Drama to increase on Matchday 7

After an absorbing conclusion to the UEFA Champions League group stage, the 16 sides that have won through are well aware big-name casualties are guaranteed in the first knockout round.

'Extraordinary tie'

Real Madrid CF against FC Bayern München, FC Internazionale Milano versus Valencia CF; a glance at the Matchday 7 fixtures reveals some mouthwatering ties but even among such an impressive cast, the meeting between FC Barcelona and Liverpool FC draws much of the spotlight. The last two champions come together at Camp Nou for what home president Joan Laporta predicted could be an 'extraordinary tie'. Barcelona's 13-match unbeaten run at home in the competition makes them clear favourites but spearheaded by Rafael Benítez, the Reds' sizeable Spanish contingent will be keen to spring a surprise.

Familiar fixtures

Benítez's former charges Valencia travel to Serie A leaders Inter in Milan for what will be their fourth meeting in six seasons. It is doubtful they have many secrets but after impressive form in the group stage, the visitors will hope to prove more difficult opponents than the team that slumped to a 5-1 home defeat when the clubs last met in 2004/05. Indeed, there is a sense of déjà vu surrounding several of the ties, with travelling Arsenal FC looking to get the better of PSV Eindhoven for the third time in five seasons, while Manchester United FC are also on the road and hoping to avenge LOSC Lille Métropole's contribution to their early exit last term.

Heavyweights

FC Porto come face to face with Chelsea FC at the Estádio do Dragão and, in José Mourinho, are up against the man that guided them to UEFA Champions League glory in 2004 for the second time since his departure. It is familiar ground for Madrid and Bayern too, as two of the true heavyweights of European football lock horns in the Spanish capital looking to move a step closer to Athens on 23 May and more silverware for their well-stocked trophy cabinets.

New territory

Experience is considered a valuable commodity in the UEFA Champions League though it has been said that conversely, it is simply the name given to past mistakes, in which case Celtic FC and AS Roma will go into their first UEFA Champions League knockout round ties free of the weight of history. Celtic meet AC Milan in Glasgow while Roma defend an eight-match unbeaten run in Europe at the Stadio Olimpico against an Olympique Lyonnais team who have won eight of their last 13 away matches in the competition. The UEFA Champions League is back with a bang.
