Match background

- With four points, a draw will take France through.
- Having beaten Iceland to bounce back from losing to Austria, debutants Switzerland must win to reach the quarter-finals.
- France and Switzerland have met before in UEFA Women's EURO competition: in qualifying for the very first event in 1984.
- Both games were played in 1983 and were drawn, 1-1 in France and 0-0 in Switzerland.
- Overall, including friendlies, these sides have locked horns 20 times – France winning 12, losing four and drawing four.
- In those matches, France have scored 39 goals to Switzerland's 22.
- Their 2-2 draw in Basel on 4 May 1972 was Switzerland's first official women's international.
- Three of Switzerland's four victories against France came in the subsequent three fixtures; the other was in 2002.
- Their most recent encounter was a 3-0 French success at the 2012 Cyprus Women's Cup.
- France are on a five-game winning streak against Switzerland dating back to 2002.
- Before her summer move to Barcelona, Élise Bussaglia was a club-mate of Switzerland's Vanessa Bernauer, Noëlle Maritz and Lara Dickenmann at Wolfsburg.
- Bussaglia and Dickenmann both moved to Wolfsburg in 2015 from Lyon, where they had played together for three years.

Team facts

Switzerland

EURO 2013: Fourth in qualifying group

EURO best: First qualification

How they qualified: Group 6 winners, W8 D0 L0 F34 A3 Pts24

Coach: Martina Voss-Tecklenburg

One to watch: Ramona Bachmann (forward, Chelsea)

What to watch out for: Switzerland have begun to turn youth-finals potency into senior success. Their major step forward came with reaching the last World Cup, comfortably seeing off Iceland and Denmark to book a debut final tournament, where a 10-1 thrashing of Ecuador took them into the last 16.

They were even more convincing in qualifying for their first European finals, with Italy (and everyone else, in fact) beaten home and away. Former Germany player Voss-Tecklenburg has enabled a team with a talented attack including Bachmann, Lara Dickenmann and Ana-Maria Crnogorčević to realise their potential.

France

EURO 2013: Quarter-finals

EURO best: Quarter-finals (2009, 2013)

How they qualified: Group 3 winners, W8 D0 L0 F27 A0 Pts24

Coach: Olivier Echouafni

One to watch: Wendie Renard (defender, Lyon)

What to watch out for: In terms of raw talent, France perhaps ought to have been the dominant nation in Europe in recent years, rather than having suffered a series of quarter-final near-misses, at global level as well as in the past two EUROs. The UEFA Women's Champions League supremacy of Lyon, with a very similar squad to Les Bleues, is proof of that.

But it has not happened and three years after replacing Bruno Bini as coach, Philippe Bergeroo has himself made way for Olivier Echouafni. Can he help France turn their habitual superiority in big matches into goals? That is the key for the team who, on paper, should be Germany's strongest challengers.
