UEFA European Under-19 Championship in Switzerland

Final tournament match schedule and television coverage confirmed

UEFA has confirmed the match schedule for the 3rd UEFA European Under-19 Championship final tournament to be played in Switzerland, between 13 and 24 July 2004. Eurosport, UEFA's television partner for Youth Competitions, will broadcast a minimum of 7 matches live of the European Under-19 Championship final round.

At the occasion of the draw, which took place in Basel, Switzerland, on Friday 2 June 2004, the seven group winners from the second qualifying round plus the host country, Switzerland, were drawn into two groups of four, as follow: Group A: Switzerland, Italy, Belgium and Ukraine; Group B: Germany, Spain, Poland and Turkey.

The tournament will be staged in two centres, one located in the German speaking part of Switzerland and one in the French part. Group phase matches of centre A will take place in Kriens and Aarau, while Fribourg and Lausanne will be the venues for centre B's group phase matches and the semi-finals. The final will be held in the stadium of Colovray in Nyon next to the House of European Football.

Alongside this event on 22-25 July, UEFA is organising a special Jubilee Seminar on Youth Football at its headquarters to which the Youth coaches of all its member associations are being invited.

Also at stake this year, is qualification for the FIFA World Youth Championship. The first three teams from each group will qualify for the final round of the competition, which will take place in the Netherlands next year.

Media representatives wishing to cover the final round must apply to UEFA for accreditation via e-mail to <mailto:accreditations@uefa.ch>, indicating "UNDER-19" in the subject header. The deadline for applications is 5 July 2004. Two press conferences will take place on 12 July in centre A and B with the eight coaches. Media accreditations will be distributed at this occasion. More information concerning the time and exact location of these conferences will be announced in due course on: www.uefa.com/competitions/Under19
