Preamble

The following regulations have been adopted on the basis of Articles 49(2)(b) and 50(1) of the UEFA Statutes.

1 – General Provisions

Article 1 Scope of application

1.01 The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the 2019/20 UEFA Women’s Champions League (hereinafter the competition).

Article 2 Definitions

2.01 In these regulations, the use of the masculine form refers equally to the feminine, and vice versa.

2.02 In the context of these regulations, the following definitions apply:

a. commercial rights: any and all commercial rights and opportunities in and in relation to the competition including media rights, marketing rights and data rights;

b. data rights: the right to compile and exploit statistics and other data in relation to the competition;

c. doping: the occurrence of one or more of the anti-doping rule violations set out in the UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations;

d. host association: the association on whose territory matches are played or the association designated by the UEFA Executive Committee to stage the final;

e. host club: the club responsible for staging a match or mini-tournament;

f. marketing rights: the right to advertise, promote, endorse and market the competition; to conduct public relations activities in relation to the competition; and to exploit all advertising, sponsorship, hospitality, licensing, merchandising, publishing, betting, gaming, retailing, music and franchising opportunities and all other commercial association rights (including through ticket promotions) in relation to the competition;

g. media rights: the right to create, distribute and transmit on a linear and/or on-demand basis for reception at any time including on a live and/or delayed basis anywhere in the world by any and all means and in any and all media, whether now known or devised in the future (including all forms of television, radio, mobile, wireless and internet distribution), digital, audiovisual, visual and/or audio coverage of the competition and all associated and/or related rights, including fixed media, download and interactive rights;

h. partner: any party accepted by UEFA under contract to exercise the commercial rights of the final, and thereby participating directly or indirectly in the financing of the competition;

i. technical zone: the technical area as defined in the IFAB Laws of the Game, plus the fourth official’s position, any additional technical seats, the team and referees’ dressing rooms, the players’ tunnel and the route the players and referees take from their dressing rooms to the pitch.
In the context of these regulations, any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular", "for example" or any similar expression is illustrative and does not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.

Article 3  Entries for the competition

3.01 UEFA member associations (hereinafter associations) may enter a certain number of clubs for the competition through their top domestic championship, in accordance with the UEFA Women's Champions League association coefficient rankings, drawn up in accordance with Annex D. No more than two clubs may qualify for the competition through each domestic championship, except if Paragraph 3.03 applies. These rankings also determine the associations’ positions in the access list, which in turn determines the stage at which each club enters the competition.

3.02 Associations are represented on the following basis:
   a. one representative: winner of the top domestic women’s championship;
   b. two representatives: winner and runner-up of the top domestic women’s championship;
   c. three representatives: winner and runner-up of the top domestic women’s championship, as well as the titleholder, in the only case where the titleholder does not qualify for the competition through its domestic championship (see Paragraph 3.03).

3.03 The UEFA Women’s Champions League titleholder is guaranteed a place in the round of 32 even if it does not qualify for the competition through its domestic championship. If the titleholder qualifies for the UEFA Women’s Champions League through its domestic championship, the number of places to which its association is entitled in the UEFA Women’s Champions League does not change. If the titleholder does not qualify for the UEFA Women’s Champions League through its domestic championship, its association is entitled to one additional place in the competition.

Article 4  Admission criteria and procedure

4.01 To be eligible to participate in the competition, clubs must:
   a. have qualified for the competition on sporting merit;
   b. fill in the official entry documents (i.e. all documents containing the information deemed necessary by the UEFA administration for ascertaining compliance with the admission criteria), which must reach the UEFA administration by 3 June 2019;
   c. comply with the rules aimed at ensuring the integrity of the competition as defined in Article 5;
d. confirm in writing that they themselves, as well as their players and officials, comply with the IFAB Laws of the Game promulgated by the International Football Association Board (IFAB) and agree to respect the statutes (including the principles of fair play as defined therein), regulations, directives and decisions of UEFA;

e. confirm in writing that they themselves, as well as their players and officials, agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne, Switzerland, as defined in the relevant provisions of the UEFA Statutes and agree that any proceedings before the CAS concerning admission to, participation in or exclusion from the competition will be held in an expedited manner in accordance with the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration and with the directions issued by the CAS, including for provisional or super-provisional measures, to the explicit exclusion of any state court;

f. not have been directly and/or indirectly involved, since the entry into force of Article 50(3) of the UEFA Statutes, i.e. 27 April 2007, in any activity aimed at arranging or influencing the outcome of a match at national or international level and confirm this to the UEFA administration in writing.

4.02 If, on the basis of all the factual circumstances and information available to UEFA, UEFA concludes to its comfortable satisfaction that a club has been directly and/or indirectly involved, since the entry into force of Article 50(3) of the UEFA Statutes, i.e. 27 April 2007, in any activity aimed at arranging or influencing the outcome of a match at national or international level, UEFA will declare such club ineligible to participate in the competition. Such ineligibility is effective only for one football season. When taking its decision, UEFA can rely on, but is not bound by, a decision of a national or international sporting body, arbitral tribunal or state court. UEFA can refrain from declaring a club ineligible to participate in the competition if UEFA is comfortably satisfied that the impact of a decision taken in connection with the same factual circumstances by a national or international sporting body, arbitral tribunal or state court has already had the effect of preventing that club from participating in a UEFA club competition.

4.03 In addition to the administrative measure of declaring a club ineligible as provided for in Paragraph 4.02, the UEFA Organs for the Administration of Justice can, if the circumstances so justify, also take disciplinary measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

4.04 If a club refuses to enter the competition, having qualified for it on sporting merit, the following procedure applies:

a. Associations with one representative in accordance with Paragraph 3.02(a) may enter the runner-up of their top domestic women’s championship instead of the winner.

b. Associations with two or three representatives in accordance with Paragraph 3.02(b) and Paragraph 3.02(c) may not enter another club in place of a club which refuses to enter.

If a club refuses to enter and is not replaced, the access list is rebalanced accordingly. Furthermore, in such a case, the coefficient of the association concerned is calculated in accordance with the specific rule laid down in Annex D.
4.05 The UEFA General Secretary decides on admission to the competition. Such decisions are final.

4.06 If there is any doubt as to whether a club fulfils the admission criterion defined in Paragraph 4.01(c), the UEFA General Secretary refers the case to the UEFA Club Financial Control Body, which decides on the admission without delay in accordance with the Procedural rules governing the UEFA Club Financial Control Body. UEFA may carry out investigations at any time (even after the end of the competition) to ensure that this admission criterion is or has been met by the end of the competition; if such an investigation reveals that this criterion is or was no longer met in the course of the competition, the club concerned is liable to disciplinary measures in accordance with the Procedural rules governing the UEFA Club Financial Control Body.

4.07 If there is any doubt as to whether a club fulfils other admission criteria than that defined in Paragraph 4.01(c), the UEFA General Secretary refers the case to the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body, which decides without delay upon the admission in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations. UEFA may carry out investigations at any time (even after the end of the competition) to ensure that these other criteria are or have been met until the end of the competition; if such an investigation reveals that one of these other criteria is or was no longer met in the course of the competition, the club concerned is liable to disciplinary measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

4.08 A club which is not admitted to the competition is replaced by the next best-placed club in the top domestic women’s championship of the same association, provided the new club fulfils the admission criteria. In this case, the access list for the competition (see Annex A) is adjusted accordingly.

Article 5 Integration of the competition

5.01 To ensure the integrity of the competition, the following criteria apply:

a. No club participating in the competition may, either directly or indirectly:
   i. hold or deal in the securities or shares of any other club participating in the competition;
   ii. be a member of any other club participating in the competition;
   iii. be involved in any capacity whatsoever in the management, administration and/or sporting performance of any other club participating in the competition; or
   iv. have any power whatsoever in the management, administration and/or sporting performance of any other club participating in the competition.
b. No one may simultaneously be involved, either directly or indirectly, in any capacity whatsoever in the management, administration and/or sporting performance of more than one club participating in the competition.

c. No individual or legal entity may have control or influence over more than one club participating in the competition, such control or influence being defined in this context as:

i. holding a majority of the shareholders’ voting rights;

ii. having the right to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the administrative, management or supervisory body of the club;

iii. being a shareholder and alone controlling a majority of the shareholders’ voting rights pursuant to an agreement entered into with other shareholders of the club; or

iv. being able to exercise by any means a decisive influence in the decision-making of the club.

5.02 If two or more clubs fail to meet the criteria aimed at ensuring the integrity of the competition, only one of them may be admitted to the competition, in accordance with the following criteria (applicable in descending order):

a. the club which was ranked highest in the domestic championship;

b. the club whose association is ranked highest in the access list (see Annex A).

Article 6 Duties of the clubs

6.01 On entering the competition, participating clubs agree:

a. to play in the competition until their elimination and to field their strongest team throughout the competition;

b. to play all matches under a head coach who holds at least the UEFA A licence, who is confirmed as the head coach by the relevant national association and who is responsible for the following matters: selection, tactics and training of the team squad and management of the players and technical staff in the dressing room and the technical area before, during and after the match;

c. to stage and play all matches in the competition in accordance with the present regulations;

d. to comply with all decisions regarding the competition taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, the UEFA administration or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by UEFA circular letter or by official letter, fax or email);

e. to observe the UEFA Safety and Security Regulations for all matches in the competition;

f. to stage each match in the competition in a stadium meeting the structural criteria of the stadium category required by Paragraph 26.01;

g. if appropriate, to confirm that the artificial turf meets the applicable FIFA quality standards and to send the UEFA administration a copy of the required FIFA licensing certificate issued by a FIFA accredited laboratory no more than 12 months before the entry deadline;
h. to make every reasonable effort to make the players nominated for the UEFA Best Women’s Player in Europe Award available for the award ceremony at the start of the season;

i. to cooperate with UEFA at any time – and in particular at the end of matches – in the collection of items from the game and players’ personal items that could be used by UEFA to create a memorabilia collection to illustrate the heritage of the competition, to the exclusion of any commercial use;

j. not to represent UEFA or the competition without UEFA’s prior written approval;

k. to update the UEFA administration in writing within 14 working days about any facts and information related to the admission criteria (see Paragraph 4.01) that have changed since the admission of the club (including changes affecting the official entry documents);

l. to inform the UEFA administration about any disciplinary procedure opened against the club and/or its players and/or its officials by its association and/or its domestic league for allegedly arranging or influencing the outcome of a match at national level; the same applies for any football-related procedure opened by a state authority against the club and/or its players and/or its officials based on the criminal code.

6.02 The club may use its name and/or logo provided all the following requirements are satisfied:

a. The name is mentioned in the statutes of the club;

b. If required by national law, the name/logo is registered with the chamber of commerce or equivalent body;

c. The name/logo is registered with the club’s association and used in national competitions;

d. The name/logo does not refer to the name of a commercial partner. Exceptions to this rule may be granted by the UEFA administration in case of particular hardship (e.g. long-term existing name, etc.) at the reasoned request of the club concerned.

If so requested, the club must provide the UEFA administration with the necessary evidence.

Article 7 Responsibilities of the associations and clubs

7.01 If necessary, visiting clubs must apply for visas from the diplomatic mission of the host country well in advance of their trip. Upon request, the host association must assist the visiting clubs as much as possible with the visa formalities.

7.02 The clubs are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.

7.03 The host club (or the host association) is responsible for order and security before, during and after the match. The host club (or the host association) may be called to account for incidents of any kind and may be disciplined.
7.04 The host club must stage the relevant matches in accordance with the instructions of UEFA (or of a third party acting on UEFA’s behalf) and in cooperation with the association concerned. However, the club is considered solely accountable for all of its obligations in this respect.

7.05 Minimum medical requirements concerning the provision of facilities, equipment and personnel by the host club are set out in the UEFA Medical Regulations. For the avoidance of doubt, the host club has sole responsibility for the provision and operation of any facilities and equipment required in the above-mentioned regulations.

7.06 UEFA declines all responsibility in the event of conflicts arising from contracts between a club or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents and any third party (including their sponsors, suppliers, manufacturers, broadcasters, agents and players) on account of the provisions of these regulations and/or any other UEFA regulations and such persons’ obligations thereunder.

7.07 Each club indemnifies, defends and holds UEFA, its subsidiaries and any LOC and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and other auxiliary persons free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to any non-compliance by the club or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents with the present regulations.

Article 8 Anti-doping

8.01 Doping is forbidden and is a punishable offence. In case of anti-doping rule violations, UEFA will instigate disciplinary proceedings against the perpetrators and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations and UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations. This may include the imposition of provisional measures.

8.02 UEFA may test any player at any time.

Article 9 Fair play

9.01 All UEFA competition matches must be played in accordance with the principles of fair play as defined in the UEFA Statutes.

9.02 Fair play assessments are conducted at all matches in the competition in accordance with the UEFA Fair Play Regulations, in order to establish association fair play rankings at the end of each season.
Article 10   Insurance

10.01 Irrespective of UEFA’s insurance coverage, each club and host association must conclude insurance coverage with reputable insurers at their own cost, in relation to any and all risks, according to the following principles:

a. Each club must conclude and maintain insurance coverage to fully cover all of its risks in connection with its participation in the competition.

b. In addition, the host club or the host association must conclude and maintain insurance coverage for the risks in connection with staging and organising matches and which must include third-party liability insurance (for all third parties participating in matches or present at the relevant venue) providing for appropriate guaranteed sums for damages to persons, objects and property, as well as for pure economic losses corresponding to the specific circumstances of the club or association concerned.

c. To the same extent as in paragraph b) above, the host association of the final must conclude and maintain insurance coverage to fully cover all of its risks in connection with the staging and organisation of the final.

d. If the host club or the host association is not the owner of the stadium used, it is also responsible for providing adequate and fully comprehensive insurance cover, including third-party liability and property damage, taken out by the relevant stadium owner and/or tenant.

e. The host club and the host association must ensure that UEFA is included in all insurance policies as defined in the present paragraph and must hold UEFA harmless from any and all claims for liability arising in relation to the staging and organising of the relevant matches.

10.02 In any case, UEFA may ask anyone involved to provide, free of charge, written releases of liability, hold harmless notes, confirmations and/or copies of the policies concerned in one of UEFA’s official languages.

Article 11   Trophy and medals

11.01 The original trophy, which is used for the official presentation ceremony at the final and at other official events approved by UEFA, remains in UEFA’s keeping and ownership at all times. A full-size replica trophy, the UEFA Women’s Champions League winners’ trophy, is awarded to the winning club.

11.02 Replica trophies awarded to winners of the competition (past and current) must remain within the relevant club’s control at all times and may not leave the club’s country without UEFA’s prior written consent. Clubs must not permit a replica trophy to be used in any context where a third party (including their sponsors and other commercial partners) is granted visibility or in any other way which could lead to an association between any third party and the trophy and/or the competition. Clubs must comply with any trophy use guidelines that the UEFA administration may issue from time to time.

11.03 The winning team is presented with 40 gold medals and the runner-up with 40 silver medals. Additional medals may not be produced.
Article 12  Intellectual property rights

12.01 UEFA is the exclusive owner of all intellectual property rights of the competition, including any current or future rights in all types of audio and visual material of the competition, names, logos, visual identities, brands, music, mascots, medals, plaques, commemorative items, trophies and certain key elements of the official match ball design. Any use of the aforementioned rights, any imitation and/or variation thereof and any other reference to the competition (such as by associating the name of a club with the date of a match) requires the prior written approval of UEFA and must comply with any conditions imposed by UEFA.

12.02 All rights to the fixture list and match schedule, as well as any data and statistics (including databases in which such data is stored) in relation to the matches of and players’ participation in the competition are the sole and exclusive property of UEFA. No tickets or accreditation may be used by anyone in order to gain access to a venue for the purposes of collecting or gathering such data, and such activities are expressly prohibited. The foregoing prohibition does not apply to the participating clubs, subject to any and all such data collected being used solely for the purposes of instructing their team, players and officials and expressly excluding any other exploitation or use whatsoever.
Competition System

Article 13  Competition stages and seeding

13.01 Matches in all stages of the competition are played in conformity with the IFAB Laws of the Game. The half-time interval lasts 15 minutes.

13.02 The competition stages are as follows:
- qualifying round
- round of 32
- round of 16
- quarter-finals
- semi-finals
- final

13.03 Clubs are seeded for the qualifying round, round of 32 and round of 16, in accordance with the club coefficient rankings established at the beginning of the season (see Annex D) and with the principles set by the UEFA Women's Football Committee. The titleholder is always the top seed. If, for any reason, any of the participants in such rounds are not known at the time of the draw, the coefficient of the club with the higher coefficient of the two clubs involved in an undecided tie is used for the purposes of the draw.

13.04 For the round of 32 and the round of 16, draws between the same number of seeded and unseeded clubs determine the pairings, in accordance with the club coefficient rankings (see Annex D).

Article 14  Group formation and match system – qualifying round

14.01 The clubs participating in the qualifying round are drawn into groups of four teams.

14.02 All matches in the qualifying round are played in the form of mini-tournaments in one of the countries in the group.

14.03 Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one for a draw and none for a defeat.

14.04 The qualification path to the round of 32 depends on the number of entries for the competition. Details are communicated by the UEFA administration in writing before the draw for the qualifying round.
Article 15  Equality of points – qualifying round

15.01 If two or more teams in the same group are equal on points on completion of a mini-tournament, the following criteria are applied to the mini-tournament in question, in the order given, to determine the rankings:

a. higher number of points obtained in the matches played among the teams in question;

b. superior goal difference from the matches played among the teams in question;

c. higher number of goals scored in the matches played among the teams in question;

d. if, after having applied criteria a) to c), teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) are reapplied exclusively to the matches between the remaining teams to determine their final rankings. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) to h) apply; in the order given to the two or more teams still equal;

e. superior goal difference in all matches;

f. higher number of goals scored in all matches;

g. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in mini-tournament (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

h. higher club coefficient (see Annex D).

15.02 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last mini-tournament match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings are determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Paragraph 18.03 to Paragraph 18.05), provided no other team within the group has the same number of points on completion of the mini-tournament. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under Paragraph 15.01 apply. This procedure is only necessary if a ranking of the teams is required.

15.03 If it is necessary to determine the best runner(s)-up, only matches against the teams in first and third place in each group are taken into account with the following criteria being applied in the order given:

a. higher number of points;

b. superior goal difference;

c. higher number of goals scored;

d. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

e. higher club coefficient (see Annex D).
Article 16  Match system – round of 32, round of 16, quarter-finals and semi-finals

16.01 The top-ranked clubs start the competition in the round of 32 and are joined by the clubs which have qualified from the qualifying round.

16.02 The round of 32 pairings are determined by means of a draw in accordance with the following principles:
   a. Clubs from the same association cannot be drawn against each other.
   b. Group winners must be drawn against runners-up from a different group.
   c. The seeded clubs play the return leg at home.

16.03 The 16 winners of the round of 32 contest the round of 16, for which the pairings are determined by means of a draw. Clubs from the same association cannot be drawn against each other. The club drawn first plays the first leg of the tie at home.

16.04 The eight winners of the round of 16 contest the quarter-finals. The quarter-final pairings are determined by means of a draw. The club drawn first plays the first leg of the tie at home.

16.05 The four winners of the quarter-finals contest the semi-finals. The semi-final pairings are determined by means of a draw. The club drawn first plays the first leg of the tie at home.

16.06 The round of 32, round of 16, quarter-finals and semi-finals are played under the knockout system, on a home-and-away basis (two legs).

16.07 The team which scores the greater aggregate of goals in the two matches qualifies for the next stage. Otherwise, the stipulations of Article 18 apply.

16.08 The UEFA administration may decide that a tie be played in one leg, if circumstances so require, and will set the principles for determining the winner accordingly.

Article 17  Match system – final 17.01 The final is played as one single match at a neutral and predetermined venue. If the score is equal at the end of normal time, two 15-minute periods of extra time are played. If one of the teams scores more goals than the other during extra time, that team is declared the winner. If the score is still equal after extra time, the winner is determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Paragraph 18.03 to Paragraph 18.05). The provisions of Paragraph 18.01 do not apply to the final.

Article 18  Away goals rule, extra time and kicks from the penalty mark

18.01 For matches played under the knockout system, if the two teams involved in a tie score the same number of goals over the two legs, the team which scores more away goals qualifies for the next stage. If this procedure does not produce a result, i.e. if both teams score the same number of goals at home and away, two 15-minute periods of extra time are played at the end of the second leg. If both teams score the same number of goals during extra time, away goals count double (i.e. the visiting team qualifies for the next stage). If no goals are scored during extra time, kicks from the penalty mark determine which team qualifies for the next stage.

18.02 If extra time is required, there is a five-minute break between the end of normal time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

18.03 Kicks from the penalty mark are taken in accordance with the procedure laid down in the IFAB Laws of the Game.

18.04 The referee decides which goal will be used for the kicks:
   a. If either goal could be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, the referee tosses a coin to decide which goal will be used.
   b. For reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting or other similar reasons, the referee may decide which goal will be used without tossing a coin. Such decisions are final.

18.05 To ensure that the procedure is strictly observed, the referee is assisted by her team, who also note down the numbers of the players on each team who have taken kicks from the penalty mark.

18.06 If through the fault of a team, the taking of kicks from the penalty mark cannot be completed, the provisions of Article 25 apply.
III – Match Scheduling

Article 19  Mini-tournament host selection

19.01 For the qualifying round, the clubs wishing to host a mini-tournament must notify the UEFA administration in writing on the relevant form by the entry deadline.

19.02 In principle, the UEFA administration decides on the mini-tournament hosts before the draw, according to the following principles:
- quality of the infrastructure (e.g. stadiums, tournament hotel);
- travel distances;
- promotional concept;
- previous experience as a host.

19.03 Should it not be possible to designate mini-tournament hosts before the draw, the teams in the group(s) concerned must agree, within a set time after the draw, which of them will host the mini-tournament(s) in question. If the clubs cannot agree, the UEFA administration will conduct a draw for this purpose.

Article 20  Match dates and fixtures

20.01 All matches are played in accordance with the UEFA Women’s Match Calendar (see Annex C).

20.02 The dates of all matches must be entered online by the associations of the clubs concerned by the deadlines set by the UEFA administration.

20.03 If one of the clubs involved in a tie would have to play on the same day its men’s first team plays a UEFA competition match, or if the stadium used by the women’s team is already in use by the men’s first team for a match in the top domestic championship or domestic cup, the clubs concerned, as well as the entities running their domestic competitions, must agree on a new date for the match within the calendar constraints given by UEFA. If no agreement can be reached, the UEFA administration takes a final decision.

20.04 Unless the four teams in question agree otherwise, mini-tournaments must be organised according to the following schedule:

Article 21 Venues and kick-off times

21.01 In principle, a club must play all its matches in the competition at one and the same venue. A venue may be either the ground of the host club or another ground in the same or another city within the territory of its association, or, if so decided by the UEFA administration and/or the UEFA disciplinary bodies, in the territory of another UEFA member association for reasons of safety or as a result of a disciplinary measure.

21.02 In principle, venues are approved only if direct international flights and/or charter flights are able to land within an acceptable distance of the venue, in the country of the club concerned. Special approval by the UEFA administration is required for venues located in places which have few international flights or which necessitate internal flights.

21.03 The host club must ensure that all hotels used for mini-tournaments are easily accessible and that the travelling conditions are favourable for the visiting teams.
Hotels must be situated within an acceptable distance of the nearest international airport. Unless the visiting teams agree otherwise, no stadium may be located more than a one-hour bus drive from all hotels.

21.04 If, at any time during the season, the UEFA administration deems that, for whatever reason, a venue may not be fit for staging a match, UEFA may consult the association and club concerned and ask them to propose an alternative venue, in accordance with the UEFA requirements. Should such an association and club not be able to propose an acceptable alternative venue by the deadline set by the UEFA administration, UEFA may select an alternative, neutral venue. The club concerned will have to make all the necessary arrangements for the staging of the match together with the relevant association and local authorities. In both cases, the costs of staging the match are borne by the host club. The UEFA administration takes a final decision on alternative match venues in due time.

21.05 The venues and kick-off times of all matches must be entered online by the associations of the host clubs by the deadline set, for approval by the UEFA administration. For reasons of sporting fairness, the matches played on the last match day in a mini-tournament must kick off at the same time unless the results in the mini-tournament on the third matchday would not make a difference to the rankings.
21.06 Unless the UEFA administration grants special approval, host clubs are not allowed to fix kick-off times before 11.00 or after 21.00 (local time).

21.07 The date and venue of the final are chosen by the Executive Committee.

Article 22  Team arrivals and departures

22.01 The clubs undertake that their teams will arrive at the venue by the evening before the match (or start of the mini-tournament) at the latest and that they will fulfil their media obligations the day before the match.

22.02 Visiting teams should depart the day after their (last) match.

22.03 Unless they agree otherwise with the host club, teams arriving earlier (i.e. more than one night before the match or before the start of the mini-tournament) or departing later (i.e. more than one day after the match or more than one day after their last match in a mini-tournament) are responsible for the extra costs incurred as a result of their early arrival or late departure.

Article 23  Changes to the match schedule

23.01 If any doubt arises as to whether a match can take place as scheduled, the club or association concerned must immediately notify the UEFA administration. The latter decides if the match is confirmed as scheduled or if any change has to be made concerning the venue, date or kick-off time. Such decision by the UEFA administration is final.

23.02 The referee decides if a match cannot start or if a match which has started must be abandoned. This decision is made after consultation with the UEFA match delegate and, when possible, the UEFA administration.

23.03 If there are fewer than seven players on either of the teams, the match is not played or is abandoned.

23.04 In all cases, decisions taken on the basis of this article are without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures.

Article 24  Rescheduling of matches

24.01 If a match cannot start or cannot be played in full, the full or remaining match time is, as a rule, played on the next day, without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures. For that purpose, the host clubs must conclude all the necessary agreements to ensure that the required facilities are available and can be operated.

24.02 If a match cannot be rescheduled the next day, the UEFA administration fixes a new date. The rescheduling may entail exceptions to the regular match calendar (see Annex A).
As a rule, a rescheduled match is played at the same venue. If the circumstances require a change of venue, the UEFA administration must approve the alternative venue.

If a club is responsible for the rescheduling of all or part of a match, that club bears its own expenses, as well as any additional travel, board and lodging expenses of the other club, of the referee team and the match officers, without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures.

If the match is rescheduled through no fault of either club, each party bears its own expenses related to the original fixture and the rescheduled match or remaining match time.

In all cases, decisions taken by the UEFA administration on the basis of this article are final.

If the referee decides to abandon the match, the remaining match time must be played according to the following principles:

a. The match sheet may contain any eligible players who were on the player lists, with the exception of players substituted or sent off during the abandoned match as well as players suspended for the abandoned match. The players who were in play at the time the match was abandoned may not be included on the match sheet as substitutes when the match is resumed.

b. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match.

c. Single yellow cards imposed before the match was abandoned are not carried forward to any other matches before the abandoned match is completed.

d. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced and the number of players in the starting line-up remains as it was when the match was abandoned.

e. Players who were suspended following a match played after the abandoned match in question can be included on the match sheet.

f. The teams can make only the number of substitutions to which they were still entitled when the match was abandoned.

g. The match must restart on the same spot where the abandoned match action occurred (i.e. free-kick, throw-in, goal kick, corner kick, penalty, etc.). If the match was stopped during the normal flow of the game, a dropped ball on the spot where it was abandoned shall be used to restart.

Refusal to play and similar cases

If a club refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full, the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body takes a decision in the matter.
25.02 Exceptionally, the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the club responsible for the match being abandoned.

25.03 If a club is disqualified or for any reason withdraws from the competition before completion of its matches in the qualifying round, the results of all of its matches are declared null and void, and its points forfeited.

25.04 A club which refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from UEFA.

25.05 Upon receipt of a reasoned and well-documented request from the aggrieved club(s), the UEFA administration may set an amount of compensation due for financial loss.
Article 26  Stadiums

26.01 Unless stipulated otherwise in these regulations, matches from the qualifying round to the semi-finals must be played in stadiums which meet the structural criteria of category 1, as defined in the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations.

26.02 The final must be played in a stadium which meets the structural criteria as defined in the staging agreement.

Article 27  Pitches

27.01 The host club must make every reasonable effort to ensure that the pitch is in the best possible condition for play. If the climatic conditions so require, facilities such as pitch heating and pitch cover must be provided, to ensure that the field of play can be made available in a suitable condition on any match date. The UEFA administration or a third party mandated by UEFA may carry out pitch inspections at any time before and during the competition to check whether the pitch is in suitable conditions to host matches of the competition.

27.02 For natural pitches, the height of the grass may not, in principle, exceed 30mm and the entire playing surface must be cut to the same height. The height of the cut should be the same for both the training sessions and the match. If deemed necessary by the referee or the UEFA match delegate, the host club may be requested to reduce the height of the grass for the match and training sessions.

27.03 The pitch watering schedule must be communicated by the host club at the matchday organisational meeting. The pitch must be watered evenly and not only in certain areas. As a general rule, pitch watering must finish 60 minutes before kick-off. However, upon decision of the home club, pitch watering may also take place after that time, provided it takes place:
   a. between 10 and 5 minutes before kick-off, and/or
   b. during half-time (for a maximum of 5 minutes).

The referee is entitled to request changes to the schedule.

27.04 All goals must be set up securely and in accordance with the IFAB Laws of the Game.

Article 28  Artificial turf

28.01 With the exception of the final, which must be played on natural turf, matches in the competition may be played on artificial turf in accordance with the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations and provided that such artificial turf is certified as FIFA Quality or FIFA Quality Pro.
28.02 The owner of the artificial turf and the host club are fully responsible for meeting the above requirements, in particular those related to:

a. maintenance work and ongoing improvement measures; and

b. safety and environmental measures as set out in the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Turf – Handbook of Requirements and the FIFA Quality Programme for Football Turf – Handbook of Test Methods.

28.03 The owner of the artificial turf and the host club must obtain sufficient warranties and/or guarantees related to the material and the installation from the manufacturer and the installer of the artificial turf.

28.04 UEFA cannot be held responsible for any damages to third parties resulting from the use of the artificial turf.

Article 29  Retractable stadium roofs

29.01 Before the match, the UEFA match delegate, in consultation with the referee, decides whether a stadium’s retractable roof will be open or closed during the match. This decision must be announced at the pre-match organisational meeting, although it may subsequently be altered at any time prior to kick-off if the weather changes, again in consultation with the referee.

29.02 If the match starts with the roof closed, it must remain closed until half-time or for the entire match. If the match starts with the roof open, only the referee has the authority to order its closure during the match, subject to any applicable laws issued by a competent state authority. Such a decision may only be taken if the weather seriously deteriorates. If the referee does order the roof to be closed during the match, it must remain closed until half-time or the final whistle.

Article 30  Floodlights

30.01 Matches may be played in daylight or under floodlights. If played under floodlights, the illuminance must correspond to the requirements set in the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations.

31.01 Stadium clocks may be used to show the amount of time played or remaining provided they are stopped at the end of normal time in each half, i.e. after 45 and 90 minutes respectively. This stipulation also applies in the event of extra time (i.e. after 105 and 120 minutes).

Article 32  Screens

32.01 Simultaneous transmissions, replays and delayed footage of the match being played in the stadium may be transmitted on the stadium’s giant screen provided that the host club has obtained all the necessary third-party permission to transmit such footage, including permission from the relevant UEFA match officer.
and any relevant local authorities. However, the host club must ensure that replays and delayed footage are shown on the giant screen during the match only when the ball is out of play and/or during the half-time interval, the break before extra time (if any), the half-time interval during extra time (if any) and/or before the start of the kicks from the penalty mark. Moreover, the host club must ensure that any footage shown on the giant screen under no circumstances includes any images that:

a. may have an impact on the playing of the match;

b. may be reasonably considered as controversial insofar as they are likely to encourage or incite any form of crowd disorder;

c. may display any public disorder, civil disobedience or any commercial and/or offensive material within the crowd or on the pitch; or

d. may be deemed to criticise, undermine or damage the reputation, standing or authority of any player, referee and/or any other party at the stadium (including any images that are aimed at highlighting, directly or indirectly, any offside offence, foul, potential mistake of a referee and/or any behaviour which is contrary to the principle of fair play).

In addition, the results of other matches can be shown on the scoreboard and/or giant screen during the match, and simultaneous transmissions and replays are authorised for press monitors and closed-circuit channels.

32.02 During the final, simultaneous or delayed transmissions on public screens outside the stadium in which the match is played (e.g. in another stadium or in a public place anywhere) may be authorised subject to:

a. a licence being granted by UEFA; and

b. authorisation being granted by the rights-holding broadcaster in the territory of the screening and the public authorities.
V – Match Organisation

Article 33  Match equipment

33.01 Balls must comply with the IFAB Laws of the Game as well as with the UEFA Equipment Regulations.

33.02 The host club must provide the visiting club with match balls of excellent quality for its training session on the day before the match as well as for warming up before the match. These match balls must be the same as those used for the match.

33.03 The applicable official UEFA match ball will be supplied by UEFA for use by the clubs as from the quarter-finals. It must be used for the final and for the official training sessions on the day prior to the final.

33.04 The UEFA Women’s Champions League centre board must be installed at all matches as from the round of 32, in accordance with UEFA’s instructions.

33.05 For each match, the host club must ensure that two substitution boards are available.

33.06 The use of two-sided substitution boards (preferably electronic) is compulsory.

Article 34  Training sessions

34.01 The day before the match, pitch conditions permitting, the visiting club is allowed to train on the pitch on which the match is to take place. The length of this training session may not exceed one hour, unless agreed otherwise with the host club. If holding such a training session could render the pitch unfit for play the next day, an alternative training ground approved by UEFA in advance must be made available. However, priority is given to the visiting club, so the first training session to be moved is that of the home team. In addition, the visiting club may hold private training sessions at a location to be agreed on with the host club, but not at the match stadium.

34.02 The day before the match, pitch conditions permitting, the referee team may train on the pitch on which the match will be played. If such a training session is not possible as a result of pitch conditions or travel times, an alternative facility should be made available.

34.03 In case the visiting club and/or referees do not train at the stadium the day before the match for whatever reason (e.g. pitch conditions), they must be permitted to visit the stadium the day before the match in order to familiarise themselves with the facilities and conditions.
Article 35  Ticketing

35.01 Clubs must make at least 5% of the total capacity of their stadium available to visiting supporters. In addition, visiting clubs are entitled to purchase up to 50 top-category tickets (unless otherwise agreed between the two clubs in question) for their VIP supporters, sponsors, etc, (see Articles 17 and 25 of the UEFA Stadium Infrastructure Regulations and Article 19 of the UEFA Safety and Security Regulations). Visiting clubs must submit their ticket requests to the host club three weeks prior to the match at the latest.

35.02 Visiting clubs which have requested an allocation of tickets may return any unused tickets to the host club without payment up to seven days prior to the match. After this deadline the visiting club must pay for the whole allocation, irrespective of whether all the tickets have been sold.

35.03 The official UEFA representatives and at least ten representatives of the visiting club and its association must be provided with complimentary top-category seats (and associated hospitality) in the VIP sector.

35.04 All visiting team ticket allocations and ticketing arrangements may be altered by written agreement between the two clubs concerned.

Article 36  Venue data coordinator

36.01 The host club must ensure that the venue data coordinator (VDC) appointed by UEFA to gather live data during the match is provided with:

a. a commentary position (or an equivalent position) with dedicated broadband internet access, which needs to be in place from the morning of the match until 90 minutes after the final whistle; and

b. an accreditation permitting access to the referees' dressing room.
VI – Match Procedures

Article 37 Match sheet

37.01 Before each match, each team shall indicate in the relevant match sheet the numbers, surnames, first names and dates of birth and, if applicable, shirt names of the 18 players (exceptionally 23 players for the final) in the squad, together with the surnames and first names of the officials seated on the substitutes’ bench and on the additional technical seats. The match sheet must be validated by the competent club official.

37.02 The 11 players indicated on the match sheet as forming the starting 11 must commence the match. The other players are designated as substitutes. The numbers on the players’ shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet, on which the goalkeepers and team captain must also be identified.

37.03 Both teams must submit their validated match sheets at least 75 minutes before kick-off.

37.04 Only three of the substitutes listed on the match sheet may take part in the match. A player who has been substituted may take no further part in the match. Exceptionally, a fourth substitute listed on the match sheet may take part in knock-out matches exclusively during extra time.

37.05 After the validated match sheets have been submitted no changes are allowed. Before the match has kicked off, the following exceptions are possible:

a. If any of the players indicated on the match sheet as forming the starting 11 cannot start the match due to physical incapacity, she may be replaced by one of the substitutes listed on the match sheet. The substitute in question may then be replaced by a registered player not previously listed on the match sheet, so that the quota of substitutes is not reduced. During the match, three players may still be substituted.

b. If any of the substitutes listed on the match sheet cannot be fielded due to physical incapacity, she may be replaced by a registered player not previously listed on the match sheet.

c. If none of the goalkeepers listed on the match sheet can be fielded due to physical incapacity, they may be replaced by registered goalkeepers not previously listed on the match sheet.

The club concerned must, upon request, provide the UEFA administration with the necessary medical certificates.
Article 38  Match protocol

38.01 The UEFA flag and the Respect flag must be flown at the stadium at all matches in the competition. They will be provided to the clubs by their association. The competition flag must also be flown. It will be provided by UEFA to the clubs concerned in due time.

38.02 Both teams must be at the stadium at least 75 minutes before kick-off.

38.03 The walk-on music provided by UEFA must be played from when the players emerge from the players' tunnel until they have lined up, at which point the UEFA Women's Champions League anthem provided by UEFA must be played. National anthems may not be played.

38.04 At all matches in the competition, the players are invited to shake hands with their opponents and the referee team after the line-up ceremony as well as after the final whistle, as a gesture of fair play.

Article 39  Rules governing the technical area

39.01 Seven team officials, one of whom must be a team doctor, and seven substitute players (12 substitute players for the final) are allowed to sit on the substitutes' bench, i.e. a total of 14 persons (19 persons for the final). The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.

39.02 If space so permits, up to five additional technical seats are allowed for club staff providing technical support to the team during the match (kit manager, assistant physiotherapist, etc.). Such seats must be outside the technical area and positioned at least five metres behind or to the side of the benches but with access to the dressing rooms. The names of all these persons and their functions must be listed on the match sheet.

39.03 During the match, substitutes are allowed to leave the technical area to warm up. The referee determines exactly where they may warm up (behind the first assistant referee or behind the advertising boards behind the goal) and how many substitutes are allowed to warm up simultaneously. In principle, three substitutes per team are allowed to warm up at the same time; exceptionally, if space so permits, the referee can allow additional substitutes from each team to warm up simultaneously in the determined area. The team fitness coach indicated on the match sheet may join the players warming up and is responsible for ensuring the referee's instructions are respected.

39.04 The use of any electronic communication equipment and/or systems is regulated by the IFAB Laws of the Game and the relevant instructions issued. Under no circumstances may any such systems be used by teams in connection with any kind of refereeing decision or matter.

39.05 Smoking is not allowed in the technical area during matches.
VII – Player Registration

Article 40  Player eligibility

40.01 In order to be eligible to participate in the competition, players must be registered with UEFA within the requested deadlines to play for a club and fulfil all the conditions set out in the following provisions. Only players who are duly registered with UEFA by means of the player list can validly serve pending suspensions.

40.02 Each player must be duly registered with their national association as playing for the club concerned in accordance with the association’s own rules and those of FIFA, notably the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players.

40.03 Each player taking part in the competition must be in possession of a player’s registration licence issued by her association or a valid passport or identity card, each containing her photograph and giving full particulars of her date of birth (day, month, year). The referee or the UEFA match delegate may ask to see the passports/identity cards of the players listed on the match sheet.

40.04 Players who are 16 years of age by the end of the calendar year when the match is played are eligible to play.

40.05 All players must undergo a medical examination to the extent provided for by the UEFA Medical Regulations.

40.06 The club bears the legal consequences for fielding a player who is not named on the player list, or who is otherwise not eligible to play.

40.07 As a rule, a player may not play in the competition for more than one club in the course of the same season. Exceptionally, however, a player who has been fielded in the qualifying round is entitled to play for another club as from the round of 32. Moreover, as from the quarter-finals, a player can be registered in accordance with Paragraph 42.01 to Paragraph 42.03. A substitute player who has not been fielded is entitled to play for another club in the course of the same season, provided that she is registered with the UEFA administration in accordance with the present regulations.

40.08 The UEFA administration decides on questions of player eligibility. Challenged decisions are dealt with by the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body.

Article 41  Player lists

41.01 Each club is responsible for submitting a list of players, duly signed, to its association for verification, validation, signature and forwarding to UEFA. These lists must include the name, date of birth, shirt number and name, nationality and national registration date of all players to be fielded in the competition, as well as the surname, first name and coaching qualifications of the head coach. In addition, the lists must include the confirmation by the club’s doctor that all players have undergone the requested medical examination; the club’s doctor is solely responsible for ensuring that the requested players’ medical examination has been duly performed.

41.02 The player list has to be submitted online by the following fixed deadlines:
   a. 30 July 2019 (24.00CET) for the qualifying round;
   b. 4 September 2019 (24.00CET) for all matches from the round of 32 up to and including the final.

41.03 No club may have more than 25 players on the player list during the season, two of whom must be goalkeepers.

Article 42 Subsequent registration

42.01 As of the quarter-finals, a club may register a maximum of three new eligible players for the remaining matches in the current competition. Such registration must be completed by 18 March 2020 (24.00CET) at the latest. This deadline cannot be extended.

42.02 Any or all of the players from the above quota of three may have been fielded for another club in the qualifying round, round of 32 or round of 16.

42.03 If the registration of such new players causes the number of players on the list of players to exceed 25, the club must remove the necessary number of currently registered players to reduce the squad to 25 players again.

42.04 If a club cannot count on the services of at least two goalkeepers registered on the list of players because of long-term injury or illness, the club concerned may temporarily replace the goalkeeper concerned and register a new goalkeeper at any time during the season, subject to Paragraph 40.07, and complete the official registration list with a goalkeeper fit to be fielded. An injury or illness is considered long-term if it lasts at least 30 days as of the day the injury or illness occurred. In case the recovery of the goalkeeper occurs before this 30 day period, the player must remain out of the player list until the end of such period. The club must provide UEFA with the necessary medical evidence in one of UEFA’s official languages. UEFA may require further medical examination of the goalkeeper by an expert appointed by UEFA at the cost of the club. Once the injured or ill goalkeeper is fit to be fielded again she can resume her position in place of her nominated substitute. The return of the original goalkeeper must be announced to the UEFA administration 24 hours before the next match in which the original goalkeeper is due to play.
VIII – Refereeing

Article 43  Referee team and referee liaison officer

43.01 The General Terms and Conditions for Referees officiating at UEFA Matches apply to the referee teams appointed for the competition.

43.02 The referee team is composed of the referee, two assistant referees, the fourth official and (if appointed) two or more video assistant referees.

43.03 In principle, female referees are appointed.

43.04 The referees are taken care of by a referee liaison officer, who is an official representative of the association of the host club.

43.05 Directly after the match, the referee validates the official match report.

Article 44  Appointment and replacement of referees

44.01 The Referees Committee appoints a referee for each match. Only referees from the official FIFA list of referees are eligible. The rest of the referee team is, in principle, proposed by the association of the referee, in accordance with criteria established by the Referees Committee. The host association may be requested to appoint referees.

44.02 The referees are appointed as follows:

| Single match | In principle, UEFA appoints one referee, two assistant referees and one fourth official (substitute referee), in principle all from the same country. The assistant referees and fourth official are proposed by the referee’s association. Alternatively, UEFA may appoint one referee and two assistant referees from the same country as the referee (proposed by the referee’s association). In this case, the host association appoints one substitute assistant referee (fourth official). |
| Mini-tournaments | For each mini-tournament, UEFA appoints three referees from three different countries plus three assistant referees. In principle, the three assistant referees are proposed by the associations of the three referees (one from each association). The host association appoints one substitute referee (fourth official) plus one assistant referee, in principle for the entire mini-tournament. |

44.03 The Referees Committee decides on the criteria for the appointment of video assistant referees for each competition stage.
44.04 UEFA arranges for the referee team to arrive at the venue the day before the start of the mini-tournament or match. If a member of the referee team does not arrive at the venue by then, the UEFA administration and the clubs must be informed immediately. The Referees Committee takes the appropriate decisions, which are final.

44.05 If a referee, assistant referee or video assistant referee becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, she is replaced by another member of the referee team as follows:

a. The referee is replaced either by the fourth official if the appointed fourth official is a referee or by an assistant referee.

b. An assistant referee is replaced by the fourth official or by the reserve assistant referee if one has been appointed.

c. A video assistant referee is replaced by the assistant video assistant referee.

If necessary, the match will take place without video assistant referees and/or without a fourth official.

Article 45  Procedure in case of severe injury to players

45.01 In the event of a suspected concussion the referee stops the game to allow the injured player to be assessed by the team doctor, in accordance with Law 5 of the IFAB Laws of the Game. In principle this should take no more than three minutes, unless a serious incident requires the player to be treated on the field of play or immobilised on the field for immediate transfer to hospital (e.g. spinal injury).

45.02 Any player suffering a head injury that requires assessment for potential concussion will only be allowed to continue playing after the assessment, on specific confirmation by the team doctor to the referee of the player's fitness to do so.
Article 46 UEFA Disciplinary Regulations

46.01 The provisions of the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations apply for all disciplinary offences committed by clubs, officials, members or other individuals exercising a function at a match on behalf of an association or club, unless the present regulations stipulate otherwise.

Article 47 Yellow and red cards

47.01 As a rule, a player who is sent off the field of play is suspended for the next match in the competition. In case of serious offences, the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body is entitled to augment this punishment, including by extending it to other competitions.

47.02 In the case of repeated cautions in different matches, the offending player is suspended for the next competition match after the second and fourth caution, as well as after any subsequent cautions.

47.03 Single yellow cards and pending suspensions are always carried forward to the next stage of the competition.

47.04 Exceptionally, all single yellow cards and pending yellow-card suspensions expire on completion of the qualifying round. They are not carried forward to the round of 32. In addition, all yellow cards expire on completion of the quarter-finals. They are not carried forward to the semi-finals.

47.05 Cautions and pending yellow-card suspensions expire on completion of the competition.

Article 48 Protests and appeals

48.01 Participating clubs are entitled to protest against the validity of a match result within 24 hours of the end of the match in question in accordance with the relevant provisions of the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations, with the exception of the following deadlines being applicable to the qualifying round:

a. a protest must reach the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body within 12 hours of the end of the match in question;

b. a declaration of the intention to appeal against the decision by the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body must be lodged within 24 hours of notification of the relevant decision with grounds.
Article 49 Playing attire approval

49.01 For all matches up to and including the round of 16, the domestic equipment regulations of the relevant associations apply, provided that the sponsor advertising on the playing attire complies with the UEFA Equipment Regulations and the playing attire has been approved for and worn in domestic competition matches.

49.02 All clubs must submit the playing attire approval form by the following deadlines:
   a. 3 July 2019 for clubs playing in the qualifying round;
   b. 7 August 2019 for clubs that qualify directly for the round of 32;
   c. 5 February 2020 for the quarter-finalists.

49.03 Playing attire used by the quarter-finalists must be approved by the UEFA administration. Clubs must submit samples of the first-choice and second-choice playing attires for outfield players and goalkeepers as well as any additional playing attires and/or items of playing attire (shirt, shorts or socks) to the UEFA administration by 5 February 2020. At a club’s request, the UEFA administration may extend the aforementioned deadline as far as the announcement of the shirt sponsor is concerned.

Article 50 Colours

50.01 For all competition matches, the home club has the first choice as to which of its official playing attires announced on the playing attire approval form it wears for its home matches. Until the end of the round of 16, the clubs agree on the colours to be worn from the playing attires announced on their playing attire approval forms. If the clubs are unable to agree on the colours to be worn by their teams, they inform the UEFA administration, who takes a final decision. As of the quarter-finals, the UEFA administration proposes which colours should be worn. The proposals can be changed at the request of the clubs provided that the alternative solution does not lead to clashes in any part of the playing attire. If no agreement can be found, the UEFA administration takes a final decision.

50.02 In any case, if the referee notices on the spot that the colours of the two teams could lead to confusion, she decides on the colours, after consulting the UEFA match delegate and the UEFA administration. As a rule, in such cases it is the home team that has to change colours, for practical reasons.

50.03 For the final, both teams may wear their first choice playing attire. However, if there is a clash, the team designated as the away team must wear alternative colours. The UEFA administration proposes suitably contrasting colours in advance of the match.
Article 51  Numbers and names

51.01 Players must wear set numbers (on shirts and shorts) between 1 and 99. If the number 1 is used, it must be worn by a goalkeeper. No player may wear more than one number for the same team. The numbers on the back of the shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the official player list.

51.02 From the quarter-finals, player names must be shown on the back of shirts (see the UEFA Equipment Regulations).

Article 52  Shirt sponsor

52.01 From the quarter-finals, only the approved and used shirt sponsor may appear on playing attire.

52.02 Clubs may change their shirt sponsor no more than once from the quarter-finals.

52.03 Starting the competition without a sponsor but subsequently using one is not considered as a change of sponsor.

52.04 A change regarding the content of the sponsor advertising is considered to be a change of sponsor, even if the sponsor remains the same.

52.05 Clubs which want to change their shirt sponsor must submit their request to the UEFA administration at least seven working days prior to the first match in which they wish to use the new sponsor (together with the items defined in the UEFA Equipment Regulations).

52.06 If the national legislation applicable at the match venue prevents a visiting club from using its approved shirt sponsor, the club may ask the UEFA administration at least two days before the match in question to replace its sponsor in accordance with the UEFA Equipment Regulations. Clubs are solely responsible for complying with the applicable national legislation.

Article 53  Badges

53.01 From the quarter-finals, the competition badge must appear on the free zone of the right shirt sleeve. This provision applies for all clubs except the titleholder.

53.02 From the quarter-finals, the titleholder must wear the titleholder badge instead of the competition badge on the free zone of the right shirt sleeve.

53.03 From the quarter-finals, the UEFA Respect badge must be worn on the free zone of the left shirt sleeve.

53.04 Subject to a licence being granted by UEFA, multiple winners of the UEFA Women’s Champions League (three consecutive times or a minimum of five times) may wear a multiple-winner badge on the free zone of the left shirt sleeve above the UEFA Respect badge referred to in Paragraph 53.03.
53.05 If UEFA distributes badges for its women’s football promotional campaign, these must be worn on the free zone of the left shirt sleeve above the UEFA Respect badge. This provision applies for all clubs except multiple winners of the UEFA Women’s Champions League, which may instead wear the multiple-winner badge.

53.06 None of the badges may be used in any other competition, or for any other purpose, including commercial or promotional activities, without UEFA’s prior approval.

Article 54  Other team equipment

54.01 From the quarter-finals onwards, UEFA may distribute and suggest to wear non-commercial campaign branded captain’s armbands. For the final UEFA may distribute captain’s armbands, which must be worn.

54.02 For the final, non-playing attire worn by players and club officials may contain sponsor advertising and manufacturer identification in accordance with the UEFA Equipment Regulations. This provision applies:
   a. during any activities in the stadium on the day before the match;
   b. at any official training session before the match;
   c. during any media activities (in particular for interviews, press conferences and appearances in the mixed zone) before and after the match;
   d. on the day of the match, from arrival at the stadium until departure from the stadium.

54.03 For the final, all additional special equipment must be free of any manufacturer identification or sponsor advertising except where expressly stated otherwise in the UEFA Equipment Regulations. This provision applies:
   a. during any activities in the stadium on the day before the match;
   b. at any official training session before the match;
   c. during any media activities (in particular for interviews, press conferences and appearances in the mixed zone) before and after the match;
   d. on the day of the match, from arrival at the stadium until departure from the stadium.

Article 55  Financial rules – whole competition

55.01 The amounts paid by UEFA are gross amounts. As such they cover any and all taxes, levies and charges.

55.02 A portion of the participation bonuses paid by UEFA are intended to be used towards fulfilment of the club licensing criteria for the UEFA Women's Champions League which come into force for the 2020/21 season.

55.03 For all matches in the competition, the association of the host club, on behalf of UEFA, assumes the costs of the board and lodging of the referee team, the UEFA match delegate and the UEFA referee observer, as well as their transport costs within the territory of the association concerned. The UEFA HatTrick incentive payments for participating in the competition should be used towards covering these costs. The international travel expenses and daily allowances of these persons are borne by UEFA.

55.04 In the event of a match being moved for any reason whatsoever, the UEFA administration decides who assumes any expenses incurred by the visiting club as a result. If necessary, the provisions of Paragraph 24.04 must be observed.

55.05 All payments to the clubs are made in euros and transferred to the respective association’s bank account. It is the responsibility of the club to coordinate the transfer from the association’s bank account to the club’s bank account.

55.06 Each contribution is credited to the club concerned via its association on completion of the round played.

Article 56  Financial rules – qualifying round

56.01 The host club retains its receipts and pays all organisational costs.

56.02 The host club pays the following costs for the visiting teams:
   a. board and lodging in a hotel of at least medium standard for a maximum of 26 persons per delegation;
   b. local transport;
   c. laundry service for the match playing attire of the participating teams and referees.

56.03 The host club’s obligations commence one day before the first matchday and end one day after the last matchday.
56.04 To assist in covering the costs of the mini-tournament UEFA makes the following contributions:
   a. €120,000 being €30,000 per mini-tournament participant;
   b. an additional contribution based on the host country’s gross national income per capita, according to the categorisation of the UEFA member associations:
      – €15,000 for a category 1 host country;
      – €35,000 for a category 2 host country;
      – €55,000 for a category 3 host country.
56.05 The visiting clubs cover their own travel expenses to and from the mini-tournament venue.
56.06 UEFA makes the following participation bonus payments:
   a. €12,000 to the host clubs;
   b. €27,000 to the visiting clubs.

Article 57  Financial rules – knockout matches

57.01 Each club retains its receipts and bears all its expenses.
57.02 The visiting club assumes its expenses for travel, board and lodging, unless the two clubs concerned agree otherwise.
57.03 UEFA makes the following participation bonus payments:
   a. €70,000 for participation in the round of 32;
   b. €75,000 for participation in the round of 16;
   c. €80,000 for participation in the quarter-finals;
   d. €85,000 for participation in the semi-finals.

Article 58  Financial rules – final

58.01 UEFA covers the local ground transport costs of the clubs (i.e. one bus, one kit van, one people carrier). Any additional transport must be arranged and paid for by the clubs themselves.
58.02 Each club is responsible for its own expenses.
58.03 UEFA makes the following bonus payments:
   a. €100,000 for the runner-up;
   b. €150,000 for the winner.
58.04 UEFA organises hotel accommodation for the two clubs. Any hotel contracts, and responsibility for managing all relevant services relating to such contracts, are transferred to the clubs upon qualification, and any payments that UEFA has made to those hotels in advance are deducted from the bonus payments due.
XII – Exploitation of the Commercial Rights

Article 59  Commercial rights – general

59.01 For the implementation of the competition, UEFA may appoint third parties to act as brokers or agents on its behalf and/or as service providers.

59.02 All contracts that a member association and/or their affiliated organisation or club (or any third party acting on behalf of a club) enters into in respect of any commercial rights authorised by these regulations in relation to the competition must expire on 30 June 2020 at the latest or contain a clause allowing the relevant member association, affiliated organisation or club to terminate any such contract (or be able to release its rights) as of this date.

59.03 UEFA declines all responsibility in the event of conflicts arising from contracts between a club or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents and any third party (including, without limitation, their sponsors, suppliers, kit manufacturers, broadcasters, agents and players) on account of the provisions of these regulations and/or any other UEFA regulations and such persons’ obligations thereunder.

59.04 In the event that the host club puts in place a ticketing programme for its matches, the host club shall ensure that, as a minimum, the ticketing terms and conditions for those matches stipulate that:

a. no person may conduct any promotional or commercial activity at the match stadium, without the prior written approval of UEFA;

b. tickets must not be used for any commercial purposes such as for promotion, advertising, use as a prize in a competition/sweepstake, or as part of a hospitality or travel package without the prior written approval of UEFA;

c. all people attending the match acknowledge that use may be made (free of charge) of their voice, image and/or likeness in still images and audio/visual transmissions relating to the match (this acknowledgement is required even if no formal ticketing programme is put in place);

d. no person attending the match may, without UEFA’s prior written approval, record, transmit and/or exploit any sound, image, data, statistics and/or description of the match for any purpose other than for private use.

59.05 No member association and/or its affiliated organisation or club may participate in, or allow any third party to use rights granted by such member associations and/or affiliated organisation or club in, any aggregation of commercial rights in any way that would permit third parties to create an association with the qualifying round or any other round of the competition, any mini-tournament and/or the UEFA Women’s Champions League generally, whether through the use of a branded marketing programme or otherwise.

59.06 Member associations and/or their affiliated organisations or clubs may not use or authorise any third party to use any of the competition trademarks or music or any graphic material or artistic forms developed in connection with the competition in programmes, promotions, publications or advertising or otherwise without the prior written consent of UEFA or if not specifically permitted in these regulations. In addition, member associations and/or their affiliated organisations or clubs may not develop, use, register, adopt or create any mark, logo or symbol which refers to the competition or which, in UEFA’s reasonable opinion, is confusingly similar to, is a colourable imitation of, is a derivation of, or unfairly competes with such trademarks, materials or forms.

Article 60 Promotional purposes

60.01 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating clubs and any other party, to exploit all the promotional rights to the competition.

60.02 On registering for the competition, clubs must grant UEFA the right to use and authorise others to use photographic, audiovisual and visual material of their team, players and officials (including their names, relevant statistics, data and images), as well as the club name, logo, emblem, stadium image and team shirt (including references to the shirt sponsors and playing attire manufacturers), free of charge and worldwide for the full duration of any rights for (a) the staging and organising of the competition (and future editions of the competition); (b) non-commercial, promotional and/or editorial purposes (including the use of such material in the multilateral production of television and media promotion and coverage of the final and on/for the UEFA digital services); and/or (c) as reasonably designated by UEFA. Any such use may occur after the competition and may include references to and/or branding of third parties, including sponsors, provided that no direct association will be made by UEFA between individual players or clubs and any partner. On request, the clubs must supply UEFA free of charge with all appropriate material as well as with the necessary documentation required to allow UEFA to use and exploit such rights in accordance with this paragraph.

Article 61 Commercial rights – qualifying round up to the semi-finals

61.01 UEFA is the exclusive, absolute legal and beneficial owner of the commercial rights.

61.02 Member associations and their affiliated organisations and/or clubs are authorised to exploit the commercial rights relating to their matches or to all matches played in the mini-tournament they are hosting. In exploiting the media rights, they must observe any instructions or guidelines issued by UEFA from time to time.

61.03 All agreements and arrangements in relation to the competition and/or for the exploitation of commercial rights regarding the competition must be presented to the UEFA administration upon request.

61.04 For the purpose of directly or indirectly promoting the competition, in particular within programming produced by or on behalf of UEFA, member associations and/or their affiliated organisations or clubs hosting a match must ensure that any third party owning rights to images of such a match grants UEFA the right to use and exploit, and authorise others to use and exploit, on a perpetual worldwide basis, by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or invented in the future, throughout the world, for the full duration of such rights, not less than 15 minutes of audio and/or visual material from this match, free of charge and without payment of any associated clearance costs. For any match where production of a signal is foreseen, the host club undertakes to provide UEFA, free of charge and at least 24 hours prior to the kick-off of the match, with access to the transmission details for receiving the broadcast signal at a location of UEFA’s choice. These broadcasts can be recorded by UEFA for purposes envisaged in this paragraph and a copy of such recordings will be made available to the host club upon request. If the signal is unavailable for whatever reason, the host club undertakes to provide UEFA with a recording of the entire match, free of charge, in HDCam (or if not available, in Digibeta) format (or such other format as may be requested by UEFA), to be sent to a destination determined by UEFA within seven days of the relevant match.

61.05 The commercial rights must be exploited in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 62 Commercial rights – final 62.01 UEFA is the exclusive owner of all commercial rights in relation to the final. UEFA expressly reserves all such commercial rights and is exclusively entitled to exploit, retain and distribute all revenues derived from the exploitation of such commercial rights.

62.02 For the final, UEFA has the exclusive right to appoint partners. Any such partners appointed by UEFA (and any other third party designated by UEFA), as well as their products and/or services, may benefit from the exclusive right to exploit certain commercial rights in and to the UEFA Women’s Champions League and its matches. The clubs must take the necessary measures to ensure implementation and enforcement of the rights granted by UEFA to partners. No club partner or other person acquiring any of the commercial rights from or through clubs may present itself as a partner of, or otherwise associate itself with, the final and/or the competition generally.

62.03 In accordance with Chapter X and the UEFA Equipment Regulations, advertising on players’ kits is exempt from the exclusivity referred to in Paragraph 62.02.

62.04 No existing contracts of any kind entered into by member associations and/or their affiliated organisations or clubs pursuant to Paragraph 61.02, including for the exploitation of audiovisual, sound-broadcasting, interactive and electronic media rights, advertising, merchandising and licensing, reserved seats or any other rights (if any) granted in relation to the training facilities will be recognised for the final.
Article 63  Responsibilities regarding media matters

63.01 Each club must appoint a dedicated English-speaking press officer to coordinate cooperation between the club, UEFA and the media in accordance with the present regulations. The club press officer must ensure that the media facilities provided by the club meet the required competition standards. The club press officer is also responsible for assisting UEFA in compiling editorial features in text or electronic format before and during the season to help promote the competition, and for providing information on team schedules and news. The club press officer must be present at all home and away matches to coordinate all media arrangements including pre-match and post-match press conferences and interviews. The visiting club’s press officer must send a full list of accreditation requests to the host club’s press officer by the Friday before the match at the latest. The club press officer must also ensure that all accreditation requests come from bona fide media.

63.02 Before the start of the season each club must, at UEFA’s request, (i) provide UEFA, free of charge, with individual player and head coach statistics and photographs, historical information and a photograph of its stadium, and any further data requested by UEFA for promotional purposes; or (ii) make all or part of the above available for UEFA to produce its own material.

63.03 Clubs must provide space for the installation of a statistical data collection system as defined by UEFA.

63.04 For further details on media matters, please refer to the relevant parts of the UEFA Women’s Champions League Club Manual.

Article 64  Media activities on the day before the match

64.01 Both clubs must make their training session on the day before the match open to the media for at least 15 minutes. The two training sessions must be arranged by the two clubs together, so that the media can attend both. In principle, the visiting club holds its official training session in the stadium where the match will take place on the day before the match. Each club may decide whether the entire training session in question or only the first or last 15 minutes are open to the media. If a club decides to make only 15 minutes open, this applies to all media. Should a club decide to open the training session for only 15 minutes and if its own official club platform crew wishes to attend the entire session, then an ENG crew from both (i) the host broadcaster and (ii) the main visiting broadcaster must be given the same opportunity. This applies for both home and away matches. Should a club allow its own photographer to attend the entire training session (of which only 15 minutes are open to the media), the club photographer must provide UEFA, upon request, with photos which UEFA will then make available to the international media. If a club does not hold a full training session on the day before the match, alternative arrangements must be made in agreement with UEFA to provide the media with access to a minimum of 15 minutes of the team’s preparation. This could include walk-arounds at the stadium.

64.02 If requested by UEFA, each club must make its head coach and one player available the day before each of its matches for a short interview with the main audiovisual rights holder of the country of the club. In addition, each club must make its head coach or a key player available to the main audiovisual rights holder of the country of the opposing club.

64.03 Each club must hold a pre-match press conference the day before the match. Each press conference must be attended by the head coach of the team and at least one player. If the head coach is suspended for the match, clubs have the option of replacing him/her at the pre-match press conference with the assistant coach. The two press conferences must be arranged by the two clubs together, so that the media can attend both. Press conferences must start between 12.00 and 20.00 local time. Exceptions to these timings must be agreed in advance with UEFA.

64.04 The press conferences must take place in the stadium where the match will be played, unless the home club wishes to stage its press conference at its training ground. A visiting club using the match stadium for its training session must make best efforts to also conduct its press conferences at the stadium within the above time window.

64.05 The host club is responsible for providing the necessary technical infrastructure and services at pre-match press conferences at the match stadium, as well as a qualified interpreter with a strong knowledge of football. If the press conferences are held in a location other than the match stadium, each club is responsible for providing the necessary technical infrastructure and services, including an interpreter, at its chosen venue. Wherever possible, simultaneous interpreting facilities must be offered. If a club organises additional pre-match media activities, such as a mixed zone, such activities may supplement but not replace the pre-match press conference.

Article 65 Matchday media activities

65.01 Interviews are not permitted during the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, pre-match, half-time and post-match interviews with each club may take place at the stadium under the following circumstances, in pre-determined locations.

a. The head coach or a player must be available before the match for a short interview with the main audiovisual rights holder from their country. This interview finishes before the end of the pre-match warm-up.

b. Interviews are allowed with players before the match but no later than the start of the warm-up, subject to their agreement.

c. A half-time interview may be conducted with the head coach or assistant coach, subject to their agreement. No players, including those on the substitutes’ bench, may be interviewed at half-time.
d. Post-match super-flash interviews are conducted after the match in a designated area located next to or on the pitch or between the pitch and the dressing rooms. The head coach or a key player, i.e. a player who had a decisive influence on the result, must be available for a minimum of one super-flash interview with the main audiovisual rights holder of the country of the club.

e. Flash interviews and indoor studio interviews are obligatory and take place after the match in a designated area close to the dressing rooms. The head coach and at least four key players must be available to satisfy interview requests from audiovisual rights holders. Clubs must ensure that the head coach and players are available for such interviews within 15 minutes of the end of the match, except in exceptional circumstances.

f. If the head coach is suspended for the match, or is sent off during the match, the club has the option of replacing him/her with the assistant coach for all obligatory matchday media activities.

g. Players selected for doping controls may conduct post-match interviews upon approval of the UEFA doping control officer and provided that the player is escorted by a chaperone appointed by the UEFA doping control officer.

65.02 The post-match press conferences at the venue must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle. The host club is responsible for providing a qualified interpreter and any technical facilities necessary. Both clubs must make their head coach available for their press conference. If their head coach is suspended for the match, clubs have the option of replacing him/her with the assistant coach.

65.03 After the match, a mixed zone must be set up between the team dressing rooms and the team transport area. This area offers reporters additional opportunities to conduct interviews and is accessible only to coaches, players and media representatives. All players from both teams that have taken part in the match, either in the starting line-up or as substitutes, are obliged to pass through the mixed zone for this purpose. The host club must ensure that the whole mixed zone is safe for players and coaches to walk through. Clubs are responsible for ensuring that the players pass through the mixed zone.

Article 66 Provisions specific to the final

66.01 The clubs participating in the final must hold a media open day, ideally in the week immediately preceding the final. The exact timings and format are agreed in advance with UEFA.

66.02 Each club competing in the final should hold its training session in the match stadium on the day before the match. The entire training session shall be open to the media.
Article 67 Media access

67.01 The host club is responsible for organising a media accreditation system (accreditation cards, bibs, etc.) and for delivering the relevant accreditations to all media representatives:
   - written press;
   - photographers;
   - audiovisual rights holders;
   - audiovisual non-rights holders.

67.02 Written press applies to media that report in writing only, for whatever platform (e.g. newspaper, website, mobile portal). They have access to the post-match press conference and mixed zone.

67.03 Photographers may work behind the advertising boards along the goal lines and, if space allows, along the touchline opposite the team benches. Photographers may only change ends at half-time or, if applicable, during the interval before the start of extra time and before kicks from the penalty mark.

67.04 Photographers may attend the pre- and post-match press conferences, subject to space restrictions. However, no photography is allowed in the mixed zone.

67.05 Audio reporters are not allowed to enter the field of play nor may they access the pitch, tunnel, dressing rooms or flash interview area. They may attend the post-match press conferences and will be granted access to the mixed zone.

67.06 No media representatives are allowed to go on to the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of the camera crew covering the team line-ups at the start of the match and up to two camera crews of the host broadcaster filming after the end of the match, including extra time and kicks from the penalty mark. The same applies to the tunnel and dressing-room area, with the exception of the pre-defined super-flash and flash interview positions, pre- and post-match indoor studio presentations and a camera of the host broadcaster filming the following activities:
   a. team arrivals as far as the dressing-room area (more than one camera may be used for this);
   b. players in the tunnel just before entering the field for the pre-match warm-up and for the start of the first and second halves;
   c. players returning from the field after the pre-match warm-up.

67.07 A limited number of photographers, cameramen and production staff of the audiovisual rights holders – all equipped with the appropriate pitch-access accreditation – are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field of play and the spectators (see Annex E).

67.08 The team dressing rooms are off limits to media representatives before, during and after the match. However, subject to each club’s prior agreement, one camera crew of the host broadcaster as well as a UEFA photographer, if present, may enter the dressing rooms of each club before the match to film the players’ shirts and equipment. The host broadcaster may also conduct a brief presentation with its main reporter or presenter in the home club’s dressing room, subject to the home club’s prior agreement. The main visiting broadcaster may conduct one brief presentation in the away club’s dressing room, subject to the prior agreement of the away club. This filming must be completed before the arrival of the players, at least two hours before kick-off.

67.09 A position in the main stand should be foreseen for a camera crew from each team to conduct technical filming. Generally they should be in a central position or a position agreed by the teams and the local press officer.

Article 68  Principles for all media

68.01 Media equipment and personnel may not obstruct the view or movement of, or cause confusion for referees, players or coaches.

68.02 All media representatives must respect the needs of other media colleagues. For example, adequate positions for photographers must be available alongside audiovisual rights-holder cameras behind the advertising boards, in principle behind each goal, and media working areas must not be disturbed during the match by audiovisual rights-holder technical personnel or photographers.

68.03 Media must respect the needs of the players and coaches. Interviews may be conducted only in areas defined and approved by UEFA. Reporters must not approach players or coaches for interviews or comments during play.

68.04 Media equipment and personnel should not obstruct the spectators’ view of the field of play. Media cameras should not record the crowd in a manner which could cause any dangerous activity.

68.05 Any media equipment and personnel must be positioned in such a way that they do not present any danger for players or the referee team. The field of play itself must always be kept free of cameras, cables and media personnel. Typical media equipment locations are set out in Annex E.

Number of teams

| 32 + 10 = 42 |

N.B.: Exact access list will be communicated in writing once all the entries have been received. Example is based on 62 clubs: 49 domestic champions plus 12 domestic runners-up plus UEFA Women’s Champions League titleholder in the case it does not qualify through its domestic championship.
Annex B – Competition System

The exact qualification path to the round of 32 depends on the number of entries for the competition. The example includes 62 clubs: 49 domestic champions and 12 domestic runners-up plus the UEFA Women’s Champion League titleholder in case it does not qualify through its domestic championship.
Annex C – 2019/20 UEFA Women's Match Calendar
Annex D – Coefficient Ranking System

D.1 System overview

UEFA calculates the coefficient of each club and association each season based on the clubs' results in the UEFA Women's Champions League. The season coefficients from the five most recent seasons are used to determine the positions of the associations in the access list (association coefficient) and to rank the clubs for seeding purposes (club coefficient).

D.2 Reference periods for rankings

The associations' positions in the 2019/20 UEFA Women's Champions League access list (Annex A) are determined on the basis of the five-season association coefficients established at the end of the 2017/18 season, i.e. the cumulative total of the associations' season coefficients from seasons 2013/14 to 2017/18 inclusive.

The five-season club coefficients for the 2019/20 UEFA Women's Champions League are established before the start of the 2019/20 season, on the basis of each club's season coefficients from seasons 2014/15 to 2018/19 inclusive.

D.3 Association coefficient calculation

The season coefficient of an association is calculated by adding up the points obtained by all its clubs in a given season, then dividing the total by the number of clubs from that association that took part in the competition.

a. Points awarded in the qualifying round:
   - 1 point for a win by an eliminated club;
   - 0.5 points for a draw by an eliminated club;
   - 0 points for a defeat.

b. Points awarded from the round of 32 onwards:
   - 2 points for a win;
   - 1 point for a draw;
   - 0 points for a defeat.

If a club refuses to enter the competition, or is excluded from or not admitted to the competition and is not replaced by another club from the same association, the association's coefficient is calculated by dividing the total number of points obtained by its clubs by the number of clubs the association was entitled to enter according to the access list.
D.4 Club coefficient calculation

The season coefficient of a club is calculated by adding the total number of points it obtains in a given season and 33% of its association's coefficient for that same season.

a. Points awarded in the qualifying round:
   - 1 point for a win by an eliminated club;
   - 0.5 points for a draw by an eliminated club;
   - 0 points for a defeat.

b. Points awarded from the round of 32 onwards:
   - 2 points for a win;
   - 1 point for a draw;
   - 0 points for a defeat.

D.5 Bonus points

Clubs which reach the round of 16, quarter-finals, semi-finals or final are awarded an extra point for each such round. In addition, three points are awarded for participation in the round of 32.

These bonus points are also included in the association coefficient calculation.

D.6 Calculation principles

Match points are awarded only for matches which have actually been played, in accordance with the final scores ratified by UEFA. Penalty shoot-outs do not count.

Coefficients are calculated to the thousandth and not rounded up.

D.7 Equal coefficients

If two or more clubs or associations are ranked equally, the following criteria are applied, in the order given, to determine their final rankings:

- their coefficients in the most recent of the seasons on which the rankings are based;
- their coefficients in the next most recent season in which they are not equal;
- drawing of lots.

D.8 Final decisions

The UEFA administration takes final decisions on any matters not provided for in these provisions.
1. Teams pre-match
2. Photographers pre-match
3. Photographers during the match
4. Pitchside halfway camera
5. 20m cameras
6. Hand-held TV camera (pre-match, line-up and post-match)
7. Steadicams during the match
8. Reverse-angle cameras
9. Additional TV cameras (reserved area of minimum 10x2m)
10. Host broadcaster cameras (only remote cameras in front of boards)
11. Substitutes’ bench
