Draw for UEFA European Under-21 Championship

Draw for final tournament to take place on 8 February 2006 in Porto, Portugal

The final tournament of the UEFA European Under-21 Championship 2004/2006 takes place from Tuesday, 23 May until Sunday, 4 June 2006 in the north region of Portugal.

The draw for the final round of the UEFA European Under-21 Championship will be held at 12:00 local time (namely 13:00 CET) on Wednesday, 8 February at the Auditorium of the Serralves Museum of Contemporary Art, Rua D. João de Castro 210, 4150-417 Porto.

The host nation, Portugal, and the title holder, Italy, will be seeded in positions A1 and B1 respectively. Denmark and Germany, the two teams with the best coefficients based on the qualifying competition 2004/2006, will be allocated either in group A or B. The teams to be drawn into either of these two groups, and who make up the full complement of the eight participating nations, are: France, Serbia and Montenegro, Ukraine and the Netherlands.

After the draw, representatives of the participating teams, the FPF and UEFA, will be available for interviews.

Media representatives wishing to attend this event should return the enclosed accreditation form directly to the FPF to the contact indicated at the top of the form by Monday, 6 February.

Media requiring either an ISDN or an analogue telephone line in the media working area should contact Mr. José Menezes at the Serralves Museum of Contemporary Art directly via phone +351 226156572 (between 10:00H and 17:00H local time) by Monday, 6 February.
