Frank Lampard named as new Chelsea manager.

Lampard, who was previously the club's Assistant Manager under Frank Lampard, has been appointed as the new manager of Chelsea.

Lampard, who spent 10 years at Chelsea as a player, has been out of management since leaving Derby County in 2018.

Chelsea have confirmed that Lampard has signed a three-year contract with the club.

"I am excited by the challenge and thrilled to be back at Chelsea," Lampard said.

The club are also working on securing a new deal for Eden Hazard, who is out of contract at the end of the season.

Meanwhile, Chelsea are set to face Manchester City in the Europa League final on May 29 in Baku.

Ziyad Ramadan named new manager of team.

Ramadan, who was previously the club's Assistant Manager under Ziyad Ramadan, has been appointed as the new manager of team.

Ramadan, who spent 15 years at team as a player, has been out of management since leaving team in 2015.

"I am excited by the challenge and thrilled to be back at team," Ramadan said.

The club are also working on securing a new deal for Lionel Messi, who is out of contract at the end of the season.

Meanwhile, team are set to face team in the Europa League final on May 29 in Baku.
