Preamble

The following regulations have been adopted on the basis of Articles 49(2)(a) and 50(1) of the UEFA Statutes.
I – General Provisions

Article 1 Scope of application

1.01 The present regulations govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the 2020-22 UEFA European Futsal Championship (hereinafter the competition).

Article 2 Definitions

2.01 In the context of these regulations, the following definitions apply:

a. commercial rights: any and all commercial rights and opportunities in and in relation to the competition including media rights, marketing rights and data rights;

b. data rights: the right to compile and exploit statistics and other data in relation to the competition;

c. doping: the occurrence of one or more of the anti-doping rule violations set out in the UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations;

d. host association: the association organising a qualifying match or the association designated by the UEFA Executive Committee to stage the final tournament;

e. host broadcaster (HB): the media production team (including official broadcast partners), responsible among other things for the multilateral production of the television and media promotion and coverage of the competition (references to "international media", "media representatives" and other similar references include host broadcaster within their meaning);

f. marketing rights: the right to advertise, promote, endorse and market the competition; to conduct public relations activities in relation to the competition; and to exploit all advertising, sponsorship, hospitality, licensing, merchandising, publishing, betting, gaming, retailing, music and franchising opportunities and all other commercial association rights (including through ticket promotions) in relation to the competition;

g. media rights: the right to create, distribute and transmit on a linear and/or on-demand basis for reception at any time including on a live and/or delayed basis anywhere in the world by any and all means and in any and all media, whether now known or devised in the future (including all forms of television, radio, mobile, wireless and internet distribution), digital, audiovisual, visual and/or audio coverage of the competition and all associated and/or related rights, including fixed media, download and interactive rights;
h. partner: any party accepted by UEFA under contract to exercise the commercial rights, and thereby participating directly or indirectly in the financing of the competition;

i. technical zone: the technical area as defined in the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game, plus the timekeeper table, the team and referees’ dressing rooms, the players’ tunnel and the route the players and referees take from their dressing rooms to the pitch.

2.02 In the context of these regulations, any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular", "for example" or any similar expression is illustrative and does not limit the sense of the words preceding those terms.

Article 3 Frequency and entries for the competition

3.01 UEFA stages the competition every four years.

3.02 Every UEFA member association (hereinafter association) may enter its senior national futsal team for the competition.

Article 4 Admission criteria and procedure

4.01 To be eligible to participate in the competition, associations must:

a. confirm in writing that they themselves, as well as their players and officials, comply with the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game and agree to respect the statutes (including the principles of fair play as defined therein), regulations, directives and decisions of UEFA;

b. confirm in writing that they themselves, as well as their players and officials, agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in Lausanne, Switzerland, as defined in the relevant provisions of the UEFA Statutes and agree that any proceedings before the CAS concerning admission to, participation in or exclusion from the competition will be held in an expedited manner in accordance with the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration and with the directions issued by the CAS, including for provisional or super-provisional measures, to the explicit exclusion of any state court;

c. fill in the official entry documents (i.e. all documents containing the information deemed necessary by the UEFA administration for ascertaining compliance with the admission criteria), which must reach the UEFA administration within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course through a circular letter sent to all associations.

4.02 The UEFA General Secretary decides on admission to the competition. Such decisions are final.

Article 5 Duties of the associations

5.01 On entering the competition, participating associations agree:

a. to play in the competition until their elimination and to field their strongest team throughout the competition;
b. to stage and play all matches in the competition in accordance with the present regulations;
c. to comply with all decisions regarding the competition taken by the UEFA Executive Committee, the UEFA administration or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by UEFA circular letter or by official letter, fax or email);
d. to observe the Safety and Security Instructions set out in Annex B for all matches in the competition;
e. to indemnify, defend and hold UEFA and its subsidiaries and all of their officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents and other auxiliary persons free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to any non-compliance by the association or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents with these regulations;
f. to adhere to the principles governing the release of players for association teams as laid out in Annex 1, Article 1ter of the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players, and more specifically the status of futsal players as defined in Annexe 7 of these same regulations;
g. to cooperate with UEFA at any time – and in particular at the end of matches – in the collection of items from the game and players' personal items that could be used by UEFA to create a memorabilia collection to illustrate the heritage of the competition, to the exclusion of any commercial use;
h. not to represent UEFA or the competition without UEFA’s prior written approval.

Article 6 Responsibilities of the associations

6.01 If necessary, visiting associations must apply for visas from the diplomatic mission of the host country well in advance of their trip. Upon request, the host association must assist the visiting associations as much as possible with the visa formalities.

6.02 The associations are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, supporters and any person carrying out a function at a match on their behalf.

6.03 Matches must be played in halls within the territory of the host association. Exceptionally, matches may be played in the territory of another UEFA member association, if so decided by the relevant UEFA bodies, for instance for reasons of safety or as a result of a disciplinary measure.

6.04 The host association is responsible for safety and security before, during and after the match. The host association may be called to account for incidents of any kind and may be disciplined.
6.05 Minimum medical requirements concerning the provision of facilities, equipment and personnel by the host association are set out in the UEFA Medical Regulations. For the avoidance of doubt, the host association has sole responsibility for the provision and operation of any facilities and equipment required in the above-mentioned regulations.

6.06 The UEFA administration informs the associations participating in the final tournament about any further guidelines, directives or decisions related to that stage of the competition and provides them with all relevant documents in due time.

Article 7  Anti-doping

7.01 Doping is forbidden and is a punishable offence. In case of anti-doping rule violations, UEFA will instigate disciplinary proceedings against the perpetrators and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations and UEFA Anti-Doping Regulations. This may include the imposition of provisional measures.

7.02 UEFA may test any player at any time.

Article 8  Fair play

8.01 All UEFA competition matches must be played in accordance with the principles of fair play as defined in the UEFA Statutes.

8.02 Fair play assessments are conducted at all matches in the competition in accordance with the UEFA Fair Play Regulations, in order to establish association fair play rankings at the end of each season.

Article 9  Insurance

9.01 All persons involved in the competition are responsible for their own insurance cover.

9.02 The participating associations are responsible for and undertake to conclude all necessary and adequate insurance cover for their delegations, including players and officials, at their own expense for the whole duration of the competition.

9.03 The host association must ensure that the owner and the operator of a hall used provide fully comprehensive insurance cover, including third-party liability and property damage. If appropriate insurance policies are not provided by the hall owner and the hall operator in due time, the host association is required to conclude the necessary additional insurance cover at its own cost, failing which it may be concluded by UEFA at the host association’s expense.

9.04 All insurances must cover the full period of the competition, including the preparation and the post-competition phase.
9.05 Claims for damages against UEFA are expressly excluded and anyone involved must hold UEFA harmless from any and all claims for liability arising in relation to the competition. In any case, UEFA may request anyone involved to provide, free of charge, written releases of liability, hold harmless notes, confirmation and/or copies of the policies concerned in one of UEFA’s official languages.

9.06 The host association must perform an assessment of the risks involved in organising and staging matches and conclude – with reputable insurers and at its own cost – all necessary insurance to cover such risks, including third-party liability and spectator accident coverage. The host association is responsible for ensuring that UEFA is included into the policies as a co-insured party.

9.07 The third-party liability policy must include an appropriate guaranteed sum for damage/injury for all occurrences (including bad weather, force majeure and terrorism) to persons, objects, property, and for pure financial economic losses, and it must correspond to the specific circumstances of the associations concerned.

9.08 The host association of the final tournament must perform an assessment of the risks involved in organising and staging the final tournament and conclude at its own expense adequate insurance cover (including cancellation) for all of its risks arising from preparing, organising and staging the final tournament.

Article 10 Trophy, plaques and medals

10.01 The original trophy, which is used for the official presentation ceremony at the final and at other official events approved by UEFA, remains in UEFA’s keeping and ownership at all times. A full-size replica trophy, the UEFA Futsal EURO winners’ trophy, is awarded to the winning association.

10.02 Should the trophy be handed over to the host association, it must hold UEFA harmless from any possible liability with regard to potential claims for damages and must bear all related risks and responsibilities in connection with the holding and storage of the trophy. From the time the trophy is transferred by UEFA to the host association, the trophy is the full responsibility of the host association, which must obtain adequate insurance to cover its risks and responsibilities in connection with the use of the trophy and, if requested by UEFA, submit a copy of its insurance policy to UEFA.

10.03 Replica trophies awarded to winners of the competition (past and current) must remain within the relevant association’s control at all times and may not leave the association’s country without UEFA’s prior written consent. Associations must not permit a replica trophy to be used in any context where a third party (including their sponsors and other partners) is granted visibility or in any other way which could lead to an association between any third party and the trophy and/or the competition. Associations must comply with any trophy use guidelines that the UEFA administration may issue from time to time.
10.04 Associations may not, and may not permit any third party to, develop, create, use, sell or distribute any promotional materials or merchandise bearing any representation of the trophy or any replica thereof (including trophy lift images) or use any such representation in a manner that could lead to an association between any third party and the trophy and/or the competition.

10.05 The winning team is presented with 25 gold medals, the runner-up with 25 silver medals and the third-placed team with 25 bronze medals. Additional medals may not be produced.

10.06 Each association that competes in the final tournament receives a commemorative plaque.

Article 11  Intellectual property rights

11.01 UEFA is the exclusive owner of all intellectual property rights of the competition, including any current or future rights in all types of audio and visual material of the competition, names, logos, visual identities, brands, music, mascots, medals, plaques, commemorative items, trophies and certain key elements of the official match ball design. Any use of the aforementioned rights, any imitation and/or variation thereof and any other reference to the competition (such as by associating the name of an association with the date of a match) requires the prior written approval of UEFA and must comply with any conditions imposed by UEFA.

11.02 All rights to the fixture list and match schedule, as well as any data and statistics (including databases in which such data is stored) in relation to the matches of and players’ participation in the competition are the sole and exclusive property of UEFA. No tickets or accreditation may be used by anyone in order to gain access to a venue for the purposes of collecting or gathering such data, and such activities are expressly prohibited. The foregoing prohibition does not apply to the participating associations, subject to any and all such data collected being used solely for the purposes of instructing their team, players and officials and expressly excluding any other exploitation or use whatsoever.
Article 12  Competition stages and seeding

12.01 Matches in all stages of the competition are played in conformity with the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game. The half-time interval must not exceed 15 minutes.

12.02 The competition stages are as follows:
   a. Qualifying stage, composed of:
      - qualifying round (mini-tournaments),
      - qualifying round play-offs (home and away),
      - qualifying group stage (home and away),
      - play-offs (home and away);
   b. Final tournament (UEFA Futsal EURO 2022), composed of:
      - group stage;
      - quarter-finals;
      - semi-finals;
      - third-place match;
      - final.

12.03 Participating associations enter the competition as follows:
   a. The team of the final tournament host association qualifies automatically for the final tournament.
   b. The teams competing in the elite round of the qualifying competition for the FIFA Futsal World Cup start the competition in the qualifying group stage.
   c. All other teams start the competition in the qualifying round.

12.04 The UEFA administration seeds the teams for the qualifying round, qualifying group stage and final draws in accordance with the coefficients of the participating associations. Coefficients are calculated on the basis of the sporting results of the associations' senior national futsal teams (see Annex A).

Article 13  Group formation and match system – qualifying round

13.01 The qualifying round mini-tournaments, hosted by one of the participating associations, are played in nine groups of three or four teams each. The nine group winners qualify directly for the qualifying group stage, while the nine runners-up and five best third-placed teams qualify for the qualifying round play-offs (see Article 15). If the host of the final tournament qualifies for the elite round of the qualifying competition for the 2020 FIFA Futsal World Cup, the nine runners-up and seven best third-placed teams qualify for the qualifying round play-offs.

13.02 Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one for a draw and none for a defeat.
13.03 When establishing the match schedule, the host association is placed in position 1, and the visiting teams in positions 2, 3 and 4, according to their coefficient rankings.

Article 14  Equality of points – mini-tournaments

14.01 If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of a mini-tournament, the following criteria are applied, in the order given, to determine the rankings:
   a. higher number of points obtained in the mini-tournament matches played among the teams in question;
   b. superior goal difference from the mini-tournament matches played among the teams in question;
   c. higher number of goals scored in the mini-tournament matches played among the teams in question;
   d. if, after having applied criteria a) to c), teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) are reapplied exclusively to the mini-tournament matches between the teams in question to determine their final rankings. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) to i) apply;
   e. superior goal difference in all mini-tournament matches;
   f. higher number of goals scored in all mini-tournament matches;
   g. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in the mini-tournament matches (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);
   h. higher position in the UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking used for the qualifying round draw (see Annex A);
   i. drawing of lots.

14.02 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last mini-tournament match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings are determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Paragraph 21.05 and Paragraph 21.06) provided no other team within the group has the same number of points on completion of the mini-tournament. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under Paragraph 14.01 apply. This procedure is only necessary if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the team which qualifies for the next stage.

14.03 If on completion of a mini-tournament a draw is required, the lots are drawn after the final match. The draw is made by the UEFA match delegate and the heads of delegation or representatives of the teams concerned must sign a document stating that they accept the result of the draw.

14.04 To determine the best third-placed teams, only matches against the teams in first and second place in each group are taken into account if the round comprises groups of three and four. If the round consists exclusively of groups of four, matches against all other teams are taken into account. In both cases, the following criteria are applied in the order given:

a. higher number of points;
b. superior goal difference;
c. higher number of goals scored;
d. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);
e. higher position in the UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking used for the qualifying round draw (see Annex A);
f. drawing of lots.

Article 15 Play-offs

15.01 The play-offs are played according to the knockout system, with each team playing each opponent twice, once at home and once away. The team which scores the greater aggregate of goals over the two legs qualifies for the next stage of the competition. Otherwise, the provisions of Article 21 apply.

15.02 The ties for the qualifying round play-offs and play-offs are determined by means of a draw. In each tie, the team drawn first plays their first leg at home.

15.03 For the qualifying round play-offs, runners-up in principle play the second leg at home. However, a certain number of runners-up join the best third-placed teams. If a team is drawn against a team it has already met in the qualifying round, it will be transferred to the next available slot, thereby preventing these two teams from meeting again.

15.04 The tie for the play-offs to determine the remaining team participating in the final tournament is determined by means of an open draw.

Article 16 Group formation and match system – qualifying group stage

16.01 The associations participating in the qualifying group stage are drawn into eight groups of four teams.

16.02 All matches in the qualifying group stage are played according to the league system, with each team playing one home match and one away match against each of the other teams in its group. Three points are awarded for a win, one for a draw, and none for a defeat.

16.03 The following match sequence applies for the qualifying group stage:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Matchday 1</th>
<th>Matchday 4</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2 v 3</td>
<td>1 v 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 v 1</td>
<td>4 v 2</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Matchday 2</th>
<th>Matchday 5</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 v 2</td>
<td>3 v 2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 v 4</td>
<td>1 v 4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Matchday 3</th>
<th>Matchday 6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3 v 1</td>
<td>2 v 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 v 4</td>
<td>4 v 3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
On completion of the qualifying group stage, final group standings are compiled based on the number of points obtained by each team in the group. The eight group winners and the six best group runners-up qualify directly for the final tournament. The two remaining runners-up contest play-offs to determine the remaining finalist (see Article 15).

Article 17 Equality of points – qualifying group stage

17.01 If two or more teams in the same group are equal on points on completion of the qualifying group stage, the following criteria are applied, in the order given, to determine their rankings:

a. higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question;

b. superior goal difference from the group matches played among the teams in question;

c. higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question;

d. higher number of away goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question;

e. if, after having applied criteria a) to d), teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to d) are reapplied exclusively to the group matches between the remaining teams to determine their final rankings. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria f) to l) apply in the order given to the two or more teams still equal;

f. superior goal difference in all group matches;

g. higher number of goals scored in all group matches;

h. higher number of away goals scored in all group matches;

i. higher number of wins in all group matches;

j. higher number of away wins in all group matches;

k. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in all group matches (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

l. higher position in the UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking used for the qualifying group stage draw (see Annex A).

17.02 To compare the rankings between the qualifying groups and to determine the six best runners-up, the following criteria are applied in the order given:

a. higher number of points;

b. superior goal difference;

c. higher number of goals scored;

d. higher number of away goals scored;

e. higher number of wins;

f. higher number of away wins;
g. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in all group matches (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

h. higher position in the UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking used for the qualifying group stage draw.

Article 18  Group formation – final tournament

18.01 By means of a draw, the UEFA administration allocates the 16 teams that qualify for the final tournament into four groups of four teams each.

18.02 The UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking is used to seed the teams for the final draw. The host association being A1, the four groups are formed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Group A</th>
<th>Group B</th>
<th>Group C</th>
<th>Group D</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A1</td>
<td>B1</td>
<td>C1</td>

<td>A3</td>
<td>B3</td>
<td>C3</td>
<td>D3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A4</td>
<td>B4</td>
<td>C4</td>
<td>D4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Article 19  Match system – final tournament

19.01 Each team plays each of the other teams in the group once, with three points awarded for a win, one for a draw and none for a defeat.

19.02 The final tournament group stage is played according to the schedule below. The last two matches in each group must kick-off at the same time. The first-named team is considered as the home team.

Article 20  Equality of points - final tournament group stage

20.01 If two or more teams in the same group are equal on points on completion of the group stage, the following criteria are applied, in the order given, to determine their rankings:

- a. higher number of points obtained in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- b. superior goal difference from the group matches played among the teams in question;
- c. higher number of goals scored in the group matches played among the teams in question;
- d. if, after having applied criteria a) to c), teams still have an equal ranking, criteria a) to c) are reapplied exclusively to the group matches between the remaining teams to determine their final rankings. If this procedure does not lead to a decision, criteria e) to h) apply in the order given to the two or more teams still equal;
- e. superior goal difference in all group matches;
- f. higher number of goals scored in all group matches;
g. lower disciplinary points total based only on yellow and red cards received in all group matches (red card = 3 points, yellow card = 1 point, expulsion for two yellow cards in one match = 3 points);

h. higher position in the UEFA senior national futsal team coefficient ranking used for the final draw.

20.02 If two teams which have the same number of points and the same number of goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, their final rankings are determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Paragraph 21.05 and Paragraph 21.06), provided that no other teams within the group have the same number of points on completion of all group matches. Should more than two teams have the same number of points, the criteria listed under Paragraph 20.01 apply. This procedure is only necessary if a ranking of the teams is required to determine the teams qualified for the quarter-finals.

Article 21  Away goals rule, extra time and kicks from the penalty mark 21.01 For play-off matches, if the two teams involved in a tie score the same number of goals over the two legs, the team which scores more away goals qualifies for the next stage. If this procedure does not produce a result, i.e. if both teams score the same number of goals at home and away, two 5-minute periods of extra time are played at the end of the second leg. If, during extra time, both teams score the same number of goals, away goals count double (i.e. the visiting team qualifies). If no goals are scored during extra time, kicks from the penalty mark determine which team qualifies for the next stage.

21.02 If the result stands as a draw at the end of normal playing time in a quarter-final, a semi-final or the final, extra time consisting of two 5-minute periods of effective time is played. If the two teams are still equal after extra time, the winner is determined by kicks from the penalty mark (see Paragraph 21.05 and Paragraph 21.06).

21.03 If the result stands as a draw at the end of normal playing time in the third-place match, no extra time is played. Kicks from the penalty mark determine the winning team (see Paragraph 21.05 and Paragraph 21.06).

21.04 If extra time is required, there is a five-minute break between the end of normal time and the start of extra time. As a rule, the players remain on the field of play during this five-minute break, at the discretion of the referee.

21.05 Kicks from the penalty mark are taken in accordance with the procedure laid down in the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game.

21.06 The referee decides which goal will be used for the kicks:
   a. If either goal could be used for the kicks, then, in the presence of the two captains, the referee tosses a coin to decide which goal will be used.
   b. For reasons of safety/security, state of the field of play, lighting or other similar reasons, the referee may decide which goal will be used without tossing a coin. Such decisions are final.
III – Match Scheduling

Article 22  Mini-tournament host selection

22.01 Associations wishing to host a mini-tournament must notify the UEFA administration in writing on the relevant form by the entry deadline.

22.02 In principle, for the qualifying round, the UEFA administration decides on the mini-tournament hosts before the corresponding draw, according to the following principles:
   a. If there are more associations interested in hosting a mini-tournament than there are mini-tournaments to allocate, the following criteria apply:
      – quality of the infrastructure (e.g. halls);
      – travel distances;
      – promotional concept;
      – previous experience as a host;
      – development of futsal.
   b. If there are fewer associations interested than there are mini-tournaments to allocate, the UEFA administration identifies potential hosts and designates them, again applying the above-mentioned criteria.

22.03 Should it not be possible to designate mini-tournament hosts before the draw, the associations in the group(s) concerned must agree, within a set time after the draw, which of them will host the mini-tournament(s) in question. If the associations cannot agree, the UEFA administration will conduct a draw for this purpose.

Article 23  Match dates and fixtures

23.01 All matches are played within the FIFA Futsal International Calendar windows between January 2020 and October 2021.

For the qualifying round, matches must be played on the following fixed dates:
   – 29, 30 January and 1 February 2020

For the following stages, matches must be completed by the end of the following windows:
   ● Qualifying round play-offs
      – April 2020
   ● Qualifying group stage
      – MD1 & MD2: February 2021
      – MD3 & MD4: April 2021
      – MD5 & MD6: September 2021
• Play-offs
  – October 2021
• Final tournament
  – 19 January-6 February 2022

23.02 For the qualifying round, four-team mini-tournaments must be organised according to the following schedule:

23.04 The dates for the play-off matches must be agreed between the two associations concerned within four working days following the play-off draws. If no agreement can be reached the UEFA administration will take a decision which is final.

23.05 Qualifying group stage matches must not be scheduled earlier than the third day of the FIFA futsal international calendar window. There should be at least two rest days between matches.

23.06 If associations are unable to reach an agreement on the match dates for the qualifying group stage, the UEFA administration takes a final decision.

23.07 The final tournament match schedule will guarantee each team a rest period of at least 36 hours between matches.
24.01 Qualifying stage venues must be fixed and entered in the designated UEFA online system by the host association at least 60 days before the start of the mini-tournament or match (and no more than four days after the play-off draws).

24.02 When fixing a venue, the host association must take into account the length of the journey to be undertaken by the visiting team(s). In principle, venues must be no more than a two-hour bus drive from the nearest international airport in mini-tournaments and no more than 90-minutes for single matches. Match hall must be located no more than a one-hour bus drive from the hotel(s), unless agreed otherwise by the visiting team(s).

24.03 Any objection by a visiting association regarding a selected venue must be communicated to the UEFA administration, with the host association in copy, within three days of the venue being confirmed by UEFA. The UEFA administration will take a final decision, confirming the venue or requesting that the host association propose another in accordance with these regulations.

24.04 If, at any time during the season, the UEFA administration deems that, for whatever reason, a venue may not be fit for staging a match, it may consult with the host association and ask it to propose an alternative venue, in accordance with UEFA’s requirements. Should an association not be able to propose an acceptable alternative venue by the deadline set by the UEFA administration, UEFA may select an alternative neutral venue and make all the necessary arrangements for the staging of the match with the relevant association and local authorities. In both cases, the costs of staging the match must be borne by the association originally appointed as host. The UEFA administration takes a final decision on such match venue in due time.

24.05 Kick-off times must be fixed and entered online by the host association at least 30 days before the mini-tournament or match (and no more than seven days after the play-off draws).

24.06 For reasons of sporting fairness, on the last matchday in the qualifying round, the UEFA administration may require that, in all groups, all first matches and all second matches kick off at the same time.

24.07 For reasons of sporting fairness, the last matches in the qualifying group stage must take place on the same day, and the UEFA administration is entitled to order these matches to be played at the same time.

24.08 Unless the UEFA administration grants special approval, associations are not allowed to fix kick-off times before 11.00 or after 22.00 (local time).

24.09 In halls without any proper warm-up area, and in the case of two consecutive matches, the host must leave at least 2 hours 15 minutes between each kick-off.
Article 25  Team arrivals and departures

25.01 Teams must arrive at the venue one day before the match and two days before the start of the final tournament.

25.02 Visiting teams should depart the day after their (last) match.

25.03 Unless they agree otherwise with the host association or UEFA, teams arriving earlier (i.e. more than one night before the start of a mini-tournament or match or more than two nights before the start of the final tournament) or departing later (i.e. more than one day after their last match) are responsible for the extra costs incurred as a result of their early arrival or late departure.

Article 26  Changes to the match schedule

26.01 If any doubt arises as to whether a match can take place as scheduled, the association concerned must immediately notify the UEFA administration. The latter decides if the match is confirmed as scheduled or if any change has to be made concerning the venue, date or kick-off time. Such decision by the UEFA administration is final.

26.02 The referee decides if a match cannot start or if a match which has started must be abandoned. This decision is made after consultation with the UEFA match delegate and, when possible, the UEFA administration.

26.03 If there are fewer than three players on either of the teams, the match is not played or is abandoned.

26.04 In all cases, decisions taken on the basis of this article are without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures.

Article 27  Rescheduling of matches

27.01 If a match cannot start or cannot be played in full, the full or remaining match time is, as a rule, played on the next day, without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures. For that purpose, the host associations must conclude all the necessary agreements to ensure that the required facilities are available and can be operated.

27.02 If the match cannot be rescheduled the next day, the UEFA administration fixes a new date.

27.03 As a rule, a rescheduled match is played at the same venue. If the circumstances require a change of venue, the UEFA administration must approve the alternative venue.

27.04 In all cases, the UEFA administration must approve the venue and fix the new kick-off time taking account of the teams’ needs wherever possible.
27.05 If an association is responsible for the rescheduling of all or part of a match, that association bears its own expenses, as well as any additional travel, board and lodging expenses of the other association, of the referee team and the match officers, without prejudice to any possible disciplinary measures.

27.06 If the match is rescheduled through no fault of either association, each party bears its own expenses related to the original fixture and the rescheduled match or remaining match time.

27.07 In all cases, decisions taken by the UEFA administration on the basis of this article are final.

27.08 If the referee decides to abandon the match, the remaining match time must be played according to the following principles:
   a. The match sheet may contain any players registered for the match in accordance with Paragraph 41.01, with the exception of players sent off during the abandoned match as well as players suspended for the abandoned match.
   b. Any sanctions imposed before the match was abandoned remain valid for the remainder of the match.
   c. Single yellow cards imposed before the match was abandoned are not carried forward to any other matches before the abandoned match is completed.
   d. Players sent off during the abandoned match cannot be replaced and the number of players in the starting line-up remains as it was when the match was abandoned.
   e. Players who were suspended following a match played after the abandoned match in question can be included on the match sheet.
   f. The match must restart on the same spot where the abandoned match action occurred (i.e. free-kick, kick-in, goal clearance, corner kick, penalty, etc.). If the match was stopped during the normal flow of the game, a dropped ball on the spot where it was abandoned shall be used to restart.

Article 28  Refusal to play and similar cases

28.01 If an association refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full, the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body takes a decision in the matter.

28.02 The UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body can validate the result as it stood at the moment when the match was abandoned if the match result was to the detriment of the association responsible for the match being abandoned.

28.03 If an association is disqualified during the competition, the results of all of its matches are declared null and void, and the points awarded forfeited.

28.04 If an association that has qualified for the final tournament does not compete, the UEFA administration may replace it and, if so, decide which association takes its place according to the results achieved by the associations eliminated previously.
28.05 An association which refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from UEFA.

28.06 Upon receipt of a reasoned and well-documented request from the aggrieved association(s), the UEFA administration may set an amount of compensation due for financial loss.
IV – Hall Infrastructure

Article 29  Halls

29.01 Halls must be in good condition in terms of both their playing surface and their facilities. They must fully comply with the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game and conform to the safety and security regulations of the competent civil authorities.

29.02 UEFA recommends a wooden playing surface in this competition.

29.03 The total hall capacity must be at least 1000 seats in the qualifying round and qualifying round play-offs and 1,500 in the qualifying group stage and play-offs.

29.04 The goal nets must be attached in such a way that the ball cannot rebound out of the goal. If necessary, an additional net may be placed inside the goal no less than 70cm from the crossbar.

29.05 Temporary stands may not be used.

29.06 Halls used for a mini-tournament must be reserved exclusively for the competition for the duration of the mini-tournament.

29.07 The host association must provide pitch access that guarantees the safe entry and exit of players and match officials.

29.08 Each host association is responsible for:
   a. inspecting every hall concerned and submitting the corresponding online form confirming to the UEFA administration that each hall meets the criteria laid out in Annex B;
   b. confirming to the UEFA administration that the hall, including its facilities (emergency lighting system, first aid facilities, protection against intrusion by spectators into the playing area, etc.), has been thoroughly inspected by the competent public authorities and that the latter have confirmed in writing that the hall meets all the safety requirements laid down by the applicable national law.

29.09 The UEFA administration makes decisions on each hall on the basis of the above form and confirmation, and any other information gathered by UEFA. Such decisions are final.

Article 30  Scoreboards

30.01 Each hall must have a modern scoreboard to provide spectators, players and officials with the following accurate information:
   a. names of both teams;
   b. time remaining in any period, counting down in minutes, seconds and tenths of seconds from 20.00.0 to 00.00.0;
   c. remaining penalty time to be served by up to two players on each team, counting down from 02.00 to 00.00;
d. score;
e. time-outs, counting down from 01.00 to 00.00;
f. accumulated fouls.

Article 31 Lighting

31.01 Matches must be played in halls equipped with a lighting system that provides a standard lighting level of Ev (lux) 1,200 to ensure ideal conditions for broadcast activities.

31.02 For the final tournament, a minimum lighting level of Ev (lux) 1,800 is required. The host association must provide UEFA with a valid lighting certificate.

31.03 In addition, an emergency lighting system of at least Ev (lux) 1,000 should be available, ensuring that a match can be completed even in the event of a power failure.

Article 32 Screens

32.01 The results of other matches can be shown on the scoreboard and/or giant screen during the match, and simultaneous transmissions and replays are authorised for press monitors and closed-circuit channels. In addition, simultaneous transmissions, replays and delayed footage of the match being played may be transmitted on the hall’s giant screen provided that the host association has obtained all the necessary third-party permission to transmit such footage, including permission from the UEFA match delegate, the host broadcaster producing the live international feed of the match and any relevant local authorities. However, the host association must ensure that replays and delayed footage are shown on the giant screen during the match only when the ball is out of play and/or during the half-time interval, time-outs and/or the break before extra time or kicks from the penalty mark (if any). Moreover, the association must ensure that any footage shown on the giant screen under no circumstances includes any images that:

- a. may have an impact on the playing of the match;
- b. may be reasonably considered as controversial insofar as they are likely to encourage or incite any form of crowd disorder;
- c. may display any public disorder, civil disobedience or any commercial and/or offensive material within the crowd or on the pitch; or
- d. may be deemed to criticise, undermine or damage the reputation, standing or authority of any player, referee and/or other party at the hall (including any images that are aimed at highlighting, directly or indirectly, any fault committed by a player, potential mistake of a referee and/or any behaviour which is contrary to the principle of fair play).
32.02 Simultaneous or delayed transmissions on public screens outside the hall in which a match is played (e.g. in another hall of the host association or in a public place anywhere) may be authorised, subject to:
   a. a licence being granted by the host association,
   b. authorisation being granted by the rights-holding broadcaster in the territory of the screening and the public authorities.

32.03 The UEFA administration determines the conditions governing all scoreboard and giant screen transmissions during the final tournament.
V – Match Organisation

Article 33  Match equipment

33.01 Balls must comply with the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game as well as with the UEFA Equipment Regulations.

33.02 For matches and training sessions during the final tournament, balls are supplied by UEFA.

33.03 No form of commercial advertising, whether real or virtual, is permitted on the goals or goal nets from the time the teams enter the field of play until they have left it at half-time or from the time the teams re-enter the field of play until the end of the match. Similarly, no extraneous equipment (such as cameras and microphones) may be attached to the goals or nets.

33.04 The UEFA European Futsal Championship centre board must be installed at all matches in the competition and positioned centrally in front of the main camera.

33.05 Substances that could affect or damage the playing surface or endanger the physical integrity of players are prohibited.

Article 34  Training sessions

34.01 Teams are allowed to train in the match hall the day before the match. The length of the training session may not exceed one hour, unless agreed otherwise with the host association. In the final tournament, UEFA takes the final decision on the length of the training sessions.

34.02 Should all visiting associations agree, additional training sessions can take place in the match hall. If not, the visiting associations may hold additional training sessions at a location to be agreed on with the host association.

34.03 The referee team may train on the pitch on which the match will be played the day before the match.

Article 35  Ticketing

35.01 Host associations must make at least 5% of the total hall capacity available for each visiting team for their supporters. In addition to these purchase tickets, an adequate number of complimentary tickets, to be fixed by mutual agreement, must be set aside for the visiting team(s).

35.02 The official UEFA representatives and at least three representatives of the participating teams must be provided with complimentary top-category seats (and associated hospitality) in the VIP sector.
Article 36  Venue data coordinator

36.01 The host association must ensure that the venue data coordinator (VDC) appointed by UEFA to gather live data during the match is provided with:

a. a commentary position (or an equivalent position) with dedicated broadband internet access, which needs to be in place from the morning of the match until 90 minutes after the final whistle; and

b. an accreditation permitting access to the referees' dressing room.
VI – Match Procedures

Article 37 Match sheet

37.01 Before each match, each team must indicate on the match sheet the numbers, full names, dates of birth and, if applicable, shirt names of the 14 players in the squad, together with the full names of the officials seated on the substitutes’ bench. The match sheet must be validated by the competent association official.

37.02 The numbers on the players’ shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the match sheet, on which the goalkeepers and team captain must also be identified.

37.03 Both teams must submit their validated match sheets at least 60 minutes before kick-off.

37.04 The maximum number of substitutes permitted per team is nine. The number of substitutions permitted during a match is unlimited. No substitutions are allowed during time-outs.

37.05 After the validated match sheets have been submitted no changes are allowed. Before the match has kicked off, the following exceptions are possible:

a. If any of the players indicated on the match sheet as forming the starting five cannot start the match due to physical incapacity, he may be replaced by one of the substitutes listed on the match sheet. The replaced player is taken off the match sheet and the quota of substitute players is reduced accordingly for the match in question.

b. If any of the substitutes listed on the match sheet cannot be fielded due to physical incapacity, he will be removed from the match sheet and the number of substitute players is reduced accordingly for the match in question.

c. If a goalkeeper listed on the match sheet cannot be fielded due to physical incapacity, he may be replaced by another goalkeeper from the list of 25 players.

The association concerned must, upon request, provide the UEFA administration with the necessary medical certificates.

Article 38 Match protocol

38.01 The UEFA, FIFA and UEFA Respect flags, as well as the national team flags, must be flown horizontally in the hall at all matches in the competition.
The following countdown must be respected and may be adapted only to take into account the distance between the dressing rooms and the pitch and the duration of the national anthems.

Both teams must be at the hall at least 75 minutes before kick-off.

The futsal walk-on music provided by UEFA must be played as the teams enter the field of play until they have lined up, at which point the national anthems of the teams must be played.

At all matches in the competition, the players are invited to shake hands with their opponents and the referee team after the line-up ceremony as well as after the final whistle, as a gesture of fair play.

Article 39  Rules governing the technical area

Six team officials, one of whom must be a team doctor, and a maximum of nine substitute players are allowed to sit on the substitutes’ bench, i.e. a total of 15 people. The names of these people and their functions must be listed on the match sheet. Suspended players are not allowed to warm up or to sit on the bench on matchdays.

The use of any electronic communication equipment and/or systems is regulated by the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game and the relevant instructions issued.

Smoking is not allowed inside the hall.
VII – Player Registration

Article 40  Player eligibility

40.01 Each association must select players for its national representative team who hold the nationality of its country and who comply with the provisions of Articles 5 to 8 of the Regulations Governing the Application of the FIFA Statutes.

40.02 Each player taking part in the competition must be in possession of a valid passport or identity card of the country for which he is playing, containing a photograph and giving full particulars of his date of birth (day, month, year). Otherwise, he will not be allowed to take part in the competition. The referee or the UEFA match delegate may ask to see the passports/identity cards of the players listed on the match sheet.

40.03 All players must undergo a medical examination to the extent provided for by the UEFA Medical Regulations.

40.04 The UEFA administration decides on questions of player eligibility. Challenged decisions are dealt with by the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body.

Article 41  Player lists

41.01 Each association must provide the UEFA administration with a list of 25 players (surnames, first names, club and date of birth) as well as the surname, first name and date of birth of the head coach. Three of these 25 players must be goalkeepers. This list must be completed online by 24.00CET seven days before the mini-tournament or match, with a signed print-out submitted by 12.00CET the next day.

41.02 Only 14 of the players on the list of 25 will be eligible to play in each round of the competition. The shortlist of 14 players, two of whom must be goalkeepers, must be submitted online by 15.00CET the day before the mini-tournament or match and two days before the first match in the final tournament. A signed copy of this list must be handed to the UEFA match delegate at the organisational meeting (or upon arrival in the case of three-team mini-tournaments) and to the UEFA administration at the heads of delegation meeting for the final tournament. In addition, the lists must include the confirmation by the team’s doctor that all players have undergone the requested medical examination; the team’s doctor is solely responsible for ensuring that the requested players’ medical examination has been duly performed.

41.03 For identification purposes, UEFA match delegates may make a visual check of each player participating in the competition. As a rule, one such visual check takes place at a mealtime at the team’s accommodation before the first match in each mini-tournament and in the final tournament.
41.04 In mini-tournaments or the final tournament, a maximum of one outfield player named on the list of 14 may be replaced by another player from the list of 25, upon submission of written medical evidence of illness or injury in one of UEFA’s official languages no later than 09.00CET on the day of the relevant match. The replaced player can take no further part in the tournament and no other outfield player may be replaced. In cases of particular hardship and upon reasoned request, the UEFA General Secretary may grant exceptions.

41.05 If an association cannot count on the services of at least two goalkeepers registered on the list of 14 players because of injury or illness, the association concerned may temporarily replace the goalkeeper(s) concerned on the list of 14 at any time during the competition, upon submission to the UEFA match delegate of written medical evidence of illness or injury in one of UEFA’s official languages. The replacement goalkeeper(s) must be taken from the list of 25. Only if there is no eligible goalkeeper left on the list of 25 may another be registered. The association must provide UEFA with the necessary medical evidence. UEFA may require further medical examination of the goalkeeper(s) by an expert appointed by the UEFA administration at the cost of the association. Once an injured or ill goalkeeper is fit to be fielded again he can resume his position in place of his nominated substitute. Any such changes must be announced to the UEFA administration at least 24 hours before the next match in which the goalkeeper is due to play.

41.06 The associations are responsible for ensuring that the aforementioned provisions concerning player eligibility and lists of players are observed.
VIII – Refereeing

Article 42  Referee team and referee liaison officer

42.01 The General Terms and Conditions for Referees officiating at UEFA Matches apply to the referee teams appointed for the competition.

42.02 The referee team is composed of a first referee, a second referee, a third official, a timekeeper and, when appointed, a reserve assistant referee. Only referees from the official FIFA list of futsal referees are eligible.

42.03 The referees are taken care of by a referee liaison officer, who is an official representative of the host association.

42.04 Directly after the match, the referee validates the official match report.

Article 43  Appointment and replacement of referees

43.01 The Referees Committee appoints the referee team for each match. For each match, UEFA appoints a first and second referee and a third official. The host association must appoint an official timekeeper in the qualifying stage and must cover all the costs related to the timekeeper (e.g. daily allowances, travel costs, board and lodging). If deemed necessary, the UEFA match delegate is empowered to use a neutral referee to act as a timekeeper at any time during the competition.

43.02 UEFA arranges for the referee team to arrive at the venue the day before the qualifying stage match or mini-tournament, or three days before the final tournament. If a member of the referee team does not arrive at the venue by then, the UEFA administration and the teams must be informed immediately. The Referees Committee takes the appropriate decisions, which are final.

43.03 If a first or second referee becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, in principle the third official replaces him. This is decided on a case-by-case basis by the UEFA administration in cooperation with the Referees Committee. Such decisions are final.

Article 44  Procedure in case of severe injury to players

44.01 In the event of a suspected concussion the referee stops the game to allow the injured player to be assessed by the team doctor, in accordance with Law 5 of the FIFA Futsal Laws of the Game. In principle this should take no more than three minutes, unless a serious incident requires the player to be treated on the field of play or immobilised on the field for immediate transfer to hospital (e.g. spinal injury).

44.02 Any player suffering a head injury that requires assessment for potential concussion will only be allowed to continue playing after the assessment, on specific confirmation by the team doctor to the referee of the player's fitness to do so.
Article 45 UEFA Disciplinary Regulations

45.01 The provisions of the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations apply for all disciplinary offences committed by associations, officials, members or other individuals exercising a function at a match on behalf of an association, unless the present regulations stipulate otherwise.

Article 46 Yellow and red cards

46.01 As a rule, a player who is sent off the field of play is suspended for the next match in the competition. Red-card suspensions that cannot be served during the competition are carried forward to the FIFA Futsal World Cup. In case of serious offences, the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body is entitled to augment this punishment, including by extending it to other competitions.

46.02 In case of repeated cautions:
   a. in the qualifying stage, a player is suspended for the next competition match after two cautions in two different matches, as well as after the fourth and any subsequent caution;
   b. in the final tournament, a player is suspended for the next competition match after two cautions in two different matches.

46.03 Cautions and pending yellow card suspensions expire on completion of the qualifying round play-offs and are not carried forward to the qualifying group stage.

46.04 Cautions and pending yellow card suspensions expire on completion of the qualifying stage. They are not carried forward to the final tournament.

46.05 Single cautions from matches in the final tournament that have not resulted in a suspension expire on completion of the quarter-finals. They are not carried forward to the semi-finals.

46.06 Cautions and pending yellow-card suspensions from the final tournament expire at the end of the competition.
Article 47  Protests and appeals

47.01  Protests and declarations of the intention to appeal against a decision by the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body must be lodged in accordance with the relevant provisions of the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations, with the exception of the following deadlines being applicable to the final tournament:

a. a protest must reach the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body within 12 hours of the end of the match in question;

b. a declaration of the intention to appeal against the decision by the UEFA Control, Ethics and Disciplinary Body must be lodged within 24 hours of notification of the relevant decision with grounds.
Article 48  Playing attire approval

48.01 The UEFA Equipment Regulations apply to all matches in the competition, unless specified otherwise in these regulations.

48.02 For the qualifying competition, participating associations must use playing attire that has been approved by the UEFA administration beforehand. Samples of any new playing attire to be used must be sent to the UEFA administration for approval at least four weeks before its intended use.

48.03 For the final tournament, playing and non-playing attire and special equipment used by the players, goalkeepers and flying goalkeepers must be sent to the UEFA administration by 30 September 2021. The teams participating in the play-offs must send photos of all playing and non-playing attire by 30 September 2021 and the qualified team must send samples by 29 October 2021. The UEFA administration will then issue a written decision approving or rejecting the various items.

Article 49  Colours

49.01 Teams must take all approved playing attires to every match. The home team has the first choice as to which of its official playing attires it wears. If the associations are unable to agree on the playing attire to be worn by their teams, the UEFA administration will take a decision.

49.02 The playing attire agreement for each match will be sent by UEFA to all teams participating in the final tournament.

49.03 If, on the day of a match, the referee is of the opinion that the colours of the two teams could be confused, they will be changed. Such decisions, taken by the referee in consultation with the UEFA match delegate and the UEFA administration, are final.

49.04 Any outfield player replacing the goalkeeper and playing as a flying goalkeeper must wear the exact same goalkeeper’s shirt, but with the outfield player’s own number on the back.

Article 50  Numbers and names

50.01 The players must wear set numbers between 1 and 20. The numbers on the back of the shirts must correspond with the numbers indicated on the official player list. If the number 1 is used, it must be worn by a goalkeeper. No number may be used by more than one player in the course of each round of the qualifying stage or the final tournament.
For the final tournament, players’ names and numbers are compulsory on the back of the shirts. Numbers must also appear on the front of the shirts (at chest height) and/or on the front of the shorts.

Article 51 Badges

51.01 For the final tournament, the competition badge must appear on the free zone of the right shirt sleeve.

51.02 The reigning titleholder must wear the titleholder badge (instead of the competition badge) positioned in the centre of the free zone on the right shirt sleeve.

51.03 The UEFA Respect badge must be worn on the free zone of the left shirt sleeve.

51.04 None of the badges may be used in any other competition, or for any other purpose, including commercial or promotional activities, without UEFA’s prior approval.

Article 52 Equipment used in the hall

52.01 Any protective equipment used by players (elbow pads, knee pads, helmets, face masks, soft casts, etc.) must be of a single colour, in principle the same colour as the shirt. It must not contain any manufacturer or sponsor logos or any other words or image.

52.02 For the final tournament, the special equipment provided to each participating association must be used, to the exclusion of any similar items.

52.03 Captain’s armbands branded with a UEFA social responsibility campaign must be worn if provided by UEFA.

52.04 For the final tournament, only warm-up bibs provided by UEFA may be used during official training sessions, for pre-match warm-ups and for substitute players’ warm-ups.

52.05 For the final tournament, all non-playing attire and all special equipment used in the hall and not provided by UEFA must be free of sponsor advertising or manufacturer identification except where expressly stated otherwise the UEFA Equipment Regulations. This provision applies to:

a. to any training session taking place in the match hall;

b. to any official media activities (in particular interviews, press conferences and appearances in the mixed zone);

c. to any event held at the match hall, from arrival until departure from the hall.

Article 53 Financial rules – whole competition

53.01 The amounts paid by UEFA are gross amounts. As such they cover any and all taxes, levies and charges.

53.02 Any dispute regarding settlement of accounts will be decided by the UEFA administration.

53.03 The host association pays the cost of the board and lodging of the referee team, the UEFA match delegate, the UEFA referee observer and any other appointed official, as well as their transport costs within the territory of the association concerned. The international travel expenses and daily allowances of these persons are borne by UEFA.

Article 54 Financial rules – qualifying stage

54.01 The host association’s obligations commence one day before the match or the first match of a mini-tournament and end one day after the match or the last match of a mini-tournament.

54.02 In principle, the host association retains its match-related earnings and bears all organisational costs (including any taxes, levies and charges).

54.03 The host association pays the cost of the board and lodging of the referee team, the UEFA match delegate, the UEFA referee observer and any other appointed official, as well as their transport costs within the territory of the association concerned. The international travel expenses and daily allowances of these persons are borne by UEFA.

54.04 The host association appoints a timekeeper and is responsible for any travel expenses and daily allowances in this respect.

54.05 In the qualifying round, the host association bears the following costs for the visiting teams:
- board and lodging in a high standard four-star hotel for a maximum of 21 persons per delegation;
- local transport;
- laundry service for the match playing attire of the participating teams and referees.

54.06 To assist in covering the costs of the mini-tournament UEFA makes the following contributions:
- €10,000 per mini-tournament participant;
- an additional contribution based on the host country’s gross national income per capita, according to the categorisation of the UEFA member associations:
  - €10,000 for a category 1 host country;
– €12,500 for a category 2 host country;
– €15,000 for a category 3 host country.

54.07 For the qualifying round, visiting associations cover their own international travel expenses to and from the venue. UEFA compensates each association with the amount of €10,000 towards the team’s international travel costs.

54.08 For the qualifying group stage and play-offs, the visiting association bears its own travel, board and lodging costs, unless the associations concerned agree otherwise.

54.09 For the qualifying group stage, each association receives a single contribution of €10,000 towards the team’s international travel costs.

Article 55 Financial rules – final tournament

55.01 The financial provisions for the final tournament are defined in the contract between UEFA and the host association.

55.02 UEFA organises and covers the costs of the following for each of the participating associations as from two days before the start of the tournament until one day after their team has been eliminated, or one day after the end of the tournament for the semi-finalists:
   a. board and lodging (maximum of 21 people per delegation);
   b. local transport within the territory of the host country;
   c. laundry service for playing attire (i.e. shirts, shorts and socks, but not tracksuits).

55.03 Each association taking part in the tournament pays:
   a. the travel expenses of its delegation to and from the tournament venue or city;
   b. any costs arising from having additional delegation members;
   c. any costs arising from early arrival or delayed departure;
   d. expenses arising from the compulsory accident and travel insurance taken out for players and officials taking part in the final tournament;
   e. additional costs arising from special board and lodging requests.
Article 56  Commercial rights – general

56.01 Participating associations may not use or authorise any third party to use any of the competition trademarks or music or any graphic material or artistic forms developed in connection with the competition in programmes, promotions, publications or advertising or otherwise without the prior written consent of UEFA. In addition, participating associations may not develop, use, register, adopt or create any mark, logo or symbol which refers to the competition or which, in UEFA’s reasonable opinion, is confusingly similar to, is a colourable imitation of, is a derivation of, or unfairly competes with such trademarks, materials or forms.

56.02 In the event that the host association puts in place a ticketing programme for its matches, the host association shall ensure that, as a minimum, the ticketing terms and conditions for those matches stipulate that:

a. no person may conduct any promotional or commercial activity in the match hall, without the prior written approval of UEFA;

b. tickets must not be used for any commercial purposes such as for promotion, advertising, use as a prize in a competition/sweepstake, or as part of a hospitality or travel package without the prior written approval of UEFA;

c. all people attending the match acknowledge that use may be made (free of charge) of their voice, image and/or likeness in still images and audio/visual transmissions relating to the match (this acknowledgement is required even if no formal ticketing programme is put in place);

d. no person attending the match may, without UEFA’s prior written approval, record, transmit and/or exploit any sound, image, data, statistics and/or description of the match for any purpose other than for private use.

56.03 UEFA declines all responsibility and liability in the event of any conflict between any agreement entered into by an association and any arrangement entered into by UEFA relating to the exploitation of the commercial rights to the competition.

Article 57  Promotional purposes

57.01 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit all the promotional rights to the competition.

57.02 On registering for the competition, associations must grant UEFA the right to use and authorise others to use photographic, audiovisual and visual material of their team, players and officials (including their names, relevant statistics, data and images), as well as the association name, logo, emblem, hall image and team shirt (including references to the kit manufacturers), free of charge and worldwide for the full duration of any rights for (a) the staging and organising of the competition (and future editions of the competition); (b) non-commercial, promotional and/or editorial purposes (including the use of such material in the multilateral production of television and media promotion and coverage of the final tournament and on/for the UEFA digital services); and/or (c) as reasonably designated by UEFA. Any such use may occur after the competition and may include references to and/or branding of third parties, including sponsors, provided that no direct association will be made by UEFA between individual players or associations and any partner. On request, the associations must supply UEFA free of charge with all appropriate material as well as with the necessary documentation required to allow UEFA to use and exploit such rights in accordance with this paragraph.

57.03 The associations must also provide, upon request, all relevant data and/or information for UEFA’s promotional purposes, in particular its official website(s), and for competition-related UEFA publications.

57.04 In case an association qualifies for the final tournament, it must grant UEFA the right to use and authorise others to use the association’s imagery, free of charge and worldwide for the full duration of any rights for incorporation into commercial and promotional merchandise and materials (together with packaging and promotional materials for such merchandise and materials) provided that any such merchandise and materials: (a) relate to the final tournament; (b) include the competition name and/or a competition logo; (c) include association imagery from each of the other participating associations; and (d) do not give undue prominence to the association imagery of any one or set of participating associations. The requirements specified in (c) and (d) do not apply to the use of the association imagery of the participating association that wins the competition where such association imagery is featured in images of the celebration of its victory following the final match (for example, photographs of the presentation and lifting of the trophy). Such merchandise and materials may be sold or distributed free of charge and may include customary references to and/or branding of any manufacturer, distributor and/or provider of the relevant merchandise and materials, provided that no such reference or branding implies an endorsement of any such third party or their products and/or services by any participating association. This paragraph does not relate to the imagery of any association’s players.

57.05 Associations must obtain all necessary third party rights and consents that are required in order for them to comply with this chapter and, upon request, must supply UEFA free of charge with the necessary documentation (including any third party consents) required to allow UEFA to use and exploit its rights under these regulations.

Article 58  Commercial rights – qualifying competition

58.01 The host association of any match in the qualifying competition is authorised to exploit the commercial rights relating to such matches. In doing so, it must observe any instructions or guidelines issued by UEFA from time to time.
58.02 All agreements and arrangements pertaining to the exploitation of commercial rights in respect of the qualifying competition must be presented to the UEFA administration upon request. In addition, the commercial rights to any match in the qualifying competition may not be sold unless the sale is documented in a written agreement that provides for the payment of an appropriate fee to the host association. Any such fee forms part of the match receipts and remains with the host association.

58.03 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit the marketing rights to the qualifying competition generally or as a collective whole, including, by way of example, the right to nominate partners in relation to the qualifying competition or the competition (including the qualifying competition) as collective wholes. No participating association may participate in or allow any third party to use any rights granted by the participating association in any aggregation of marketing rights in any way that would permit a third party to create an association with the qualifying competition, the competition or the final tournament generally or as collective wholes. As a result, any grant by a participating association of marketing rights relating to the qualifying competition must be conditional upon the grantee and other third parties not exploiting the relevant rights in such a manner. By way of example, no participating association may create, or permit a third party to use rights granted by it to create, a website that is promoted as an official or dedicated website of the qualifying competition as a whole.

58.04 All associations participating in the qualifying competition undertake to take all legal and other measures that UEFA deems appropriate at its sole discretion to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the qualifying competition and to protect the ownership thereof.

58.05 For the purpose of directly or indirectly promoting the competition, in particular within programming produced by or on behalf of UEFA, the host association of any match in the qualifying competition must ensure that any third party owning rights to images of such a match grants UEFA the right to use and exploit, and authorise others to use and exploit, on a perpetual worldwide basis, by any and all means and in any and all media whether now known or invented in the future, throughout the world, for the full duration of such rights, not less than 15 minutes of audio and/or visual material from this match, free of charge and without payment of any associated clearance costs. For any match in the qualifying competition where production of a broadcast signal is foreseen, the host association undertakes to provide UEFA, free of charge and at least 60 minutes prior to the kick-off of the match, with access to the transmission details for receiving the broadcast signal at a location of UEFA’s choice. These broadcasts can be recorded by UEFA for purposes envisaged in this paragraph and a copy of such recordings will be made available to the host association upon request. If the signal is unavailable for whatever reason, the host association undertakes to provide UEFA with a recording of the entire match, free of charge, in HDCam (or if not available, in Digibeta) format (or such other format as may be requested by UEFA), to be sent to a destination determined by UEFA within seven days of the relevant match.
Article 59  Commercial rights – final tournament

59.01 UEFA owns and has the sole right, to the exclusion of the participating associations and any other party, to exploit all the commercial rights to the final tournament, including those arising at, and relating to, the official training hall. UEFA may exercise its right to exploit these commercial rights at its sole discretion and on a worldwide basis.

59.02 The commercial rights arising at, and relating to, the official training hall commence two days before the first match of the final tournament and terminate upon the conclusion of the final tournament.

59.03 Each participating association must provide all necessary assistance and cooperation to UEFA in taking any and all legal and other measures that UEFA, at its sole discretion, deems appropriate to prohibit, prevent and stop any unauthorised exploitation of the commercial rights to the final tournament and to ensure that all the commercial rights remain owned and exercised solely and exclusively by UEFA without restriction. In this regard, no association may use or exploit, directly or indirectly, any commercial rights to the final tournament without the express prior written agreement of UEFA and subject to such conditions as UEFA may require. Each association must ensure that its players, coaches, officials and other employees as well as its partners, commercial or otherwise, do not use or otherwise exploit directly or indirectly any commercial rights to the final tournament without UEFA’s express prior agreement, which may be granted or withheld at its sole discretion.

59.04 From the association’s arrival at the final tournament venue until the end of the final tournament, participating associations may not display (including on any clothing) any third-party commercial identification or branding in any hall used during the final tournament, or at any official UEFA press conference, other than:
   a. on attire used at unofficial training sessions;
   b. manufacturer’s identification on attire in accordance with the UEFA Equipment Regulations.

59.05 Associations participating in the final tournament may be permitted to make coaching films, which must not be used for any purposes whatsoever other than for the instruction of players, referees and officials of the relevant associations. Permission to film and produce such coaching films must be obtained from the UEFA administration in writing. Such permission sets out any relevant financial and other conditions. Available space and locations for the relevant film crews are limited and any such requests for permission must be submitted to the UEFA administration at least 30 days before the start of the final tournament. All practical filming arrangements, including access, working areas, number and size of crews, types of camera, etc., are communicated by UEFA in advance by circular letter or a similar means of communication. All intellectual property rights in and to any and all material recorded for such purposes must be assigned to UEFA in writing and, if so requested by UEFA, a copy of all relevant film material provided to UEFA within 24 hours of any such request being made.
XIII – Media Matters

Article 60 Responsibilities regarding media matters

60.01 Each participating association must appoint a dedicated English-speaking press officer to coordinate media matters with UEFA and the media in accordance with UEFA’s rules and regulations. The association’s press officer must attend all media activities and ensure that the team meets all its media obligations in connection with each match.

60.02 Before the start of the season each association must, at UEFA’s request, (i) provide UEFA, free of charge, with individual player and head coach statistics and photographs, historical information and a photograph of its hall, and any further data requested by UEFA for promotional purposes; or (ii) make all or part of the above available for UEFA to produce its own material.

Article 61 Team media activities

61.01 If a team arranges to hold a training session the day before the match, it must be open to all sectors of the media for at least 15 minutes. If access is restricted to 15 minutes, the host association is responsible for ensuring that the hall is clear of media after this time, and that all cameras are turned off.

61.02 If requested, associations must make their head coach and one player available the day before each match for a short interview with the host broadcaster and the main audiovisual rights holders from the territories of the competing associations.

61.03 Each association must make their head coach and at least one player available to the media on the day before the match if requested to do so. Depending on media numbers, this may be in the form of a press conference or in a less structured format. If their head coach is suspended for the match, associations have the option of replacing him with the assistant coach for this pre-match media activity. The pre-match media activities must be arranged by the associations in such a way that the media can attend both. For the final tournament, UEFA may arrange a larger media day with the relevant coaches ahead of the first match, in order to promote the event.

61.04 Each team must make its head coach available to the media after the match. Depending on media numbers, this may be in the form of a press conference or in a less structured format. This media activity must start no later than 20 minutes after the final whistle.

61.05 After the match, a mixed zone is set up to offer reporters additional opportunities to conduct interviews. This area is located close to the field of play and the teams' dressing rooms and is accessible only to coaches, players and media representatives.

61.06 All players from both teams are obliged to pass through the mixed zone to conduct interviews with the media.
61.07 Interviews are not permitted before or during the match on the field of play itself or in its immediate vicinity. However, pre-match, half-time and flash interviews can take place according to the following rules:

a. Interviews are allowed with coaches and players before the match subject to the agreement of their team.

b. Half-time interviews may be conducted with one of the listed team officials, subject to the agreement of their team. No players may be interviewed at half-time.

c. Flash interviews take place immediately after the final whistle in an area between the substitutes’ benches and the dressing rooms. Both teams must make their head coach and at least two key players available to audiovisual rights holders if requested. In certain circumstances (e.g. for the final tournament) super-flash interviews may be conducted on the field of play immediately after the final whistle under the same conditions as for flash interviews.

Article 62 Accreditations and access rights

62.01 Photographers may work in the areas behind the advertising boards between the goals and corners. They may only change ends at half-time or, if applicable, during the interval before the start of extra time. Photographers may work from the stands if located in a dedicated area and given permission to do so by the host.

62.02 Photographers may attend the post-match press conferences, space permitting. However, no photography is allowed in the mixed zone or interview areas.

62.03 No media representatives are allowed to go on to the field of play before, during or after the match, with the exception of the host broadcaster camera crew covering the team line-ups at the start of the match and up to two host broadcaster camera crews filming the teams after the end of the match. The same applies to the tunnel and dressing-room area, with the exception of UEFA-approved flash interview positions and a camera of the host broadcaster filming the following activities:

a. team arrivals (as far as to the dressing-room area);

b. players in the tunnel before the match;

c. players returning to the pitch at the start of the second half.

62.04 A limited number of photographers, cameramen and production staff of the audiovisual rights holders – all equipped with the appropriate pitch-access accreditation – are allowed in the area between the boundaries of the field of play and the spectators.

62.05 The team dressing rooms are off limits to media representatives before, during and after the match. However, subject to the teams’ prior agreement, one camera crew of the host broadcaster may enter the dressing rooms to film the players’ shirts and equipment. This filming must be completed well before the arrival of the players. Any additional dressing room access for media (e.g. for post-match celebrations) must be agreed between the relevant team and UEFA in advance.

62.06 A position in the main stand should be foreseen for a camera crew from each team to conduct technical filming. Generally they should be in a central position or a position agreed by the teams and the local press officer.

Article 63 Principles for all media

63.01 Media equipment and personnel may not obstruct the view or movement of, or cause confusion for referees, players or coaches.

63.02 All media representatives must respect the needs of other media colleagues. For example, adequate positions for photographers must be available alongside audiovisual rights-holder cameras behind the advertising boards, in principle behind each goal, and media working areas must not be disturbed during the match by audiovisual rights-holder technical personnel or photographers.

63.03 Media must respect the needs of the players and coaches. Interviews may be conducted only in areas defined and approved by UEFA. Reporters must not approach players or coaches for interviews or comments during play.

63.04 Media equipment and personnel should not obstruct the spectators' view of the field of play. Media cameras should not record the crowd in a manner which could cause any dangerous activity.

63.05 Any media equipment and personnel must be positioned in such a way that they do not present any danger for players or the referee team. The field of play itself must always be kept free of cameras, cables and media personnel.
XIV – Closing Provisions

Article 64 Implementing provisions

64.01 The UEFA administration is entrusted with the operational management of the competition and is therefore entitled to take the decisions and adopt the detailed provisions and guidelines necessary for implementing these regulations.

Article 65 Unforeseen circumstances

65.01 Any matters not provided for in these regulations, such as cases of force majeure, are settled by the UEFA General Secretary, whose decisions are final.

Article 66 Non-compliance

66.01 Any breach of these regulations may be penalised by UEFA in accordance with the UEFA Disciplinary Regulations.

Article 67 Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS)

67.01 In case of litigation resulting from or in relation to these regulations, the provisions regarding the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) laid down in the UEFA Statutes apply.

Article 68 Annexes

68.01 All annexes form an integral part of these regulations.

Article 69 Authoritative version

69.01 If there is any discrepancy in the interpretation of the English, French or German versions of these regulations, the English version prevails.
Article 70  Adoption and entry into force

70.01 These regulations were adopted by the UEFA Executive Committee at its meeting on 29 May 2019 and come into force on 1 July 2019.

For the UEFA Executive Committee:

Aleksander Čeferin  Theodore Theodoridis
President  General Secretary

Baku, 29 May 2019
Annex A – Coefficient Ranking System

A.1 Coefficient calculation system

The present coefficient system takes its mathematical formulation and philosophy from the Elo algorithm. The Elo algorithm relies on adding/subtracting points according to teams winning or losing a game. This number of points, rewarding or penalising teams, is function of the relative strength between the two teams playing against each other. The system is implemented as from the start of the UEFA European Qualifying Competition for the 2020 FIFA Futsal World Cup.

A.2 Matches taken into consideration

All national senior team matches played in official tournaments are taken into consideration. Friendly matches do not count.

A.3 Technical framework

The mathematical formula takes this form:

\[ C_t = C_{t-1} + I \times F \times (W - W_e) \]

Being:

- \( C_t \): team’s coefficient after the match
- \( C_{t-1} \): team’s coefficient before the match
- \( I \): importance of the match
  - 1 for qualifying round and qualifying round play-off matches (including all matches of the UEFA European Qualifying Competition for the 2020 FIFA Futsal World Cup)
  - 1 for qualifying group stage and play-off matches
  - 1.5 for final tournament group stage matches
  - 1.5 for round-of-sixteen matches
  - 1.75 for quarter-finals matches
  - 2 for semi-finals matches
  - 1 for third place match
  - 2 for final match
- \( F \): 100
- \( W \): result of the match, 1 = win; 0.5 = draw; 0 = defeat expected result of the match (outcome probability of the match)

\[ W_e = \frac{1}{1 + 10^{-dc/600}} \]

being \( dc \) the difference in coefficients of the two playing teams.

A.4 Specific calculation condition

Final tournament floors: the team’s coefficient upon completion of the final tournament group phase cannot be negative. Such floor will also apply for each knock-out round.

A.5 Ranking

The team with the highest number of points is ranked first.

To be included in the ranking table, a team should have played at least 2 coefficient relevant matches and should not have been inactive over the last 36 months.

Coefficients are indicated with one single decimal for readability purposes only.

When a new team is introduced, it takes the lowest ranked team coefficient at the time of the team’s entry.

A.6 Draws

For the calculation of the senior men’s futsal national team coefficients to be used for the below mentioned draws, as a rule, the last coefficients’ relevant rounds are taken into consideration, namely:

a. Qualifying round draw
   – UEFA European qualifying competition for the 2020 FIFA Futsal World Cup (main round)

b. Qualifying group stage draw
   – UEFA European qualifying competition for the 2020 FIFA Futsal World Cup (play-offs)
   – UEFA European Futsal Championship 2020-2022 (qualifying round play-offs)

c. Final draw
   – UEFA European Futsal Championship 2020-2022 (play-offs)

A.7 Final decisions

The UEFA administration takes final decisions on any matters not provided for in these provisions.
Annex B – Safety and Security Instructions

B.1 Introduction

These instructions apply to the organisers of, and the associations participating in, matches in any UEFA futsal competitions. They detail the precautionary measures to be taken to ensure safety and security in the venues and to prevent crowd disturbances.

These instructions cannot be regarded as an exhaustive list of the security measures to be taken by the match organisers and participating associations. The aim of these instructions is to make the match organisers, be they associations or other entities, aware of their duties and responsibilities before, during and after the match in order to safeguard the safety and security of everyone present, as well as of the hall and its installations.

These instructions do not affect the legal obligations arising from the applicable national legislation.

B.2 Cooperation with match organisers and public authorities

In the interests of safety and security, associations must cooperate in full with the match organisers, irrespective of whether the match is to be played at home or abroad, and with the public authorities concerned. Similarly, in their dealings with visiting associations, and all other authorities involved, the match organisers must do everything possible to ensure that the event passes off without incident.

All parties involved in a match must do everything within their power to enable the public authorities (especially the police), in all the countries involved, to carry out an effective exchange of appropriate cross-border information.

The match organisers must seek the cooperation of the local police well in advance, to ensure the safety of the visiting team and officials at their hotel and when travelling to and from training and matches.

B.3 Identification of persons responsible for safety and security

The chief police officer or venue security officer with overall responsibility for safety and security relating to the match must be identified, as must all other individuals responsible for safety and security, medical services and fire services.

An adequate number of ground staff and police must be present, to guarantee safety and security in the hall.

B.4 Stewards

Sufficient and properly trained stewards must be on duty within the venue to ensure that spectators are directed to their seats efficiently and smoothly, without delay or confusion.
B.5 Liaison group

The match organiser must establish a liaison group which includes:

a. a senior official acting on behalf of the match organiser;

b. a senior representative of:
   – each of the public authorities concerned;
   – the stewards;
   – the hall owner;
   – the participating teams;

c. the UEFA match delegate.

The match organiser must identify a suitable meeting place within the hall where the group should meet in the event of an emergency.

The members of the liaison group must be given a short, coded call sign which will be broadcast over the public address system for the purpose of summoning them to the agreed meeting place.

The match organiser must ensure that the members of the liaison group are able to communicate freely with each other via a radio-telephone link.

B.6 Inspection of the venue

The venue in question must have been thoroughly inspected by the competent local safety authorities, who must have issued a safety certificate testifying to its suitability. Such a certificate must have been valid for no more than one year prior to the date of the match.

B.7 Emergency services

Adequate rooms and facilities within and around the venue must be provided for the police, medical service and fire service, in accordance with the requirements of the public authorities concerned.

B.8 Segregation of spectators

For matches where spectators are segregated, a segregation strategy must be drawn up by the match organisers in conjunction with the participating teams and the chief police officer in charge of the match.

B.9 Information for spectators

The match organisers must ensure that spectators are made aware before the match, by public address system announcements or any other appropriate means, of all prohibitive measures and controls related to the match.
Additionally, supporters must be reminded of the importance of not attempting to take prohibited items or substances into the venue, of the need to behave in a sporting and reasonably restrained manner, and of the potentially serious consequences any breach of these obligations could have for the players and teams they support, including disqualification from competitions.

B.10 Drinks

The match organiser may only sell or distribute alcohol within the venue or its private environs if and within the limits permitted under the national law as applicable. All alcohol and alcohol-free drinks sold or distributed must be dispensed in paper or open plastic containers which could not be used in a dangerous manner.

B.11 Public passageways

All public passageways, corridors, stairs, doors, gates and emergency exit routes must be kept free of any obstructions, which could impede the free flow of spectators.

B.12 Protection of the playing area

Players and match officials must be protected against intrusion of spectators into the playing area. This may be accomplished in various ways, including one or more of the following examples, depending on individual circumstances:

a. the presence of police and/or security personnel in or near the playing area;

b. a seating configuration which situates front-row spectators at a height above the arena, which would render intrusion into the playing area improbable, if not impossible.

Whatever type of protection against intrusion is used, it must incorporate adequate means for spectators to escape into the playing area in an emergency, unless, in the certified opinion of the local safety authorities, adequate means of emergency evacuation, backwards and/or sideways, out of the stands exist, which would be sufficient to render the use of the playing area unnecessary for such a purpose.

The type of protection adopted against intrusion must be approved by the competent local authorities and must not represent a danger to spectators in the event of panic or an emergency evacuation.

No spectators are allowed in the area between the stands and the touch line or goal line.

B.13 Public address system

Every venue must have a public address system which can be heard clearly above the crowd noise, both inside and outside the venue, even in the case of a sudden upsurge in spectator noise levels. The system must also be capable of addressing the various sectors of the venue individually. The police authorities and/or the venue security officer should be able to override the public address system to make emergency announcements.

B.14 Announcements

Announcements over the public address system must be of a strictly neutral character. The public address system must not be used to communicate political messages, to support the home team, or for any form of discrimination.

B.15 Provocative action and racism

The match organisers, together with the security authorities, must prevent any provocative action from being taken by spectators inside or in the immediate vicinity of the venue (unacceptable levels of verbal provocation from spectators towards players or opposing fans, racist behaviour, provocative banners or flags, etc.). Should such action arise, the match organisers or security authorities must intervene over the public address system and remove any offensive material. Stewards must draw the attention of the police to serious acts of misconduct, including racist insults, so that offenders may be removed from the venue should the police so decide.

Associations and match organisers must implement and apply UEFA’s 10-point plan on racism.

B.16 Emergency power supply

Each venue must be equipped with an independent emergency electrical power supply which could be used in the event of power failure, to ensure a degree of lighting which is sufficient to prevent any danger to the public. The competent local authorities must approve the public lighting system and the emergency back-up system.

B.17 Ticket details and sales conditions

For all matches, ticket sales must be strictly controlled. A ticket should provide ticket-holders with all the information they might need, i.e. the name of the competition, the names of the participating teams, the name of the venue, the date and kick-off time, and a clear indication of the seat location (sector, row, seat number). In addition, the following details should be produced and distributed with the ticket: opening times of the gates, hall regulations including prohibition of alcohol and offensive articles, procedure for searching spectators, etc.
Annex C – Mini-Tournament Requirements

C.1 Introduction

This annex sets out the requirements for hosting a mini-tournament in the UEFA European Futsal Championship. For the sake of simplicity, "host" refers to the national association hosting a mini-tournament.

C.2 Tournament schedule

The host is responsible for notifying the other participating associations and the UEFA administration of all match details (dates, venues, kick-off times and hotel accommodation) by the set deadlines. In match halls without any proper warm-up area, and in the case of two consecutive matches, the hosts must leave at least 2 hours 15 minutes between each kick-off.

C.3 Local organising committee

The host is responsible for setting up a local organising committee (LOC) composed of at least:

a. 1 tournament director (who should not have a leading role with his own team);
b. 1 accommodation manager;
c. 1 transport manager;
d. 1 sports facilities and match organisation manager;
e. 1 PR, promotion and ticketing manager;
f. 1 TV/media, sponsors, concessions and VIP hospitality manager;
g. 1 referee liaison officer (RLO);
h. 1 team liaison officer for each visiting team;
i. 1 medical officer;
j. 1 press officer.

The host must ensure that the members of the LOC are duly authorised to fulfil their various tasks.

C.4 Accommodation requirements

All tournament participants must be accommodated in high standard four-star hotels. If possible, each team should be accommodated on a different floor or wing. The host must:

a. ensure that the teams can prepare for their matches in a comfortable, quiet and undisturbed environment;
b. at the organisational meeting, provide the delegations with clear information on safety regulations and procedure applicable in case of an emergency, rules regarding telephones, pay-TV, internet, mini-bars and other extras, as well as the code of conduct in the hotel;

c. prepare a room occupancy plan and distribute it to the UEFA representatives only;

d. ensure that all rooms:
   – have bathroom and toilet facilities which meet standard hygiene requirements;
   – have adequate wardrobe space;
   – are equipped with heating and/or air-conditioning;
   – are cleaned daily.

C.4.1 Rooms for the delegations

The host must provide and pay for the following rooms for each delegation (maximum of 21 people per delegation):

a. seven twin rooms for the 14 players (two single beds must be provided in these rooms; one large bed for two players is not acceptable);

b. 7 single rooms for the 7 team officials (same hotel as their team);

c. a storage room for each team (ideally on the team’s floor/wing);

d. one room per team for medical treatment, equipped with massage table.

A suite could be provided for use as a storage and medical room with massage table.

Additional delegation members may be accommodated at the same place or nearby, at the expense of the visiting association.

C.4.2 Rooms for the referees and UEFA match officers

Single rooms must be provided for the four referees, UEFA referee observer, UEFA match delegate and, if applicable, referee liaison officer and timekeeper, in principle all at a different hotel from the teams.

C.4.3 Meeting rooms

The host must cover the costs for the following meeting rooms equipped with a flip chart and TV/DVD set or projector, according to the team’s requests:

a. Each team should be provided with a meeting room for a minimum of 20 people, to be at its disposal for the entire duration of the tournament. If this is not possible, two teams can be asked to share one meeting room. A meeting schedule should be established with the teams before the organisational meeting.

b. One meeting room must be booked for the referees (at the referees’ hotel).
C.4.4 Dining room
A spacious dining room split into different areas – one for the teams, one area for the UEFA match delegate and LOC and, if in the same hotel, one for the referees – must be provided. Officials must refrain from smoking and drinking alcohol in the dining room in front of the players.

C.5 Food requirements

C.5.1 Meals
Meals must be provided according to the following rules:

a. Three meals a day must be served to the teams and the UEFA representatives in accordance with their match and training schedules. Menus should respect sports nutrition guidelines as well as taking the national eating habits of the participating teams into account.

b. A detailed menu plan must be submitted to the participating teams one month before the start of the mini-tournament. Should a team have any special dietary requests, these must be submitted to the host at least two weeks before the start of the mini-tournament. Any cost difference between the proposed and requested menus must be borne by the requesting team.

c. The hotels should be flexible when it comes to catering for special requests and the teams should be able to bring their own cook, food and drink. The hotels must also be flexible about mealtimes in order to adapt to the kick-off times of matches and the teams’ return travel to the hotel.

d. A good variety of food in sufficient quantities must be provided. All meals should be served buffet style and the food must be kept at an appropriate temperature all the time.

C.5.2 Snacks, light meals
As a rule, snacks or light meals between ordinary meals must be made available to the teams upon request and paid for by them. However, if such a meal replaces an ordinary meal, the host must cover the costs. If it consists of an additional meal, the requesting team must pay for it.

C.5.3 Drinks
A sufficient supply of still mineral water, soft drinks, coffee and tea must be made available for the participants at the three meals covered by the mini-tournament budget, while milk (hot and cold), fruit juice and chocolate drinks or powder must also be available at breakfast time. In addition, a minimum of 48 litres of still mineral water must be provided per day for each team to cover their needs for their training sessions, matches and other use such as water in their rooms. Still mineral water and energy drinks should also be provided to the refereeing group. All other drinks must be paid for by the teams or individuals concerned.
C.6 Laundry of the match playing attire

The host must pay for a 24-hour laundry service (hotel service or other) for the playing attire of the participating teams and referees (playing attire which has been worn for matches, i.e. shirts, shorts and socks, but not tracksuits, undershirts and undershorts).

C.7 Tournament office

A centrally located and easily accessible tournament office must be set up at the hotel or one of the hotels where the teams are staying. It should be equipped with an internet connection or Wi-Fi, a photocopier and a small printer – unless these last two services can be provided by the hotel at the host’s expense. This room serves as the mini-tournament headquarters, where:

a. the UEFA match delegate and, if accommodated in the same hotel, the refereeing group can carry out administrative work;
b. information can be obtained on the mini-tournament.

C.8 Training sessions

For mini-tournaments, one training hall should be made available for the entire duration, to be shared by all four teams, which should have the same playing surface as in the match hall. The teams must be given the possibility to use this hall at any time and as often as requested. The training hall can be the same hall as the match hall. In this case, the host must arrange a training schedule, taking the visiting teams’ wishes into account as far as possible.

The training hall must be located near the team accommodation. Travel time by bus from a team’s accommodation to the training hall must not exceed 20 minutes.

C.9 Match hall requirements

As a rule, each match hall must meet the following requirements:

a. The hall must be located within a one-hour bus ride of the team accommodation.
b. The pitch must measure at least 38 x 20m.
c. The hall must be equipped with two benches at pitch level. Each bench must provide seating for 15 people in total. These benches must be positioned at least two metres from the touch line and must not pose a risk to the safety of the players. In addition, a table with five seats must be provided between the substitutes’ benches.
d. One replacement goal must be available in the hall.
e. The hall must provide adequate public first aid and fire-fighting equipment as well as sanitary facilities for both sexes, and must meet UEFA’s requirements for the safety and security of spectators.
f. The hall should be equipped with a public address system including a CD player.
g. At least one massage table and one tactical board must be provided in each dressing room.
h. It should be possible to suspend a minimum of three flags in the interior of the hall.
i. There must be facilities for the players and referee team to take hot showers after the match.
j. A minimum of four ball kids and two moppers should be provided for each match.

C.10 Transport

The host is responsible for satisfying the following transport requirements:

a. The teams, referees and UEFA match officers must be welcomed upon their arrival in the host country and transported to the hotel. They must also be provided with transport from their accommodation to their point of departure at the end of their stay.

b. Each team must be provided with a modern 30-seater bus (with air-conditioning and dedicated driver) for the entire duration of the tournament to cover all the team’s reasonable requests, including local excursions. The host must provide the visiting teams with the transport concept/rules at the organisational meeting.

c. Two people carriers (minibuses with six to eight seats), with drivers, must be provided to transport the referees to and from matches. Unless travelling with the refereeing group, the UEFA match delegate must have a dedicated car.
