Match background

- Russia will be through with a win having beaten Italy 2-1.
- Sweden drew 0-0 against Germany on Monday.
- This is a familiar group stage fixture having occurred in 1997, 2001, 2009 and now 2017.
- Sweden won all those preceding matches: 2-1 in 1997, 1-0 in 2001 and 3-0 eight years ago, Caroline Seger among the scorers.
- In each of those groups, Sweden went through and Russia were eliminated (just as when the duo did not meet in 2013).
- Germany were also in their 2001 group and Italy in the 2009 section.
- Current Russia coach Elena Fomina played in the 2001 and 2009 matches.
- They met on 8 March this year for seventh place in the Algarve Cup. Sweden won 4-0 with Kosovare Asllani scoring twice and one each by Nilla Fischer and Fridolina Rolfö.
- Overall, Sweden have five wins out of five against Russia, also beating them 2-0 in a 1997 friendly in Falköping.

Team facts

Sweden

EURO 2013: Semi-finals

EURO best: Winners (1984)

How they qualified: Group 4 winners, W7 D0 L1 F22 A3 Pts2

Coach: Pia Sundhage

One to watch: Lotta Schelin (forward, Rosengård)

What to watch out for: The Swedes are often polar opposites to Norway, tipped heavily before a tournament only to fall short (hence surprise losses to their neighbours in the 2005 semis and 2009 quarters). But following a 2011 World Cup bronze, they have found a new toughness since Sundhage returned from the United States to take charge prior to the 2013 finals on home soil.

Only an epic 1-0 semi-final defeat by Germany denied them a dream decider against Norway, and Sweden took a further step forward when they ground down both the US and Brazil to make the 2016 Olympic final. Though Germany took gold, Sweden had shown their ability to steer a knockout course, though losing their last qualifier in Denmark cost them top seeding in the EURO draw.

Russia

EURO 2013: Group stage

EURO best: Group stage (1997, 2001, 2009, 2013)

How they qualified: Group 5 runners-up, W4 D2 L2 F14 A9 Pts14

Coach: Elena Fomina

One to watch: Elena Danilova (midfielder, Ryazan)

What to watch out for: Russia have tended to falter in the group stage as reliably as they have qualified, though they were unfortunate in 2013 to miss out on the quarter-finals via a drawing of lots with Denmark. This time round, only a 5-0 victory in their last qualifier against Croatia ensured the Russians avoided a play-off by virtue of goals scored, ahead of fellow runner-up Romania, and recent results have not been promising.

The base of the team is formed by the talents that won the 2005 UEFA European Women's Under-19 Championship, including Anna Kozhnikova in defence, plus Elena Morozova and the prolific but injury-plagued Elena Danilova further forward. Elena Fomina took over as coach in 2015 having often been the hero on the pitch.
