UEFA Executive Committee agenda for Turkey meeting

UEFA President Michel Platini to chair two-day meeting in Istanbul on 26/27 September

The next meeting of the UEFA Executive Committee, under the chairmanship of UEFA President Michel Platini, will take place in Istanbul, Turkey, on Wednesday 26 and Thursday 27 September 2007.

The meeting is scheduled to take place in the Ciragan Palace Kempinski on Wednesday afternoon from 14:00 to 18:00 local time, and Thursday morning from 09:00 to 12:00. It will be followed by a press conference at 12:15 in the Mabeyn room at the hotel.

The main items on the agenda include:

- Designation of the host associations for the UEFA Congresses in 2009 and 2010
- Decision on UEFA EURO 2008™ Official Charity Partner
- Report on the club licensing system after four years of implementation

Media wishing to attend the press conference on Thursday 27 September at 12:15 with the President of UEFA are kindly requested to send an email to accreditations@uefa.ch with the words "UEFA Exco Turkey" in the subject header, no later than Tuesday 25 September.

We urge media representatives to arrive at the Ciragan Palace Kempinski early enough on Thursday 27 September as the press conference might be brought forward should the meeting end earlier than planned.

The address of the Palace is:

Çiragan Palace Kempinski
Çiragan Caddesi 32
Besiktas
34349 Istanbul
