Belgrade, Republic of Serbia

Place:	Town Hall Belgrade
Duration:	approximately 30 minutes
Teams involved:	12 teams (Serbia, Azerbaijan, Croatia, Czech Republic, Hungary, Italy, Kazakhstan, Portugal, Russia, Slovenia, Spain, and Ukraine)
Seeded teams:	Serbia as host association Italy as reigning champions Spain and Russia as the following highest ranked teams in the coefficient
Groups:	Four groups of three teams (group A, B, C and D)
Final Tournament:	2 to 13 February 2016 20 matches, 10 matchdays Belgrade Arena (capacity: 11'000)

DRAW PROCEDURE

- The 12 qualified teams are ranked according to their coefficient ranking for the UEFA European Futsal Championship 2015/16 (see Annexe A of the competition regulations).
- The teams are seeded as follows: hosts Serbia, reigning champions Italy, and the two with the next best coefficients in the rankings (Spain and Russia) are in Pot 1 and drawn into position 1 of each group (B1, C1, D1). Serbia is placed in position A1 and will therefore not be drawn.
- Each of the four associations with the next best coefficients are placed in Pot 2 and drawn into a group in position 2 with the remaining teams in Pot 3 drawn into position 3 of each group. Teams are drawn from group A to group D.
- Based on previous decisions of the UEFA Executive Committee and the UEFA Emergency Panel, Russia and Ukraine cannot be drawn into the same group and in addition may not play on the same match day (due to a potential clash of teams and clash of fans).
- If Russia is drawn into group B position 1, Ukraine cannot be allocated to group A or B, position 2. In case such clash occurs, Ukraine shall be allocated to group C position 2 and the draw continues by allocating the first available position in alphabetical order.

- If Russia is drawn into Group C or D, position 1, Ukraine cannot be allocated to any of these two groups. In case Ukraine is not drawn into group A or B, position 2, the team drawn into group B will be allocated to group C and if needed the following team into group D, in order for Ukraine to be allocated to group B, position 2.
