Match background

The champions of Slovakia and Gibraltar meet for the fourth time in 2021/22 with Lincoln Red Imps bidding to get off the mark in UEFA Europa Conference League Group F and Slovan Bratislava targeting a second win in a fortnight against their hosts.

- Slovan were 2-0 winners on Matchday 3, André Green and Ezekiel Henty both scoring their second goals of the group stage, the victory coming after an opening 1-3 defeat at home to FC Copenhagen and a 1-1 draw at PAOK. Lincoln have lost all three matches by a two-goal margin, going down 0-2 at home to PAOK and 1-3 in Copenhagen before the defeat in Bratislava.

Previous meetings

- Slovan prevailed when the teams met for the first time in a UEFA Europa League third qualifying round tie this summer, winning 3-1 away and drawing 1-1 at home. Winger Jaromír Zmrhal had a hand in all four Slovan goals, scoring two and setting up the others for Guram Kashia and Henty.

- Those were Lincoln's first UEFA encounters with Slovakian opposition, Slovan having previously met the Red Imps' domestic rivals Europa FC – and beaten them 9-0 on aggregate (6-0 a, 3-0 h) – in the 2015/16 UEFA Europa League first qualifying round, their one previous tie with a team from Gibraltar. The first-leg win remains Slovan's biggest away from home in European competition.

Form guide

Lincoln

- As domestic double winners, for the 16th time, in 2020/21, the Red Imps entered this season in the UEFA Champions League, and won their opening qualifying tie against Luxembourg's Fola Esch (2-2 a, 5-0 h). However, subsequent defeats for Mick McElwee's side by CFR Cluj (1-2 h, 0-2 a) and, in the UEFA Europa League, Slovan sent them into the UEFA Europa Conference League play-offs, where they made history as Gibraltar's first group stage participants by eliminating Latvian champions Riga after extra time (1-1 a, 3-1 h).

- Prior to this season the record champions of Gibraltar (25 league titles) had never progressed beyond the second qualifying round of either European competition, going out to Rangers (0-5 h) at that stage of last season's UEFA Europa League.

- The Red Imps' overall home record in UEFA competition is W7 D4 L7. This includes two games played as preliminary round hosts at the Victoria Stadium in the 2018/19 UEFA Champions League.

Slovan

- A second successive Slovakian league and cup double was Slovan's reward for a dominant domestic season in 2020/21, which counterbalanced eliminations on entry in the qualifying phase of both the UEFA Champions League and UEFA Europa League, to KÍ of the Faroe Islands and KuPS of Finland respectively.

- UEFA Europa League group stage participants three times previously, Slovan are Slovakia's first representatives in the UEFA Europa Conference League proper. The start of their 2021/22 European campaign, under former Slovakia and Georgia head coach Vladimír Weiss, featured an aggregate victory and defeat in both the UEFA Champions League and UEFA Europa League – against, respectively, Shamrock Rovers (3-2) and Young Boys (2-3) in the former and Lincoln and Olympiacos (2-5) in the latter.

- Slovan's 3-1 win at the Victoria Stadium in August ended their eight-match winless run on the road in UEFA competition (D2 L6). They have never won away from home in a European group stage, losing eight of their ten fixtures and drawing the other two, with just five goals scored and 24 conceded.

Links and trivia

- Gibraltar's first ever UEFA-recognised international match was a 0-0 draw against Slovakia in Faro/Loulé on 19 November 2013. Four current Lincoln players – Scott Wiseman, Joseph Chipolina, Roy Chipolina and Liam Walker – started the game, with Jack Sergeant coming on as a substitute.

- Slovan midfielder Jaba Kankava has scored twice for Georgia in UEFA European Championship qualifying wins away to Gibraltar – 3-0 in Faro/Loulé on 14 October 2014 and 3-2 at Gibraltar's Victoria Stadium on 15 October 2019.

- Lincoln are one of eight clubs making their debut appearance in a UEFA group stage this season; the others – one in each group – are Alashkert (Group A), Flora Tallinn (B), Bodø/Glimt (C), Randers (D), Union Berlin (E), Mura (G) and Kairat (H).

- Lincoln, Alashkert and Mura are the only three teams in the UEFA Europa Conference League group stage yet to register a point.
