Match background

Maccabi Tel-Aviv and LASK Linz meet on Matchday 5 with both teams already guaranteed a place in the UEFA Europa Conference League knockout phase but knowing that a victory at Bloomfield Stadium will take them directly through to the round of 16 as Group A winners.

- While Maccabi ensured further progress by doing the double over HJK Helsinki (5-0 a, 3-0 h), LASK emulated them by twice getting the better of Alashkert (3-0 a, 2-0 h).
- Both teams have ten points from their four matches and are two of just five clubs across the eight groups already qualified for the UEFA Europa Conference League knockout phase. A win for either on Matchday 5 will clinch top spot with a game to spare.

Previous meetings

- The teams' only dropped points so far came in their direct confrontation on Matchday 2 in Klagenfurt, a 1-1 draw in which LASK led through Sascha Horvath's early strike but were pegged back three minutes from time by an Eden Shamir equaliser.
- Maccabi have yet to beat an Austrian side at home (D1 L1), the defeat coming against Salzburg in last season's UEFA Champions League play-off first leg, a 1-2 loss leading to a 2-5 aggregate defeat.
- LASK's only previous away game against Israeli opposition was a 1-1 draw at Hapoel Petah Tikva in the 2000 UEFA Intertoto Cup first round.

Form guide

Maccabi

- Maccabi were runners-up in the Israeli top flight last season, missing out on a hat-trick of titles as they finished four points adrift of Maccabi Haifa. They had a lengthy 2020/21 European campaign that lasted from the first qualifying round of the UEFA Champions League to the UEFA Europa League round of 32, where they were eliminated by Shakhtar Donetsk (0-2 h, 0-1 a).
- Three qualifying rounds were successfully negotiated by Maccabi this summer en route to the UEFA Europa Conference League group stage as they went unbeaten in knocking out Sutjeka Nikšić (0-0 a, 3-1 h), Spartak Trnava (0-0 a, 1-0 h) and Shakhter Karagandy (2-1 a, 2-0 h).
- Maccabi took seven points from nine at home in last season's UEFA Europa League group stage and have won all five of their European fixtures in Israel this season, scoring 13 goals and conceding two.

LASK

- LASK's fourth successive season of UEFA competition has them competing as Austria's lone representatives in the group stage of the UEFA Europa Conference League. Fourth in the 2020/21 Bundesliga, they came unbeaten through two qualifying ties, beating Vojvodina of Serbia (1-0 a, 6-1 h) and Scotland's St Johnstone (1-1 h, 2-0 a).
- LASK have appeared in the UEFA Europa League group stage in each of the past two seasons, going on to reach the round of 16 as section winners in 2019/20 but finishing third behind Tottenham Hotspur and Antwerp in 2020/21.
- The team from the Danube city have won their last six European away fixtures, the four this season all without conceding. Their group stage record on the road is W5 D1 L2.

Links and trivia

- Maccabi's tally of 13 goals after the opening four matchdays is the biggest in the UEFA Europa Conference League – two more than Group C pair Bodø/Glimt and Roma. Their 5-0 win at HJK on Matchday 3 is also the biggest away from home in the competition's group stage.
