Executive Committee confirms European/South American Cup

FC Bayern München and Boca Juniors to play in Tokyo on Tuesday 27 November

Following their meeting held in Prague on 9 and 10 October 2001, UEFA's Executive Committee today confirmed that this year's edition of the European/South American Cup (Toyota Cup) will be played in Tokyo, Japan at the National Stadium on Tuesday 27 November. The exact time of the kick-off will be confirmed at a later date.

This will be the 22nd edition of this yearly match played in Tokyo in the current one-off format between the champions of Europe and the champions of South America. Previously, from its inception in 1960 until the first match played in Tokyo in 1980, the final had been played over two legs, home and away.

The match will be organised by the Japan Football Association and the Toyota Cup Organising Committee. For information regarding media accreditation please contact the numbers below:
