights:

- a) to take part in and exercise their voting rights at the Congress;
- b) to draw up proposals for the agenda of the Congress;
- c) to propose candidates for the election of the President of UEFA, the members of the UEFA Executive Committee and the European members of the FIFA Executive Committee;
- d) to propose candidates for the election of the Chairmen and members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice and of the Committees;
- e) to take part in UEFA competitions with their representative teams and to enter their clubs for these competitions;
- f) to exercise all other rights granted to them by these Statutes and regulations and decisions made under them.

Obligations of Member Associations

Article 7<sup>bis</sup>

Fair Play,
Statutes,
Laws of the Game

- a) to observe the principles of loyalty, integrity and sportsmanship in accordance with the principles of fair play;
- b) to comply with these Statutes and regulations and decisions made under them;
- c) to respect the Laws of the Game as decided by the International Football Association Board (IFAB).

Member Associations shall include these obligations in their statutes, as well as a provision that leagues, clubs, players and officials shall observe these obligations.

Free Elections

<sup>2</sup> Member Associations must provide for the free election of their executive body. This obligation shall be included in their statutes. Where there is no such provision or where the Executive Committee considers an executive body of a Member Association not to have been established by free elections, the Executive Committee shall have the power to refuse to recognise an executive body, including an executive body set up on an interim basis.

Leagues,
Combinations

<sup>3</sup> Leagues or any other groups of clubs at Member Association level shall only be permitted with the Association's express consent and shall be subordinate to it. The Association's statutes shall define the powers apportioned to any such group, as well as its rights and obligations. The statutes and regulations of any such group shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

Club
Licensing
System

<sup>4</sup> Member Associations shall apply a club licensing system according to the minimum requirements set by UEFA from time to time. Member Associations shall include such an obligation and define the licensing bodies in their statutes.

Integrity
of the Competitions

<sup>5</sup> Member Associations shall ensure that neither a natural nor a legal person (including holding companies and subsidiaries)

exercises control or influence over more than one of their clubs whenever the integrity of any match or competition organised at Member Association level could be jeopardized. Member Associations shall include such an obligation in their statutes and lay down the necessary implementing provisions.

<sup>6</sup> Member Associations shall communicate to UEFA any amendment of their statutes translated, if necessary, into an official language of UEFA.

Communication of Statutory Amendments

Withdrawal and Termination of Membership, Exclusion, Dissolution of a Member Association

Article 8

<sup>1</sup> A Member Association may withdraw its membership at the end of UEFA's financial year, provided that it has given a minimum of six months' written notice to the Administration sent by registered letter.

Withdrawal

<sup>2</sup> If a Member Association is dissolved, its membership of UEFA shall terminate at the same time.

Dissolution

<sup>3</sup> A Member Association may be excluded from UEFA if it has:

Exclusion

- a) failed to settle its financial obligations towards UEFA;
- b) seriously breached these Statutes or a regulation or decision made under them;
- c) lost its qualifying status as a representative national football association.

The exclusion of a Member Association shall be decided by Congress. The exclusion must be supported by three-quarters or more of the Congress, and at least half of the total number of Member Associations must be present.

<sup>4</sup> A Member Association shall be obliged to settle all outstanding financial obligations due to UEFA prior to its withdrawal or dissolution and/or the termination of its membership.

Financial Obligations

Suspension

Article 9

<sup>1</sup> If in the opinion of the Executive Committee, a Member Association has repeatedly committed serious breaches of these Statutes or regulations or decisions made under them, the Executive Committee shall be entitled to suspend the membership of the Member Association with immediate effect.

Executive Committee

<sup>1bis</sup> A Member Association may in particular be suspended if state authorities interfere in its affairs in such a significant way that:

Specific Grounds for Suspension

- a) it may no longer be considered as fully responsible for the organisation of football-related matters in its territory;
- b) it is no longer in a position to perform its statutory tasks in an appropriate manner;

- c) the smooth running of a competition organised under its auspices is no longer guaranteed; or
- d) the free election of its executive organ is no longer ensured.

Congress

<sup>2</sup> Any suspension shall be submitted to the next Congress for consideration as to whether or not the Member Association should be excluded, or the suspension lifted or continued. If the Congress does not consider the matter, the suspension shall cease.

IV. HONORARY PRESIDENT AND HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Honorary Membership

Article 10

Honorary
Membership

<sup>1</sup> UEFA may, on the proposal of the Executive Committee, bestow the status of Honorary President or Honorary Membership upon a person for especially meritorious services to European football.

Honorary
Presidents;
Advisory
Capacity

<sup>2</sup> Honorary Presidents may attend the Congress and the meetings of the Executive Committee in an advisory capacity, but shall have no vote.

- j) amendment of the Statutes;
- k) consideration and taking of decisions on proposals;
- l) consideration of membership applications and the exclusion of a Member Association;
- m) decisions on the lifting or continuation of the suspension of a Member Association, Executive Committee member or a member of another body;
- n) consideration of proposals for the dismissal of a member of the Executive Committee or the Organs for the Administration of Justice;
- o) receipt and consideration of the agenda of the FIFA Congress;
- p) receipt and consideration of the minutes of the previous Congress in accordance with Art. 17, para. 2, if necessary;
- q) bestowal of honorary membership.

<sup>3</sup> Notice of an Ordinary Congress shall be given in writing at least three months in advance. The official invitation to attend the Congress shall be sent out at least four weeks before the Congress is due to take place, together with the agenda, which shall be drawn up by the Executive Committee.

Time Limit,
Agenda,
Notice

Extraordinary Congress: Powers, Notice, Agenda

Article 14

<sup>1</sup> An Extraordinary Congress may be convened by the Executive Committee, or at the written request of one fifth or more of the Member Associations, stating the items to be placed on the agenda.

Convocation

<sup>2</sup> If convened by one fifth of the Member Associations, an Extraordinary Congress shall be held within three months of the date of the written request. Notice of the Extraordinary Congress shall be sent out at least two months before it is due to take place.

Time Limit

Agenda           <sup>3</sup> The agenda, which shall be drawn up by the Executive Committee, shall be sent out together with the notice of the Extraordinary Congress. Items may also be placed on the agenda by the Executive Committee which fall within the power of an Ordinary Congress.

Proposals of Member Associations

Article 15

Deadline       A Member Association wishing to include a proposal on the agenda for an Ordinary Congress must submit it in writing to the Administration at least two months before the Congress is due to take place. The proposal must be clearly formulated, together with brief reasons for the proposal.

Chairman of Congress, Acting Chairman, Casting Vote

Article 16

Chairman of Congress       <sup>1</sup> The President or, in his absence, the first Vice-President shall be Chairman of Congress. If the first Vice-President is not present either, the longest-serving Vice-President shall chair the Congress. If no Vice-President is present, Congress shall elect a member of the Executive Committee as Chairman of Congress.

Casting Vote           <sup>2</sup> In the event of a tie in any vote, the Chairman of Congress shall have a casting vote. In elections, Art. 19 shall apply.

Minutes

Article 17

Minutes           <sup>1</sup> Minutes of all business at Congress shall be taken.

Approval       <sup>2</sup> The delegates elected to verify the minutes shall do so in order that minutes may be sent out to the Member Associations within 90 days of the Congress. The minutes shall be regarded as approved if, within 30 days of their dispatch, no objections are raised by registered letter to the Administration. In the event that any objections are received, the minutes shall be placed on the agenda of the next Ordinary Congress for consideration.

Voting Rights

Article 18

Voting Rights       <sup>1</sup> Each Member Association shall have one vote which shall be exercised on its behalf by one of its representatives.

Proxy           <sup>2</sup> Votes by proxy shall not be permitted.

Open Voting       <sup>3</sup> Voting shall be open, unless the Congress decides otherwise.

<sup>4</sup> Unless otherwise prescribed in these Statutes, a proposal shall be passed if supported by a simple majority of the valid votes cast. Abstentions shall not be counted. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of Congress shall have a casting vote. A proposal for the dissolution of UEFA shall be passed if supported by four-fifths or more of all Member Associations. A proposal to amend the Statutes shall be passed if supported by two-thirds or more of the Member Associations present at the Congress.

Majorities

<sup>5</sup> Suspended Member Associations and national football associations admitted into membership on a provisional basis shall not have the right to vote.

Suspended & Provisional Members

Elections

Article 19

<sup>1</sup> In respect of elections, a person shall be elected in the first ballot if supported by an absolute majority of the valid votes cast (i. e. half of the votes plus one). If no election is made, there shall be a second ballot, in which the person supported by a simple majority (i. e. most votes) shall be elected. In the event of a tie in the second ballot, there shall be a third ballot, in which the person supported by a simple majority shall be elected. In the event of a tie in the third ballot, election shall be determined by the drawing of lots.

Procedures

<sup>2</sup> Elections shall be by secret ballot. If only one candidate stands for election, the Congress may decide to proceed otherwise.

Secret Ballot

Election of President and Executive Committee

<sup>4</sup> UEFA shall elect two FIFA Vice-Presidents and five members of the FIFA Executive Committee. The UEFA President shall be an ex-officio FIFA Vice-President. The other FIFA Vice-President and one member of the FIFA Executive Committee shall be elected during the calendar year preceding the final round of the UEFA European Football Championship. The other four members of the FIFA Executive Committee shall be elected during the calendar year following the final round of the UEFA European Football Championship.

Election of European members of FIFA Executive Committee

<sup>5</sup> In all other respects, Art. 18 shall apply by analogy.

Other

Coming into Force of Decisions

Article 20

Congress decisions shall be binding on all Member Associations. Unless otherwise stated, a decision shall come into force three months after the end of the Congress. The Congress may decide that a decision shall come into force at an earlier or later date.

Deadline

2. Executive Committee

Composition

Article 21

- Composition      <sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee shall consist of the President and fifteen other members elected by a Congress.
- Eligibility        <sup>2</sup> The Executive Committee shall not include more than one representative of the same Member Association.
- Conditions        <sup>3</sup> Each member of the Executive Committee shall hold an active office within his Member Association. If this condition ceases to apply during his term of office, he shall no longer be eligible for re-election.
- Constitution      <sup>4</sup> The Executive Committee shall elect a first, second, third, fourth and fifth Vice-President, one of whom will chair the Finance Committee. The President shall be entitled to propose candidates.

Term of Office

Article 22

- Term, Re-election      <sup>1</sup> The term of office of the President and members of the Executive Committee elected by a Congress shall be four years. Eight members, or seven members and the President, shall be elected every two years. All members shall be eligible for re-election.
- Age Limit            <sup>2</sup> A person aged 70 or more shall not be eligible for election or re-election.
- Vacancies            <sup>3</sup> If a vacancy occurs, the next Ordinary Congress shall elect a replacement for the remaining term of office. If the vacancy occurs in the final year of a term of office, no replacement shall be elected.

Powers of the Executive Committee

Article 23

- Jurisdiction        <sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee shall have the power to make decisions on all matters which do not fall within the legal or statutory jurisdiction of the Congress or another Organ.
- Management        <sup>2</sup> The Executive Committee shall manage UEFA, except to the extent that it has delegated such management, or unless such management has been delegated by the Statutes to the President or the Administration.

Duties of the Executive Committee

Article 24

- Un-transferable Duties      <sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee shall have the following untransferable and irrevocable duties:

- a) overall control of UEFA and the issue of necessary instructions;
- b) definition of the organisational structure;
- c) form and supervision of the book-keeping;
- d) election of two internal auditors and the issue of their terms of reference;
- e) appointment of the General Secretary and Deputy General Secretary upon proposal of the President;
- f) dismissal of the General Secretary and Deputy General Secretary upon proposal of the President or by a decision supported by two-thirds or more of all members of the Executive Committee;
- g) overall supervision of the Administration, including the General Secretary and Deputy General Secretary, especially in terms of observance of laws, the Statutes, regulations and orders;
- h) approval of the annual business plan of the Administration;
- i) compilation of a written report for presentation to the Ordinary Congress;
- j) examination of the Administration's report to the Ordinary Congress.

<sup>2</sup> The Executive Committee may delegate the preparation and implementation of its decisions or the supervision of business to one or more of its members.

Delegation of Management

Article 25

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with a set of organisational regulations issued by it, the Executive Committee shall be authorised to delegate management, either fully or partly, to the President, to one or more of its members and/or to the Administration.

Delegation of Management

<sup>2</sup> This set of organisational regulations shall govern the management, define the necessary posts, outline the corresponding duties and govern reporting.

Organisational Regulations

Frequency of Meetings and Quorum

Article 26

<sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee shall as a general rule meet once every two months. It shall be convened by the President. At the request of at least four voting members, the President shall convene a meeting of the Executive Committee within two weeks of such a request being made. The President may invite third parties to attend meetings of the Executive Committee in an advisory capacity.

Meetings

<sup>2</sup> The Executive Committee shall have a quorum of half plus one of its voting members, including the President or, in his absence, a Vice-President.

Quorum

- Exclusion from Meetings      <sup>3</sup> A member of the Executive Committee or the President shall not take part in the deliberation of any matter or point of issue involving the Member Association and/or a club affiliated to the Member Association with which he is associated, or in any case in which a conflict of interest exists.
- Coming into Force      <sup>4</sup> Decisions of the Executive Committee shall come into immediate force, unless the Executive Committee decides otherwise.

Voting and Election Procedures, Minutes

Article 27

- Majorities      <sup>1</sup> Unless decided otherwise, and subject to para. 2 below, a decision shall be made in elections and votes if supported by more than half of the votes cast by the voting members present. In the event of a tie in votes, the President shall have the casting vote. Votes shall be open and elections shall be secret, unless the Executive Committee decides otherwise. In the event of a tie in an election, a person shall be elected by the drawing of lots.
- Voting Rights      <sup>2</sup> Only members elected by a Congress shall be eligible to vote.
- Minutes      <sup>3</sup> Minutes of all business conducted at a meeting shall be taken. The minutes shall be sent to all members of the Executive Committee before the next meeting.

Suspension of Members of the Executive Committee and Other Organs, as well as Removal of Members of Other Committees

Article 28

- Dereliction of Duty, Improper Conduct      <sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee may suspend a member of the Executive Committee or a member of another Organ (see Art. 11) until the next Ordinary Congress where it considers that person to have committed a gross dereliction of duty or an act of improper conduct.
- Approval      <sup>2</sup> Art. 9, para. 2 shall apply accordingly.
- Removal from Office      <sup>3</sup> The Executive Committee may remove from office a member of a Committee and appoint a replacement for the remaining period of the term of office where it considers that person to have committed a gross dereliction of duty or an act of improper conduct.
- Procedures      <sup>4</sup> Such decisions shall be made if supported by three-quarters or more of all voting members of the Executive Committee. A member of the Executive Committee affected by the decision shall not be entitled to take part in the deliberations or vote.

3. President

Powers and Duties of the President

Article 29

<sup>1</sup> The President shall represent UEFA.

Representation

Chairman

<sup>3</sup> In the event of a tie in any vote, the President shall have the casting vote.

Casting Vote

<sup>4</sup> The President is furthermore responsible for:

Further Powers and Duties

- a) relations between UEFA and FIFA;
- b) relations between UEFA and other confederations;
- c) relations between UEFA and its Member Associations;
- d) relations between UEFA and political bodies and international organisations;
- e) implementing the decisions of the Congress and the Executive Committee through the Administration;
- f) supervising the work of the Administration.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the President shall consult with the Executive Committee.

<sup>5</sup> In the absence of the President, the highest-ranked available Vice-President shall assume his powers and duties.

Absence of President

Administration – Duties of the General Secretary

Article 30

<sup>1</sup> The General Secretary shall be responsible for the organisation, management and direction of the Administration.

Management of the Administration

<sup>2</sup> The following duties in particular shall be delegated to the General Secretary:

- a) representation of UEFA, as delegated by the UEFA President;
- b) appointment and dismissal of Directors, after consultation with the President;
- c) appointment and dismissal of staff of the Administration;
- d) submission of an annual business plan;
- e) compilation of a written report for presentation to the Ordinary Congress;
- f) drawing up of an estimate for income and expenditure;
- g) initiation of expenditure within the framework of the budget.

Further Duties

<sup>3</sup> Further duties of the Administration shall be defined by the Executive Committee in detail in a set of regulations.

Delegation

<sup>4</sup> The General Secretary may delegate his duties to the Deputy General Secretary and/or to the Directors. Such duties shall be defined in regulations to be approved by the Executive Committee.

Appointment, Employment, Meetings

Article 31

Appointment,
Employment

<sup>1</sup> The Executive Committee shall appoint the General Secretary and the Deputy General Secretary, who shall be employed by UEFA.

Attendance of
Meetings

<sup>2</sup> The General Secretary and the Deputy General Secretary shall attend meetings of Congress, conferences, the Executive Committee and its panels, as well as of Committees, and take an advisory part in the deliberations. The General Secretary may be represented by the Deputy General Secretary.

4. Administration of Justice

Organs for the Administration of Justice

Article 32

Organs for the Administration of Justice

<sup>1</sup> UEFA's Organs for the Administration of Justice are:

- a) the Control and Disciplinary Body;
- b) the Appeals Body;
- c) the Disciplinary Inspector.

Members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice may not belong to the Executive Committee or to any other Committee of UEFA.

Election,
Term of Office

<sup>2</sup> The Chairmen and members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice shall be elected by the Executive Committee (from candidates proposed by the Member Associations) for a term of four years.

Jurisdiction

XII. RECOGNITION OF THE UEFA STATUTES, DISPUTES

1. Recognition of the UEFA Statutes

Recognition of the UEFA Statutes

Article 59

<sup>1</sup> Each Member Association shall include in its statutes a provision whereby it, its leagues, clubs, players and officials agree to respect at all times the Statutes, regulations and decisions of UEFA, and to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne (Switzerland), as provided in the present Statutes.

Associations'
Statutes

<sup>2</sup> Each Member Association shall ensure that its leagues, clubs, players and officials acknowledge and accept these obligations.

Associations'
Obligation

<sup>3</sup> Each participant in a UEFA competition shall, when registering its entry, confirm to UEFA in writing that it, its players and officials have acknowledged and accepted these obligations.

Participation
in a UEFA
Competition

2. Disputes of National Dimension

Obligation to Refer Disputes to Court of Arbitration

Article 60

Obligation to Refer Disputes to Court of Arbitration

Associations shall include in their statutes a provision under which disputes of national dimension arising from or related to the application of their statutes or regulations shall, subject to their national legislation, be referred in the last instance to an independent and impartial court of arbitration, to the exclusion of any ordinary court.

3. Disputes of European Dimension

CAS as Ordinary Court of Arbitration

Article 61

Jurisdiction

<sup>1</sup> The CAS shall have exclusive jurisdiction, to the exclusion of any ordinary court or any other court of arbitration, to deal with the following disputes in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration:

- a) disputes between UEFA and associations, leagues, clubs, players or officials;
- b) disputes of European dimension between associations, leagues, clubs, players or officials.

Conditions of Intervention

<sup>2</sup> The CAS shall only intervene in its capacity as an ordinary court of arbitration if the dispute does not fall within the competence of a UEFA organ.

CAS as Appeals Arbitration Body

Article 62

Jurisdiction

<sup>1</sup> Any decision taken by a UEFA organ may be disputed exclusively before the CAS in its capacity as an appeals arbitration body, to the exclusion of any ordinary court or any other court of arbitration.

Right to Appeal

<sup>2</sup> Only parties directly affected by a decision may appeal to the CAS. However, where doping-related decisions are concerned, the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) may appeal to the CAS.

Time Limit for Appeal

<sup>3</sup> The time limit for appeal to the CAS shall be ten days from the receipt of the decision in question.

Internal Procedures

<sup>4</sup> An appeal before the CAS may only be brought after UEFA's internal procedures and remedies have been exhausted.

Suspensory Effect

<sup>5</sup> An appeal shall not have any suspensory effect as a stay of execution of a disciplinary sanction, subject to the power of the CAS to order that any disciplinary sanction be stayed pending the arbitration.

<sup>6</sup> The CAS shall not take into account facts or evidence which the appellant could have submitted to an internal UEFA body by acting with the diligence required under the circumstances, but failed or chose not to do so.

Scope of Review

Common Provisions

Article 63

<sup>1</sup> The CAS is not competent to deal with:

Excluded Jurisdiction

- a) matters related to the application of a purely sporting rule, such as the Laws of the Game or the technical modalities of a competition;
- b) decisions through which a natural person is suspended for a period of up to two matches or up to one month;
- c) awards issued by an independent and impartial court of arbitration in a dispute of national dimension arising from the application of the statutes or regulations of an association.

<sup>2</sup> Only arbitrators who have their domicile in Europe shall be competent to deal with disputes submitted to the CAS according to the present Statutes.

European Members

<sup>3</sup> Moreover, proceedings before the CAS shall take place in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration of the CAS.

Procedure

XIII. CONCLUDING PROVISIONS

Governing Law and Legal Forum

Article 64

<sup>1</sup> These Statutes shall be governed in all respects by Swiss law.

Swiss Law

<sup>2</sup> The legal forum shall be the headquarters of UEFA. Lausanne (Switzerland) shall be the legal forum for all cases which, in accordance with these Statutes, come under the jurisdiction of CAS.

Legal Forum

Matters not Covered in the Statutes

Article 65

The Executive Committee shall have the power to decide on all matters not covered in these Statutes, such decisions to be made in accordance with relevant FIFA regulations. If no such regulations exist, the Executive Committee shall decide according to right and justice.

Executive Committee

Dissolution of UEFA

Article 66

4/5 Majority

Assets

<sup>2</sup> A four-fifths majority of all Member Associations shall be required for any decision as to the distribution of the assets of UEFA on dissolution. Without a decision as to such distribution, any resolution to dissolve UEFA shall have no effect.

Division of Assets

<sup>3</sup> The assets of UEFA shall not under any circumstances be divided among the members and any resolution to this effect shall have no effect.

Equal Status of Men and Women

Article 67

Equal Status

In these Statutes, the use of the masculine form shall be interpreted also to refer to the feminine.

Authoritative Version

Article 68

Authoritative
Version

In the event of any discrepancy in interpretation between the official languages of UEFA in the wording of these Statutes, the English version shall be authoritative.

Exceptional Provisions

Article 69

Exceptional
Provisions

<sup>2</sup> The age limit set out in Art. 22, para. 2, and Art. 36, para. 2, of these Statutes does not apply to the President of UEFA, the 13 members of the Executive Committee and the Committee members in office on 11 October 2001.

<sup>3</sup> The term of office of the President and the members of the Executive Committee in office on 21 April 2005 shall be extended until 2007 and 2009 respectively.

<sup>4</sup> The term of office of the UEFA-elected Vice-Presidents and members of the FIFA Executive Committee in office on 21 April 2005 shall be extended until 2007 and 2009 respectively.

<sup>5</sup> By exception to Art. 21, para. 1, and until the 2009 UEFA Congress, the Executive Committee shall consist of the President and 13 members elected by a Congress.

<sup>6</sup> By exception to Art. 19, para. 3, and Art. 22, para. 1, the 2009 UEFA Congress shall elect nine members of the Executive Committee, eight of whom shall have a four-year term and one of whom shall have a two-year term of office.

<sup>7</sup> The members of the Executive Committee appointed by the Executive Committee on 9 February 2007 shall remain in office beyond 1 June 2007 in accordance with the UEFA Statutes in force at the time of their appointment.

XIV. COMING INTO FORCE OF THE STATUTES

Coming into Force

Article 70

These Statutes were originally adopted at the UEFA Congress on 24 September 1997 in Helsinki and came into force on 24 December 1997. They were subsequently amended by the UEFA Congress on 30 June and 1 July 2000 in Luxembourg, on 11 October 2001 in Prague, on 25 April 2002 in Stockholm, on 27 March 2003 in Rome, on 22/23 April 2004 in Limassol, on 21 April 2005 in Tallinn, on 23 March 2006 in Budapest, on 25/26 January 2007 in Düsseldorf and on 28 May 2007 in Zurich. The current version of these Statutes comes into force on 1 June 2007.

RULES OF PROCEDURE OF THE UEFA CONGRESS

Chairman of the Congress

Article 1

<sup>1</sup> The President or, in his absence, the first Vice-President shall chair the Congress. If the first Vice-President is not present either, the longest-serving Vice-President shall chair the Congress. If no Vice-President is present, the Congress shall elect a member of the Executive Committee as Chairman.

<sup>2</sup> The Chairman shall ensure that the rules of procedure are observed. He shall open, conduct and close the Congress. He shall give speakers permission to take the floor.

<sup>3</sup> The Chairman shall keep order at the Congress. He may take the following measures against Congress participants who disrupt the proceedings:

- a) call to order;
- b) reprimand;
- c) exclusion from the Congress.

Congress Bureau

Article 2

The tellers, together with the General Secretary and the Deputy General Secretary, shall form the Congress Bureau.

Agenda

Article 3

<sup>1</sup> The agenda shall be approved at the start of the Congress.

<sup>2</sup> The agenda may be amended at any time if supported by two-thirds or more of the Member Associations present.

<sup>3</sup> The Congress may not consider a proposal to amend the Statutes unless it is included as an item of business on the agenda sent out with the notice of Congress.

Discussion

Article 4

<sup>1</sup> Each agenda item shall be introduced with a brief report:

- a) by the Chairman or a member of the Executive Committee;
- b) by a representative designated for that purpose by a Committee;
- c) by the Member Association which had the item in question placed on the agenda.

<sup>2</sup> The item shall then be opened to the floor for general discussion.

Permission to Take the Floor

Article 5

<sup>1</sup> Delegates shall be given permission to take the floor in the order that requests have been made to do so. A speaker may not take the floor unless and until he has been given permission to do so. A speaker shall speak from the place designated for that purpose.

<sup>2</sup> A speaker may only be given the floor for a second time on the same matter when all other Congress participants who have requested to take the floor have had a chance to speak on the matter in question.

<sup>3</sup> The Chairman may set a time limit for speakers.

Motion on a Point of Order

Article 6

<sup>1</sup> A motion on a point of order shall be dealt with forthwith. Any other discussion shall be immediately suspended.

<sup>2</sup> If a motion on a point of order is adopted, only Congress participants who requested to do so before the vote shall be given the floor.

<sup>3</sup> The Chairman shall decide when to close the discussion unless more than half of the Member Associations present and voting decide on a vote to do otherwise.

Motions, Motions to Amend an Agenda Item and Motions to Delete an Agenda Item

Article 7

All motions, motions to amend, and motions to delete an agenda item shall be made in writing.

Votes

Article 8

<sup>1</sup> Voting shall be open, unless the Congress decides otherwise.

<sup>3</sup> A vote may be taken by roll call, if 10 or more Member Associations present and eligible to vote so request.

<sup>5</sup> Before each vote, the Chairman, or a person designated by him for the purpose, shall read the proposal and explain the voting procedure to the Congress.

<sup>6</sup> Proposals shall normally be voted on in the order in which they are introduced in the discussion.

<sup>7</sup> A proposal to amend a proposed amendment shall be voted on before the proposed amendment. A proposed amendment shall be voted on before the original proposal.

<sup>9</sup> The Chairman shall satisfy himself as to, and announce, the result of the vote.

<sup>10</sup> No one shall be given the floor during a vote or until the result of a vote has been announced.

Elections

Article 9

<sup>1</sup> Elections shall take place by written secret ballot, unless the Congress decides otherwise. The Congress Bureau shall distribute, count and verify the ballot papers.

<sup>3</sup> If more ballot papers are handed in than were distributed, the election shall be null and void and shall be repeated forthwith.

<sup>4</sup> In the first ballot, a person shall be elected if supported by an absolute majority of the valid votes cast (i.e. half of the votes plus one). If no election is made, there shall be a second ballot, in which the person supported by a simple majority (i.e. most votes) shall be elected. In the event of a tie in the second ballot, there shall be a third ballot, in which the person supported by a simple majority shall be elected. In the event of a tie in the third ballot, election shall be determined by the drawing of lots.

<sup>6</sup> Blank or spoiled ballot papers shall be ignored in the counting of votes. If two or more votes for one candidate are on the same ballot paper, neither shall be valid.

<sup>8</sup> The ballot papers cast, counted and verified shall be placed by the Congress Bureau in envelopes prepared for that purpose, which shall be immediately sealed. The UEFA Administration shall keep the sealed envelopes and destroy them 100 days after the close of the Congress.

Interpreters

Article 10

The UEFA Administration shall be responsible for simultaneous translation into the official languages of the Congress. Qualified interpreters shall be used for the purpose.

Minutes

Article 11

The UEFA Administration shall be responsible for taking minutes of the business conducted at the Congress.

Representation

Article 12

<sup>3</sup> Delegates' travel expenses shall be borne by the Member Association concerned. However, their accommodation expenses shall be covered by UEFA.

Coming into Force

Article 13

These Rules of Procedure of the UEFA Congress were adopted by the UEFA Congress on 24 September 1997 in Helsinki and came into force on 24 December 1997. They contain the amendments adopted by the UEFA Congress on 30 June and 1 July 2000 in Luxembourg, on 11 October 2001 in Prague and on 28 May 2007 in Zurich.

Nyon, 28 May 2007

For the UEFA Congress:

The President:
Michel Platini

The Chief Executive a.i.:
Gianni Infantino

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE STATUTES

1. Application for Admission to UEFA

Article 1

A national football association that wishes to become a member of UEFA shall submit a written application to the UEFA Administration, for submission to the UEFA Congress.

Article 2

The UEFA Executive Committee may provisionally admit a national football association into membership. A national football association admitted on a provisional basis shall have the same rights and obligations as a Member Association, subject to Art. 18, para. 5 of the Statutes.

The application for admission must include the following:

- a) the statutes and regulations of the association;
- b) a declaration whereby the association submitting the application undertakes to observe UEFA's Statutes, regulations and decisions at all times;
- c) documents giving information about the internal organisation of the association submitting the application, as well as the competitions staged by the association;
- d) names of the members of all association organs.

Article 3

Provisional admission shall continue until the next UEFA Congress, which shall decide whether to admit or not as a Member Association a national football association that has been admitted provisionally.

2. Elections

Election of the President and Members of the UEFA Executive Committee and European Members of the FIFA Executive Committee

Article 4

<sup>1</sup> Candidates for the position of President of UEFA shall be proposed in writing to the UEFA Administration at least three months before the date set for the opening of the Congress.

<sup>2</sup> Candidates for positions on the FIFA Executive Committee and the UEFA Executive Committee shall be proposed in writing to the UEFA Administration at least two months before the date set for the opening of the UEFA Congress.

<sup>3</sup> If the President or a member of the Executive Committee does not offer himself for re-election, that person and his Member Association shall inform the UEFA Administration in writing at least four months in advance of the next Congress. The UEFA Administration shall immediately inform the other Member Associations.

Election of European Vice-Presidents and Members of the FIFA Executive Committee

Article 5

If a Vice-President or a person elected to the FIFA Executive Committee vacates the position during his term of office, the UEFA Executive Committee shall elect a replacement for the remaining period until the next UEFA Congress. Any such replacement may not take over the office of Vice-President of FIFA.

Election of the Chairmen and Members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice, as well as the Chairmen and Members of Committees

Article 6

The Member Associations shall submit proposals in writing to the UEFA Administration for the election of the Chairmen and members of the Organs for the Administration of Justice and Committees. The UEFA Administration shall set an appropriate deadline for the submission of proposals.
