Match background

With 12 points in the bag, FC Copenhagen are already confirmed as the winners of UEFA Europa Conference League Group F, but this Matchday 6 encounter in the Danish capital will decide the fate of Slovan Bratislava, who go into the game in second place but under heavy pressure from PAOK.

- While Slovan were sharing the points in a goalless draw with PAOK on Matchday 5 that kept the clubs locked together on eight points, Copenhagen clinched top spot with a 4-0 win in Gibraltar against Lincoln Red Imps, their four scorers – Ísak Bergmann Jóhannesson, Lukas Lerager, William Bøvning and Rasmus Højland – all finding the net for the first time in Group F.
- Slovan currently lead PAOK for second place by a single goal on overall goal difference.

Previous meetings

- Jonas Wind struck twice and Jens Stage once as Copenhagen kicked off the group stage with a 3-1 victory over Slovan in Bratislava on Matchday 1, Ezekiel Henty scoring for the Slovakian champions.
- The one previous contest between the clubs was a UEFA Cup first round tie in 1994/95 that Slovan won 2-1 on aggregate, a 1-0 victory in Bratislava preceding a 1-1 draw in Copenhagen.
- Copenhagen's only other tie against a Slovakian side yielded a 4-3 aggregate win over Žilina in the 2017/18 UEFA Champions League second qualifying round (3-1 a, 1-2 h), while Slovan won their first two UEFA ties against Danish opposition but lost the third, against Lyngby in the second qualifying round of the 2017/18 UEFA Europa League (0-1 h, 1-2 a). Copenhagen have therefore never beaten a Slovakian team at home (D1 L1), while Slovan have yet to win in Denmark (D2 L1).

Form guide

Copenhagen

- Copenhagen are competing in a 14th UEFA group stage campaign, having missed out last season when they were eliminated in the UEFA Europa League play-offs by Rijeka (0-1 h). They finished third in the Danish Superliga, six points behind champions Brøndby.
- Jess Thorup's side made light work of their three UEFA Europa Conference League qualifying ties, scoring 21 goals in overcoming Torpedo Zhodino (4-1 h, 5-0 a), Lokomotiv Plovdiv (1-1 a, 4-2 h) and Sivasspor (2-1 a, 5-0 h).
- The 2019/20 UEFA Europa League quarter-finalists have won six of their last eight European home games, but lost the most recent, going down 1-2 against PAOK on Matchday 3 – their only dropped points in Group F. This season they have scored 17 goals in five European matches at Parken, conceding six.

Slovan

- A second successive Slovakian league and cup double was Slovan's reward for a dominant domestic season in 2020/21, which counterbalanced eliminations on entry in the qualifying phase of both the UEFA Champions League and UEFA Europa League, to KÍ of the Faroe Islands and KuPS of Finland respectively.
- UEFA Europa League group stage participants three times previously, Slovan are Slovakia's first representatives in the UEFA Europa Conference League proper. The start of their 2021/22 European campaign, under former Slovakia and Georgia head coach Vladimír Weiss, featured an aggregate victory and defeat in both the UEFA Champions League and UEFA Europa League – against, respectively, Shamrock Rovers (3-2) and Young Boys (2-3) in the former and Lincoln (4-2) and Olympiacos (2-5) in the latter.
- Slovan's 3-1 win in Gibraltar in August ended their eight-match winless run on the road in UEFA competition (D2 L6). Their repeat victory at the Victoria Stadium on Matchday 4 (4-1) was the club's first away from home in a European group stage, eight of their first ten such fixtures having been lost and the other two drawn, including 1-1 at PAOK on Matchday 2.

Links and trivia

- Slovan's Jaba Kankava and Guram Kashia are long-standing Georgia national team-mates of Copenhagen defender Davit Khocholava.
- As national coach of Georgia, Weiss was on the losing side as a Denmark team featuring Copenhagen's Peter Ankersen triumphed 5-1 at Parken in a UEFA EURO 2020 qualifier on 10 June 2019. Kankava captained a Georgia side that also included Kashia.
- Slovan's Serbian winger Aleksandar Čavrić spent most of 2015/16 on loan at Danish Superliga club AGF Aarhus.
