Match background

- Portugal are making their major tournament debut against neighbours Spain, in a Group D opener followed by another derby, England v Scotland.
- The Iberian rivals had never met competitively before being drawn together in qualifying for UEFA Women's EURO 2017.
- In December 2015 in Badajoz, Spain won 2-0 with first-half goals from Vicky Losada and Sonia Bermúdez.
- In April 2016, Spain then triumphed 4-1 in Covilha. Virginia Torrecilla and Alexia Putellas gave the visitors a 2-0 half-time lead, and although Dolores Silva pulled one back, Amanda Sampedro and Verónica Boquete scored in the last three minutes for Spain.
- The teams had previously met twice in friendlies. On 5 February 1994, Spain won 1-0 in Chaves but exactly 11 years earlier it was 1-0 to Portugal in La Guardia.
- Portugal's Raquel Infante is based in Spain with Levante.

Team facts

Spain

EURO 2013: Quarter-finals

EURO best: Semi-finals (1997)

How they qualified: Group 2 winners, W8 D0 L0 F39 A2 Pts24

Coach: Jorge Vilda

One to watch: Jenni Hermoso (forward, Paris Saint-Germain)

What to watch out for: In 2017 Spain have won the Algarve Cup, beaten Belgium 4-1 away and 7-0 at home, also defeated Canada and lost only 2-1 to Brazil. Therefore it is no surprise that many feel this could be the time for Spain to start to match their success at women's youth level in the senior competition, not least as several of those junior titles were under Jorge Vilda.

Verónica Boquete was a surprise absence from the squad but recent Paris signing Hermoso, her new club-mate Irene Paredes and Barcelona's Vicky Losada are among a host of players well capable of performing at the highest level.

Portugal

EURO 2013: Fourth in qualifying group

EURO best: First qualification

How they qualified: Group 2 runners-up, W4 D1 L3 F15 A11 Pts13, won play-off v Romania (agg: 1-1, Portugal won on away goals)

Coach: Francisco Neto

One to watch: Cláudia Neto (midfielder, Linköping)

What to watch out for: All the other finals debutants commenced qualifying in the second tier of seeds, but Portugal were drawn from Pot 4 and ranked 25th of the 40 competing countries. Even so, they overhauled both the Republic of Ireland and Finland to earn a play-off, beating the latter in a memorable comeback from two goals down, Cláudia Neto hitting a hat-trick in a 3-2 triumph.

It was the third time they had been one two-legged tie away from the finals and, despite being held 0-0 at home by Romania, the return fixture ended 1-1 after extra time, a strike from debutant Andreia Norton securing Portugal a surprise EURO place on away goals. While they have experience of facing the elite sides from hosting the annual Algarve Cup each March, this is a huge step up for the Portuguese, even with a squad containing players with foreign know-how like Neto, Ana Borges and Ana Leite.
