Accreditation for UEFA European Under-19 Championship

Final Tournament to be held in Liechtenstein from 16 to 26 July 2003

The draw for the final round of the UEFA European Under-19 championship was held on Saturday 14 June in Vaduz, Liechtenstein and was conducted by Jim Boyce, Chairman of UEFA Youth and Amateur Football Committee and His Royal Highness Prince Alois of Liechtenstein.

The seven group winners from the second qualifying round plus the host country, Liechtenstein, have been drawn into two groups of four. Liechtenstein, as the hosts, were the only seeded team and were placed in first position of group A. The draw result is as follow:

Group A	Group B
Liechtenstein	France
Portugal	Czech Republic
Norway	England
Italy	Austria

The matches will be played at five different venues in Vaduz, Eschen-Mauren, Schaan, Triesen and Balzers.

Media representatives wishing to cover the tournament in Liechtenstein are kindly requested to register on www.uefa.com/uefa/MediaServices/Accreditation/index.htm and then to apply for specific accreditation until Friday 4 July 2003.

The tournament schedule, including venues and kick-off times, is available on: www.uefa.com/competitions/Under19
