1st UEFA Women's Cup underway

Three group winners out of eight are qualified for quarter-final stage

The first-ever UEFA Women's Cup for club teams began this month and three of the group winners are now known after completion of three of the eight group mini-tournaments.

SK Trondheims-Ørn (Norway), TNK Ryazan (Russia) and Odense BK (Denmark) each won their respective groups to qualify for the quarter-final stage. The remaining group mini-tournaments will be staged in October and November after which the remaining five quarter-finalists will be known.

In Group 1 the Norwegian club SK Trondheims-Ørn were unbeaten scoring a total of 23 goals as they won their group comfortably. TNK Ryazan of Russia proved too strong for their opponents as they qualified without conceding a goal in Group 2, with a maximum of nine points from three matches. In Group 6, the Danish side Odense BK also qualified with three straight wins and nine points after their final win yesterday evening, 3-1 against group runners-up ZFK Masinac-Classic of Yugoslavia.

The draw for the quarter-finals will be staged on Thursday 4 October in Oberhausen, Germany at the time of the 4th UEFA Conference on Women's Football. The quarter-finals will take place as home and away games, and are scheduled to be played between 15-18 March and 28-31 March 2002.

The full results and final standings of Groups 1, 2 and 6 are shown below along with the schedule for the matches in Groups 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8.
