Match background

A rare UEFA Champions League victory for Rosenborg BK in the fixture between these sides in Norway on 24 October means the pressure is on Valencia CF to win the return match and with both teams' coaches having since left their respective positions, an intriguing dimension has been added to this Group B game. The Spanish side trail second-placed Rosenborg by a point and know a third successive defeat in the competition could seriously hinder their chances of going through.

- It all began so well for Valencia when David Villa's second-half strike earned them a victory away to FC Schalke 04 on Matchday 1. However that was followed by a home defeat against Chelsea FC and then the 2-0 reverse in Trondheim where Yssouf Koné and Vidar Riseth scored in an eight-minute spell shortly after half-time to boost Rosenborg's challenge.

- It was only their second victory in their last 22 UEFA Champions League outings but it could not prevent coach Knut Tørum from losing his job the following day, the price paid for a disappointing domestic campaign. Trond Henriksen will be in charge for this game and also the rest of 2007.

- The same game was also Quique Sánchez Flores' last European fixture in charge at Valencia after he was dismissed following their 3-0 Primera División defeat by Sevilla FC, the Spanish side's next match after the Matchday 3 meeting with Rosenborg.

- It was also Valencia's first match against Norwegian opponents in UEFA competition while Rosenborg have experienced several group stage contests with teams from Spain. Their visits have invariably ended in disappointment, the seven fixtures resulting in five defeats and two draws. Those losses have tended to be fairly convincing as well: three by the margin of 4-1 (against Real Madrid CF twice and RC Deportivo La Coruña).

- The two 4-1 Madrid victories featured contributions by players now currently plying their trade with Valencia. Fernando Morientes scored in the 1997/98 fixture while Iván Helguera played when the sides met in the 2005/06 group stage.

- The two visits to Spain in which Rosenborg managed to avoid defeat both ended 1-1. They came at the home of Athletic Club Bilbao in the 1998/99 UEFA Champions League and at Deportivo Alavés in the 2000/01 UEFA Cup third round.

- Should Rosenborg complete the "double" over the 2000 and 2001 UEFA Champions League runners-up it will be only their second success in 21 games on the road in the competition. They began this campaign with an away fixture and emerged with great credit following a 1-1 draw at Chelsea FC in what proved to be José Mourinho's final game in charge of the London club.
- Miika Koppinen put the visitors ahead before half-time before Andriy Shevchenko snatched an equaliser. Hopes were high that Rosenborg could then build on that result at home to FC Schalke 04 but the German side scored two second-half goals to claim their first points in the campaign.
- The other game in Group B features Schalke at home to Chelsea. The visitors can secure a place in the next stage should they win and Rosenborg do the same at Mestalla.

Match facts

Valencia

- Six Valencia players have appeared in all five UEFA Champions League games so far this season, including qualifying: Raúl Albiol, Carlos Marchena, Emiliano Moretti, Joaquín, Fernando Morientes and David Silva.
- Marchena is within one booking of a suspension having collected yellow cards on Matchdays 1 and 2.
- Valencia returned to winning ways in the Primera División by defeating RCD Mallorca 2-0 away from home on Saturday. Morientes scored Valencia's first on the stroke of half-time, shooting into an empty goal after goalkeeper Germán Lux had failed to deal with a cross, before adding his and the visitors' second on 61 minutes when he converted from Silva's fine pass.
- Albiol was suspended for the game after his red card in Valencia's previous game against Real Madrid CF.
- Marchena and Rubén Baraja were both ruled out of the match with thigh injuries while Santiago Cañizares and David Villa both continue recoveries from hip and ankle problems respectively. Alexis, meanwhile, was carried off with a knee injury after four minutes with Luis Miguel coming on.
- On Monday Alexis was ruled out for four months after test revealed he had sprained the posterior cruciate ligaments in his left knee against Mallorca.
- Óscar Fernández took charge of the team for the last time following Quique Sánchez Flores' dismissal while new coach Ronald Koeman looked on.
- Fernández said: "My team responded extraordinarily well to the challenges this game threw up. I only have words of praise for everyone tonight, especially for their part in the last 25 minutes of the first half when we played with order, concentration and with everyone perfectly placed on the pitch. My first line of defence was Fernando Morientes and my last was Timo Hildebrand."
- The result against Mallorca was Valencia's first win in three games and only their second in seven matches in all competitions.
- It continued a run of Valencia drawing none of their 16 games in all competitions this season. They have won ten and lost six.
- Koeman's first game in charge will be the UEFA Champions League encounter with Rosenborg. The former FC Barcelona defender was unveiled at Mestalla last week and admitted: "We have to win our remaining games in the Champions League to have our destiny in our own hands."

Mestalla Stadium, Valencia

- Having lost at Rosenborg, Valencia travelled to Sevilla FC looking for three Primera División points on 28 October, but instead slipped to another defeat. The home side took the lead in the ninth minute when Albiol failed to deal with Luis Fabiano's cross and Frédéric Kanouté pounced to shoot low past Hildebrand. Christian Poulsen made it 2-0 with 18 minutes left before Daniel Alves and Renato combined for their fellow Brazilian Luis Fabiano to add a third goal in the 85th minute.

- Vicente Rodríguez finally returned to action for Valencia as a substitute having played just one competitive game for the club since last April.

- "We were clearly behind Sevilla, we were the inferior team," said coach Sánchez Flores. "I accept all the responsibility. We have to take a step forward. The most important thing is that the team finds some stability."

- Marchena added: "Nothing worked for us, it was a sad defeat. We lost to a great team. When we lose, the responsibility is on all of us. We have to keep working together because we have important games coming up. Above all we need to be patient."

- The match proved to be Sánchez Flores's last in charge as he was dismissed in the early hours of 29 October following an emergency board meeting. "After analysing the team's situation, which is considered to be irretrievable after defeats in the league and the UEFA Champions League, the board has decided to dismiss Quique Sánchez Flores," said a club statement.

- The former Getafe CF coach, who succeeded Claudio Ranieri in summer 2005, said: "On one hand I feel disappointed but on the other I'm relieved. I want to thank Valencia for giving me the opportunity to coach a top-class team and for giving me enough space to allow me to continue growing as a coach."

- Youth team coach Fernández took over first-team duties for Valencia's home match with Real Madrid CF on 31 October.

- The change of coach failed to galvanise the team, however, as Madrid ran out 5-1 winners at Mestalla, scoring four times in the first 36 minutes. Raúl González opened the scoring in the second minute and Ruud van Nistelrooy added further goals either side of a Sergio Ramos strike on the half-hour. Miguel Ángel Angulo reduced the deficit two minutes before the hour but Robinho made it 5-1 six minutes later and Valencia's misery was complete when Albiol was dismissed in the 84th minute after a foul on Robinho.

- "We allowed them in with a simple [early] goal, the second goal was a mistake by us and in the third we gave away possession with what should have been an easy pass," said Fernández. "It hurts. We have to try and lift the dressing room because we have an important match at the weekend. Today we saw a Madrid team on top of their game and we have to congratulate them."

- "When you concede in the first minute it's always difficult trying to get back into the game," added Juan Mata, who left Madrid for Valencia in the summer. "In the first half they were clearly the superior team while in the second things evened out more. Of course the dressing room is down but we have to turn the page and concentrate on our next game. We have to try to get back to being the team that went on a run of victories a month ago."

- The Madrid loss was Valencia's third in succession in all competitions and fifth in their last six games.

- Valencia subsequently announced that PSV Eindhoven coach Koeman had agreed to replace Sánchez Flores, signing a contract until 2010. "In life you get opportunities, and I grab them, that is how I am," said the former Netherlands international, who started his career as a head coach at BV Vitesse in 2000 prior to spells at AFC Ajax, SL Benfica and PSV. "It's all happened very fast but I had always wanted to come to a big Spanish club," added Koeman on his unveiling.

- "Valencia are a team with good quality players and it's a question of finding the right balance," the Dutchman continued. "They have very demanding supporters and football is for the public to enjoy. I am very excited about coaching Valencia and taking the team where they deserve to be."
- Sporting director Miguel Ángel Ruiz believes the new coach is the man to revive Valencia's fortunes, saying: "Koeman is very excited about the move because he sees coaching in Spain as a challenge. Koeman knows he's coming to an extremely competitive club and we expect the maximum from him. We agreed to sign him because of his style, his working methods, charisma and experience. However, the club has reminded the players it's up to them to pull through. The coach can try working methods but that's no use without the players responding."
- For his part, club captain David Albelda said: "It's time for us to be united and stop worrying about stupid things. There have been tough moments in my career but of those I can remember, the defeat against Madrid is one of my toughest days but we have to get over it. We have to put the anxiety behind us and see things positively, look to find our personality, work hard and get involved and start working as a team because it's more important to win points than to play well."
- Villa continues his recuperation from an injury to his left ankle.
- Marchena and Baraja both have thigh injuries which kept them out of the Madrid game while Cañizares is continuing his recovery from a hip problem.
- Valencia's Mestalla home is one of five stadiums vying to host the 2010 and 2011 UEFA Champions League finals: the Fußball Arena München in Munich, Berlin's Olympiastadion, the Santiago Bernabéu in Madrid and London's Wembley Stadium are the other venues in contention. A final decision is expected to be made by the UEFA Executive Committee at its meeting in Liechtenstein in March.

Rosenborg

- Seven Rosenborg players have appeared in all seven UEFA Champions League games so far this season, including qualifying: Lars Hirschfeld, Vidar Riseth, Mikael Dorsin, Alexander Tettey, Marek Sapara, Yssouf Koné and Steffen Iversen.
- Rosenborg have no players suspended or within a yellow card of a ban.
- Rosenborg rounded off their Tippeligaen campaign with a 2-1 win at Ålesunds FK on Saturday evening to end the Norwegian league season in fifth position. Ålesund took a sixth-minute lead when Miika Koppinen turned a Jeffrey Aubynn cross into his own net but Rosenborg rallied and, after creating several presentable opportunities, drew level in the 34th minute, Koné finding the net after a slick one-two with Tettey. The visitors' task was made easier when Trond Fredriksen was sent off early in the second half and Rosenborg got their winner when Sapara sent a low shot into the net 18 minutes from time.
- "We have worked a lot with our attacking play and I also sensed the players were more up for the battle now," said Rosenborg caretaker coach Trond Henriksen, who has led the side to victory in each of his first two matches in charge. "This win was important in building confidence before the trip to Valencia."
- The victory was Rosenborg's fourth in succession in all competitions yet only their third away from home in the league and their first 2-1 success since the win at Odd Grenland on 18 June. "It felt really good to finally win away from home again," said Henriksen.
- The Rosenborg coach was deprived of Roar Strand due to a leg injury while Riseth (flu), Dorsin (back) and Christer Basma (suspension) were also ruled out. In their absence, Koppinen was recalled to the side for the first time since a 4-1 home win against Odd on 7 October.

- Knut Tørum may have masterminded the 2-0 victory against Valencia, but Rosenborg had a disappointing league season as they surrendered their Norwegian title and the coach officially stepped down the morning after the UEFA Champions League win.
- "I have to thank everyone at the club for a wonderful time," said Tørum. "I will never forget what I went through here, good and bad."
- Assistant Henriksen, a former Rosenborg player and youth coach, has taken over for the rest of the UEFA Champions League group stage. "When Knut Tørum resigned he wanted me to take over," Henriksen said. "Tørum was my best friend at Rosenborg and I listened to his advice."
- Under Henriksen, Rosenborg brushed FC Lyn Oslo aside 3-0 at the Lerkendal Stadium on 28 October. Koné opened the scoring after 26 minutes with a header, Strand doubled the lead nine minutes later before Sapara rounded off the scoring from close range moments before the final whistle.
- Riseth struggled with illness during the game against Lyn, but remained on the field for the full 90 minutes.
- Henriksen, who kept faith with the same lineup that started against Valencia, said: "The most important thing is that we won. My role in this is not very important."
- Bjørn Tore Kvarme is retiring at the end of the season, with Strand expected to follow suit. The latter was named as an honorary member of the club before the game against Lyn.
- They are not the only players headed for the exit door after two of Rosenborg's defensive stalwarts signed for new clubs on the same day. Koppinen chose to rejoin Tromsø IL, the club from which Rosenborg recruited him, while Dorsin signed a deal with Romanian side CFR 1907 Cluj until the summer of 2011. Like Kvarme and Strand, Koppinen and Dorsin will remain at Rosenborg for the rest of the group stage.
- Michael Jamtfall remains ruled out until early 2008 at the very least after sustaining a cruciate ligament injury in his right knee.

Head coach

Valencia CF: Ronald Koeman

Date of birth: 21 March 1963

Nationality: Dutch

Playing career: FC Groningen, AFC Ajax, PSV Eindhoven, FC Barcelona, Feyenoord

Coaching career: Netherlands (assistant coach), FC Barcelona (assistant coach), BV Vitesse, AFC Ajax, SL Benfica, PSV Eindhoven, Valencia CF

Ronald Koeman bounced back quickly from a disappointing end to his reign at AFC Ajax in February 2005, taking up the vacant position at SL Benfica following the departure of legendary Italian Giovanni Trapattoni. He guided the Lisbon club to the last eight of the UEFA Champions League and third place in Portugal before accepting the challenge of following Guus Hiddink at PSV Eindhoven in May 2006. Despite a difficult domestic campaign, Koeman had the last laugh by winning the Eredivisie title on the final day of a thrilling 2006/07 season before leaving to take over at Valencia CF in October 2007.

Ajax's fortunes suffered a steady decline after Koeman got off to a brilliant start at the Amsterdam ArenA, winning a domestic double in 2001/02. Despite regaining the title in 2003/04, Ajax had fallen behind rivals PSV as the Netherlands' top team, and Koeman resigned after UEFA Cup elimination. It was no surprise he found his way to Eindhoven, as Koeman was a member of the PSV side that overcame Benfica in the 1988 European Champion Clubs' Cup final, converting the opening kick in PSV's 6-5 penalty shoot-out victory after 120 goalless minutes.

As well as being an accomplished sweeper, Koeman was a free-kick expert, and it was from a dead-ball that he scored FC Barcelona's winning goal in the 1992 European Cup final. Koeman and brother Erwin started out at their father's old club, FC Groningen, and were later members of the Netherlands side which won the 1988 UEFA European Championship. It was a momentous year, Koeman also winning the European Cup and Dutch double, and paved the way for a move to Barça in 1989 where he would win another four Spanish titles.

Rosenborg BK: Trond Henriksen

Date of birth: 28 April 1964

Nationality: Norwegian

Playing career: Nidelv IL, Rosenborg BK

Coaching career: Rosenborg BK

A Rosenborg BK legend for his decade as a tough-tackling right-back, Trond Henriksen has now risen up the coaching ranks at the club. Trondheim-born Henriksen had won Norway Under-16 caps at local side Nidelv IL and was 18 when signed by Rosenborg in 1983. His no-nonsense style of play earned him the nickname 'Rambo' and the affection of the Rosenborg fans.

Initially working as a postman while playing semi-professionally before turning full-time, Henriksen helped Rosenborg to Tippeligaen titles in 1985, 1988, 1990, 1992 and 1993, completing domestic doubles in the middle three of those seasons. Eventually retiring in 1993 after 193 league appearances and ten goals, he later returned to Rosenborg as youth coach. Henriksen led the junior team to Norwegian Youth Cup success in 2005, then assisted Knut Tørum when the latter took charge of the senior side the following summer with Per-Mathias Høgmo on sick leave.

After securing the title, Tørum and Henriksen were installed permanently but the 2007 campaign was a disappointment and with the championship lost, Tørum left his post. There were still three UEFA Champions League group stage games to play, with Rosenborg usefully placed, and the club continued their long-held policy of appointing from within and turned to Henriksen, handing him a two-year deal. "When Knut Tørum resigned, he wanted me to take over," Henriksen said. "Tørum was my best friend at Rosenborg, and I listened to his advice."

Referee

Name	Nat.	DoB	UCL	UEFA
Alon Yefet	ISR	01.09.1972	1	25

Alon Yefet is proving to be an excellent representative of Israel football at the highest refereeing levels, and has forced his way into the top European rankings thanks to some fine displays. One of the up-and-coming young referees in the UEFA list, Yefet was born on 1 September 1972. He earned his FIFA international badge in 2002, at the tender age of just 29.

By then he already had experience in the UEFA Cup and UEFA Intertoto Cup, as well as the 2001 UEFA European Under-16 Championship in England, where he refereed a quarter-final and semi-final. In 2003 he took charge of two UEFA EURO 2004™ qualifiers and a UEFA Intertoto Cup semi-final.

The next year he was used in the UEFA Cup group stage and last 16, having gone to the UEFA European Under-19 Championship in Switzerland, and refereed a FIFA World Cup game between Andorra and the Netherlands. He officiated at the 2005 UEFA Intertoto Cup final second leg between RC Lens and CFR Cluj. In November that year Yefet was chosen to referee Club Brugge KV's home fixture against SK Rapid Wien, the first time an Israeli had taken charge of a UEFA Champions League group-stage match. He subsequently took charge of two matches at the UEFA European Under-21 Championship in Portugal in May 2006.

UEFA information

FARE Action Week

The eighth annual Football Against Racism in Europe (FARE) network Action Week closes with organisers delighted at the pan-European drive to emphasise the message that racism, intolerance and violence have no place in football. The FARE Action Week is co-ordinated by the FARE network in co-operation with UEFA. Activities have been designed to raise awareness of the issues and underline football's determination to tackle them. Initiatives have been led by – among others – campaigning non-governmental organisations, fan groups, clubs, national associations, ethnic minorities, youth groups and schools.

Every high-profile platform has been used by the football community to highlight the fight against racism. From UEFA Champions League and UEFA EURO 2008™ matches to domestic league games across the continent, the signal to the racists has been clear – get out of our game. UEFA's flagship club competition, the UEFA Champions League, showcased the FARE/UEFA activities on Matchday 3, with all 32 teams displaying their opposition to racism as part of UEFA's contribution to the FARE Action Week.

Europe's leading leagues have also been making a stand against racism. All professional clubs in England and Scotland regularly participate and the German Bundesliga expanded its engagement over two weekends so all sides in the top two divisions had the chance to take part in the anti-racist activity at a home match. The leagues were also active in Austria, the Republic of Ireland, F.Y.R. Macedonia, Portugal, Serbia and Slovenia. For the first time, Israel has joined in the Action Week, together with Greece, Sweden and Switzerland as much-valued newcomers. Anti-racist activities have been organised by fan clubs at league fixtures in Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, France, England, Germany, Greece, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Scotland, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland and Ukraine.

FARE match

UEFA gave further support to the FARE Action Week by staging a match in Nyon, Switzerland, on 29 October. A team composed of UEFA staff members played against footballers from the Organisation Sportive Africa-Suisse at the Colovray Stadium opposite UEFA's headquarters. Before the game, the visitors were shown around UEFA's House of European Football and viewed the many European trophies on display, before emerging as 3-1 winners on the pitch.

"We want to see the 'beautiful game' played without the cancer of racism," says FARE. "Football is the biggest sport in the world and belongs to us all. It should be the right of every person to play, watch and discuss it freely, without fear. Unfortunately, at all levels of the game, from amateur to international, there are incidents of racism. Be it from fans, players, clubs or other football bodies, FARE believes that such behaviour, on and off the field, is unacceptable and unwanted by the majority of fans and players."

Cerebral Palsy finals

The Cerebral Palsy International Sports and Recreation Association (CPISRA) – which received UEFA's annual CHF1m charity cheque in 2007 – has held the draw for the CPISRA Football Seven-a-Side World Championship to be held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in mid-November with 16 teams divided into four groups of four. Founded in 1978, CPISRA is an international governing sports body for athletes with cerebral palsy or traumatic brain injury, stroke and other related conditions. CPISRA has its own version of football, a modified seven-a-side game that has been played by athletes with cerebral palsy for many years.

Key dates

The 2007/08 UEFA Champions League group stage is played over six Matchdays – 18/19 September, 2/3 October, 23/24 October, 6/7 November, 27/28 November and 11/12 December. The first knockout round will follow over two legs on 19/20 February and 4/5 March after the draw in Nyon on 21 December. The draw for the quarter-finals, semi-finals and final will be staged on 14 March. The last eight will be played on 1/2 and 8/9 April before the semi-finals on 22/23 and 29/30 April. The 2008 UEFA Champions League final will be held in Moscow on 21 May, before UEFA EURO 2008™ kicks off in Austria and Switzerland on 7 June.

Competition facts

• UEFA Champions League: Group stage milestones

Holders AC Milan will be keen to avoid becoming the first defending champions to fail to get through a group stage since the UEFA Champions League began. (This record, like the others, includes the seasons between 1999/00 and 2002/03 that featured a second group stage)

In 1992/93, FC Barcelona were the reigning European Champion Clubs' Cup holders and were beaten 4-3 on aggregate in the second round by PFC CSKA Moskva.

S.S. Lazio goalkeeper Marco Ballotta is the oldest player to compete in the UEFA Champions League, taking to the field against Werder Bremen on 24 October 2007 at the age of 43 years and 204 days. The record was previously held by Alessandro Costacurta, the AC Milan defender who played against AEK Athens FC in the 2006/07 season at the age of 40 years and 211 days. Laurent Blanc is the oldest player to score in the competition, aged 36 years and 339 days having found the net for Manchester United FC in their 3-2 defeat of Olympiacos CFP on 23 October 2002.

Celestine Babayaro is the youngest player to have appeared in the UEFA Champions League. He was 16 years and 87 days when he started for RSC Anderlecht against FC Steaua Bucuresti on 23 November 1994. He was then sent off in the 37th minute.

In 2006/07, PFC Levski Sofia joined 1. FC Košice in being the only team to have played in the UEFA Champions League and never picked up a point. The Slovakian side have not returned to the competition since losing all six games in their only campaign to date in 1997/98. Only five other teams have ever gone through a single group stage campaign without picking up a point namely SK Rapid Wien (05/06), RSC Anderlecht (04/05), FC Spartak Moskva and Bayer 04 Leverkusen (02/03, first and second group stage respectively) and Fenerbahçe SK (01/02, first group stage).

Levski also conceded 17 goals in their six outings last term, just two short of the record number let in during a group stage set by Ferencvárosi TC (19) in the 1995/96 campaign.

Before their 3-1 win against Sporting Clube de Portugal on Matchday 6 of the 2006/07 campaign, FC Spartak Moskva went 22 games without a win in the competition, surpassing the unwanted record set by AEK Athens FC on Matchday 3 of the same campaign.

The lowest total for a team qualifying from the group stage is seven points. The first to do it, since three points for a win was introduced in 1995/96, were Legia Warszawa that same season before Bayer 04 Leverkusen managed it in 1999/00 and Liverpool FC in 2001/02. FC Lokomotiv Moskva and eventual finalists Juventus both progressed with seven points in 2002/03, a feat achieved by Rangers FC and Werder Bremen in 2005/06.

• UEFA Champions League: Did you know?

Domestic champions: This season's competition features 13 domestic league winners from last season, but only Group G of the eight groups features four domestic title-holders - namely PSV Eindhoven, FC Internazionale Milano, Fenerbahçe SK and PFC CSKA Moskva. Alongside the 13 champions, there are ten runners-up and six third-placed finishers. The holders AC Milan, Arsenal FC, Valencia CF are the only clubs in the group stage to have finished in fourth place in their domestic league championship.

Consecutive participations: This season, Manchester United FC have extended their consecutive participation in the UEFA Champions League to 12, a record in the competition. PSV Eindhoven, Olympiacos CFP and Real Madrid CF are making their eleventh consecutive appearances, one ahead of Arsenal FC.

Knockout streak: In qualifying for the 2006/07 knockout stage, Real Madrid CF surpassed Manchester United FC's record of nine consecutive seasons (which ended in 2005/06) in advancing past the group stage. Madrid have featured in the knockout phase every time since the 1996/97 campaign. Madrid, have won the competition three times in the last ten years while they advanced as far as the semi-finals twice and the quarter-finals twice. However, in the last three seasons their interest in the competition has ended at the first knockout round.

European return: Of all 32 clubs, S.S. Lazio, Rosenborg BK and VfB Stuttgart did not participate in a UEFA club competition during the 2006/07 season.

Past masters: Six clubs competing in the 2007/08 UEFA Champions League were involved in the competition when it started during the 1992/93 season. Olympique de Marseille were champions, beating AC Milan in the final, while PSV Eindhoven, PFC CSKA Moskva, FC Porto and Rangers FC all participated in the group stage. In addition, VfB Stuttgart, AEK Athens FC and FC Barcelona were knocked out in the two rounds preceding the group stage that marked the competition proper.

Long road for debutants: Six clubs have advanced to the group stage from the European Champion Clubs' Cup second qualifying round including one of this season's two debutants, SK Slavia Praha. They are joined by Rangers, FC Shakhtar Donetsk, FC Steaua Bucuresti, Beşiktaş JK and Rosenborg as clubs who had to play four matches to claim their place in the group stage of the competition. A debutant has not won the competition since Juventus in 1995/96, the Italian side becoming the third club to achieve this following Olympique de Marseille (1992/93, first UEFA Champions League final) and AFC Ajax (1994/95).

Sevilla FC join Slavia in competing in the UEFA Champions League for the first time, although both clubs have previous experience of the European Champion Clubs' Cup.

No qualifiers: Of the 32 clubs involved in the group stage, only AS Roma and FC Schalke 04 have yet to play a qualifying round match in order to reach the UEFA Champions League. Roma are making their fifth appearance in the competition, Schalke their third.

Pedigree: Four of the former winners of the competition since it included a group stage element from the 1992/93 season are not participating in this season's UEFA Champions League, namely AFC Ajax (1994/95), Juventus (1995/96), BV Borussia Dortmund (1996/97) and FC Bayern München (2000/01). Of the last ten winners of the competition, Real Madrid CF (three), Manchester United FC, AC Milan (two), FC Porto, Liverpool FC and FC Barcelona, only FC Bayern München are not involved. Only two winners from the last ten UEFA Cup finals are not involved in this season's UEFA Champions League group stage, namely Parma FC (1998/99) and Feyenoord (2001/02). Liverpool and Porto have won both competitions in the past decade, while the remaining UEFA Cup winners in that time are FC Internazionale Milano, Galatasaray SK, Valencia CF, PFC CSKA Moskva and Sevilla FC (two).

• UEFA Champions League: All-time records

Team facts

Valencia CF

UEFA club competition milestones

• Valencia have a fine tradition in European competition. In 1979/80 they defeated Arsenal FC 5-4 on penalties to win the UEFA Cup Winners' Cup after the teams had played out a goalless draw.

• Valencia's most recent triumph arrived in the UEFA Cup in 2003/04 when a 2-0 win gave them the trophy against Olympique de Marseille in Gothenburg.

UEFA Champions League milestones

• They went close to winning the UEFA Champions League in both of their first two seasons. In 1999/00 and 2000/01 they were beaten in the final by Real Madrid CF and FC Bayern München respectively. Despite losing 3-0 against their Spanish rivals they were only denied by penalty kicks a year later against Bayern after the match in Milan had ended 1-1 after 120 minutes.

UEFA club competition honours

- UEFA Cup Winners' Cup: 1979/80
- UEFA Cup: 2003/04
- UEFA Super Cup: 1980, 2004
- UEFA Intertoto Cup: 1998

Ten-year record

2006/07: UEFA Champions League - quarter-finals

2005/06: UEFA Intertoto Cup - finalists

2004/05: UEFA Cup - Round of 32 (having transferred from the UEFA Champions League group stage)

2003/04: UEFA Cup - winners

2002/03: UEFA Champions League - quarter-finals

2001/02: UEFA Cup - quarter-finals

2000/01: UEFA Champions League - runners-up

1999/00: UEFA Champions League - runners-up

1998/99: UEFA Cup - second round

1997/98: Did not compete in UEFA club competition

2006/07 season

Domestic record: Valencia finished fourth in highly competitive end to the Spanish season, enough to earn them a shot at the UEFA Champions League third qualifying round. They were ten points adrift of Real Madrid CF and FC Barcelona but only five behind third-placed Sevilla FC. Villarreal CF were four points further back in fifth. Valencia lost to Getafe CF in the Spanish Cup last 16.

European record: Valencia returned to the UEFA Champions League for the fifth time in eight years thanks to a 3-1 aggregate victory against FC Salzburg in the third qualifying round. They then won Group D ahead of AS Roma, FC Shakhtar Donetsk and Olympiacos CFP, recording four victories and a draw from their six outings. A 2-2 first-leg draw at FC Internazionale Milano proved pivotal in the first knockout round as Valencia went through by that score on away goals before going down 3-2 over two legs to Chelsea FC in the last eight.

Competition information

UEFA's most prestigious club competition was originally created as the European Champion Clubs' Cup for the 1955/56 season, before its revamping as the UEFA Champions League in 1992.

• Format: The UEFA Champions League group stage draw in Monaco on 31 August saw the 32 teams divided into eight groups of four. Clubs from the same association could not be drawn into the same group. Each club plays one home and one away match against each other club in its group. Three points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a defeat. If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of the group matches, the following criteria are applied to determine the rankings.

- a) higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- b) superior goal difference from the group matches played among the teams in question;
- c) higher number of goals scored away from home in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- d) superior goal difference from all group matches played;
- e) higher number of goals scored;
- f) higher number of coefficient points accumulated by the club in question as well as its association, over the previous five seasons.

The eight group-winners and eight runners-up of the group stage qualify for the first knockout round, to be played over two legs on 19/20 February and 4/5 March 2007. The clubs that finish this stage in third position in their group move into the Round of 32 of the UEFA Cup. The clubs that finish this stage in fourth position in their group are eliminated from UEFA club competition for the season. This year's UEFA Champions League final is in Moscow on 21 May 2008.

• Disciplinary information: As a rule, a player who is sent off the field of play is suspended for the next match in a UEFA club competition. The Control and Disciplinary Body is entitled to augment this punishment. In the case of repeated cautions, a player is suspended for one match after three cautions in three different matches, as well as following any subsequent odd-numbered caution (fifth, seventh, ninth, etc). Single yellow cards and pending suspensions are always carried forward either to the next stage of the competition or to another club competition in the current season.

• Locally-trained players rule: In February 2005, UEFA announced the 'A' list that teams submit for UEFA club competitions will continue to be limited to 25 players, and from season 2007/08, at least six places will be reserved for players trained by the club's own football academy of which half can be players trained by other clubs from within the same association of the said club. The 'B' list will also continue to exist - involving an unlimited number of Under-21 players who have been at the club for two seasons. In 2006/07, the number of locally-trained players required began at four but the current six will rise to eight in 2008/09, with up to half of each figure allowed to be association trained. A club-trained player is defined as a player who has been registered for a minimum of three seasons with the club between the age of 15 and 21, whereas an association-trained player is one who has been registered for at least three seasons by the club or by other clubs affiliated to the same association between the age of 15 and 21.

• Player registration: UEFA regulations state that for all UEFA Champions League matches from the start of the first knockout round, a club may register a maximum of three new eligible players within their squad of 25 for the remaining matches in the current competition. Such registration must be completed by 1 February at the latest. One player from the above quota of three who has played UEFA club competition matches for another competing club in the current season may exceptionally be registered, provided that the player has not been fielded by another club in the UEFA Champions League this season.

• Financial information: UEFA says the estimated gross income for the 2007/08 UEFA Champions League is €824.5m – slightly higher than the 2006/07 campaign revenue. Under the competition regulations, 75 per cent of the total revenue received from television and commercial contracts concluded by UEFA, up to a maximum of €530m will go to the 32 teams taking part in the group stage of Europe's premier club competition. The remaining 25 per cent is earmarked for European football and remains with UEFA to cover organisational and administrative costs, as well as for solidarity payments to associations, clubs and leagues.

It is also stipulated that participating clubs will receive 82 per cent of any revenue received from the same stream in excess of €530m, with the remaining 18 per cent allocated to UEFA for European football. In addition, 50 per cent of the revenue received from new media contracts concluded by UEFA will also be available for distribution to the clubs, and the remaining 50 per cent will be allocated to the above-mentioned European football portion/quota.

The gross income for 2007/08 is estimated at €824.5m, and according to projections, will be made up of €819m from TV and commercial contracts and €5.5m from new media contracts. The total amount to be distributed to the clubs is €588.6m. Each of the 32 clubs in the group stage will receive a starting bonus of €3m. In addition, they will receive a match bonus of €400,000 per match. Performance bonuses will amount to €600,000 for a win and €300,000 for a draw in the group stage. The 16 teams playing in the first knockout round will receive €2.2m, the eight quarter-finalists €2.5m each and the four semi-finalists €3m each. The UEFA Champions League winners will receive €7m, and the runners-up €4m.

This means that a total minimum amount of €5.4m per club is guaranteed for the group stage. A club could receive, at best, up to €23.7m, not counting the market pool share and gate receipts. The remaining €280m will be distributed according to the proportional value of each TV market represented by the clubs taking part in the UEFA Champions League, and to be split among the number of teams – four, three, two or one – participating from a given association.
