UEFA EURO 2020™ will be held in twelve (12) host cities across Europe in June and July 2020. UEFA, together with any of its subsidiaries, wishes to select a company to organise and provide the following services (the “Services”):

- * Temporary TV and Media Power (TEC Power) supply for the UEFA EURO 2020™ in eleven (11) venues in eleven (11) of the host cities.

This includes but is not limited to the following services::

Starting from an existing grid power connection, the supplier needs to provide cable interconnection and sub distribution down to the final consumer connection. In case required, the supplier will need to provide back-up sources for essential circuits via diesel generator and/or UPS battery systems. Also included is cabling for temperature control systems to temporary structures (e.g. tents) or existing buildings, such as exhibition halls.

The scope includes the power supply and / or power sub-distribution for:

- ⊕ Accreditation centre (where temporary facilities)
- ⊕ Stadium Media Centre (where temporary facilities)
- ⊕ Volunteer Centres (where temporary facilities)
- ⊕ Staff Bistro (where temporary facilities)

The above described Services are requested for eleven (11) of the host cities (excluding Baku).

For the purpose of selecting a provider of the Services, UEFA intends to organise a tendering process (“Tender”).
