6 matches behind closed doors for FC Internazionale

Result of UEFA Champions League tie against AC Milan changed to 0-3 forfeit

The UEFA Control and Disciplinary Body meeting at UEFA Headquarters in Nyon today, dealt with the disciplinary case arising from the abandoned UEFA Champions League match between FC Internazionale and AC Milan played on 12 April at the San Siro stadium in Milan.

The Control and Disciplinary Body has ordered FC Internazionale to play their next six European club competition matches behind closed doors. Of these six matches behind closed doors, the last two are under a probationary period of three years, according to Article 15 bis of the Disciplinary Regulations.

This means that if a further offence is committed during the probationary period the Disciplinary Body may order the original sanction to be executed, in addition to disciplinary sanctions for the second offence.

In addition FC Internazionale were handed a fine of 300'000 Swiss Francs.

The match result was awarded to AC Milan as a 3-0 forfeit. AC Milan therefore progress to the semi-finals, having won 5-0 on aggregate.

An appeal against any of these decisions can be submitted within three days from receipt of the written grounds.
