Referee hotels

Up to and including the first semi-final on 25 June, all the referees will be based at the Mövenpick hotel in Regensdorf (Switzerland). From 26 June, those still involved in the tournament will move to the Renaissance Penta hotel in Vienna.

UEFA headquarter hotels

Partners, guests, and staff of the organisers will be accommodated at the following hotels:

Vienna	Hilton Vienna	Basel	Les Trois Rois Hilton Basel SAS Radisson
Salzburg	Sheraton Salzburg	Zurich	Swissôtel
Innsbruck	Grand Hotel Europa	Berne	Hotel Allegro
Klagenfurt	Hotel Schloss Seefeld	Geneva	Grand Hotel Kempinski

Some related figures

Kuoni, Euro 2008 SA's official accommodation agency, has taken care of all hotel reservations. For the different target groups (teams, referees, organiser's guests, partners, media and staff,) some 22,000 rooms in 440 hotels have been booked, corresponding to about 140,000 nights.

Fan accommodation

In principle, the organisers are not arranging any accommodation for the fans. However, should rooms from the quotas reserved for other target groups become vacant, these will be put on offer on aa-euro2008.com from January. The official fans' website, www.fanguide2008.net, has numerous links regarding accommodation possibilities in the host cities.
