First-ever Women's Club Competition

Draw to be made in Ulm on 6 July for the 1st Women's Cup 2001/2002

No less than 32 national associations will have one representative in the draw of the 1st UEFA Women's Cup 2001/2002. The draw for the qualifying round of this competition will be made on 6 July in Ulm, Germany.

Eight qualifying mini-tournaments will be played in groups of four with each group winner to qualify for the quarter-finals. The mini-tournaments will be hosted by one of the participating teams and will have to be played in fixed periods between 20 and 24 September 2001 or 1 and 5 October 2001.

Dates have already been set for the final phase of the tournament with quarter-finals to take place between 15 and 18 March 2002 for the first leg and between 28 and 31 March for the return leg. On the same basis, home and away semi-finals will be played between 12 and 15 April 2002 with the second leg scheduled for between 27 and 29 April 2002.

The first winner of the UEFA Women's Cup will be decided in a final to be played on 28 or 29 May.
