In such case, UEFA and the Host Association (or their agents) expressly reserve the right to claim compensation for any damages incurred.

- 5.2. Except as provided in Article 5.3 below, Tickets will be dispatched by no later than the end of April 2014, by express courier to the delivery address of the Applicant indicated on the Application Form. - 5.4. Ticket Holders are advised to check order confirmations and the physical Tickets received for any inaccuracies, in particular with regard to their number, price, and category. Complaints about obvious defects (NB: the allocation of Tickets as specified under Article 5.3 of these Terms and Conditions shall NOT be considered a defect) such as faulty printing, missing key data, e.g. seat number, etc., shall be made within ten (10) days following receipt of the Tickets in writing, either by e-mail or regular mail, to the contact address indicated on the UEFA Champions League Final 2014 Ticket Portal. Ticket Holders whose complaints arrive in time and are considered justified, will receive replacement Tickets free of charge, provided that the original and defective Ticket(s) have been handed back to UEFA and the Host Association. The date of receipt of the complaint shall be deemed prevailing for these purposes. Complaints received after the ten (10)-day period specified above will not be taken into consideration and no Tickets will be exchanged.
